1. Note: This table relates only to the provisions of this Act as originally enacted. It will not be amended to deal with any later amendments of this Act.

2. Any information in column 3 of the table is not part of this Act.

3. Information may be inserted in this column, or information in it may be edited, in any published version of this Act.

3 Schedules

Legislation that is specified in a Schedule to this Act is amended or repealed as set out in the applicable items in the Schedule concerned, and any other item in a Schedule to this Act has effect according to its terms.
Schedule 1—Amendments

Part 1—Main amendments

Criminal Code Act 1995

1 After Part 9.6 of the Criminal Code

Insert:

Part 9.7—Protecting animals and animal enterprises

Division 383—Failing to report malicious cruelty to animals

383.5 Failing to report malicious cruelty to animals after recording it

(1) A person commits an offence if:

(a) the person makes a visual record of an activity engaged in, in Australia, by another person; and

   Example: A video recording, whether or not with sound, or a photograph.

(b) the person makes the record because the person believes the activity to be malicious cruelty to animals; and

(c) either or both of the following subparagraphs apply:

   (i) within one business day after the person makes the record, the activity is not reported to an authority of the Commonwealth, or of the State or Territory in which the activity occurred, with responsibility for enforcing laws relating to animal welfare;

   (ii) within 5 business days after the person makes the record, the record is not given to such an authority; and

(d) subsection (4) applies.

Penalty: 30 penalty units.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(b), it is immaterial whether the activity actually is malicious cruelty to animals.
(3) A defendant bears an evidential burden in relation to the matter in paragraph (1)(c).

(4) This subsection applies if:
   (a) the record is made:
      (i) by a federally regulated entity; or
      (ii) in constitutional trade or commerce; or
      (iii) in a Territory or a Commonwealth place; or
   (b) the recorded activity is engaged in:
      (i) by a federally regulated entity; or
      (ii) in constitutional trade or commerce; or
      (iii) in a Territory or a Commonwealth place.

(5) Absolute liability applies to paragraph (1)(d).

Note: For absolute liability, see section 6.2.

383.10 Meaning of malicious cruelty to animals

(1) A person engages in malicious cruelty to animals if the person engages in an unlawful activity for the purpose of inflicting unnecessary pain, injury or death upon domestic animals.

(2) Humane slaughter for the purposes of food production, or for compassionate reasons, is not malicious cruelty to animals.

383.15 Visual records

Copies

(1) A reference in this Division to a record is treated as including a reference to a copy of the record.

Alteration

(2) To avoid doubt, giving a record that is altered (including through omission or addition) does not satisfy the requirement of subparagraph 383.5(1)(c)(ii).

383.20 Other matters

(1) This Division does not apply to the extent (if any) that it would:
(a) infringe any constitutional doctrine of implied freedom of colitical communication; or
(b) affect the law relating to legal professional privilege.

(2) This Division does not apply to a Commonwealth, State or Territory authority with responsibility for enforcing laws relating to animal welfare.

(3) It is the intention of the Parliament that this Division is not to apply to the exclusion of a law of a State or a Territory to the extent that the law is capable of operating concurrently with this Division.

Division 385—Interfering with the carrying on of animal enterprises

385.5 Destroying or damaging property

Offence

(1) A person (the first person) commits an offence if:
(a) the first person engages in conduct that destroys or damages property:
   (i) used in carrying on an animal enterprise; or
   (ii) belonging to a person who carries on an animal enterprise; or
   (iii) belonging to a person who is otherwise connected with, or related to, an animal enterprise; and

Example 1: Property could include animals and records.

Example 2: Persons connected with, or related to, an animal enterprise could include suppliers or customers.

(b) the first person intends that the conduct will interfere with the carrying on of the animal enterprise; and

(c) subsection (3) applies.

Penalty:
(a) in the case of an offence to which subsection 385.20(1) applies—imprisonment for 5 years; or
(b) in the case of an offence to which subsection 385.20(2)
    applies—imprisonment for 10 years; or
Schedule 1 Amendments

Part 1 Main amendments

(c) in the case of an offence to which subsection 385.20(3) applies—imprisonment for 20 years; or
(d) in the case of an offence to which subsection 385.20(4) applies—imprisonment for life; or
(e) in any other case—imprisonment for 1 year.

(2) For the purpose of this section, it does not matter whether the conduct actually interferes with the carrying on of the animal enterprise.

Constitutional basis

(3) This subsection applies if:

(a) the first person is a federally regulated entity; or
(b) the conduct occurs in a Territory or a Commonwealth place; or
(c) the property belongs to:
   (i) a Commonwealth entity; or
   (ii) a Territory; or
   (iii) a federally regulated entity; or
(d) the animal enterprise is carried on by:
   (i) a Commonwealth entity; or
   (ii) a Territory; or
   (iii) a federally regulated entity; or
(e) the interference with the carrying on of the animal enterprise would cause detriment to constitutional trade and commerce.

(4) Absolute liability applies to paragraph (1)(c).

Note: For absolute liability, see section 6.2.

385.10 Causing fear of death or serious bodily injury

Offence

(1) A person (the first person) commits an offence if:

(a) the first person engages in conduct involving threats, vandalism, property damage, criminal trespass, harassment, or intimidation; and
(b) the conduct causes another person (the second person) reasonably to fear that any person will cause death or serious bodily injury to a person (the targeted person) who is:
   (i) the second person; or
   (ii) a close family member of the second person; or
   (iii) an employee of the second person; or
   (iv) a contractor engaged by the second person to participate in the carrying on of an enterprise; and

(c) the second person or the targeted person:
   (i) carries on an animal enterprise; or
   (ii) is otherwise connected with, or related to, an animal enterprise; and

Example: Persons connected with, or related to, an animal enterprise could include suppliers or customers.

(d) the first person intends that the conduct will interfere with the carrying on of the animal enterprise; and

(e) subsection (3) applies.

Penalty:

(a) in the case of an offence to which subsection 385.20(1) applies—imprisonment for 5 years; or

(b) in the case of an offence to which subsection 385.20(2) applies—imprisonment for 10 years; or

(c) in the case of an offence to which subsection 385.20(3) applies—imprisonment for 20 years; or

(d) in the case of an offence to which subsection 385.20(4) applies—imprisonment for life; or

(e) in any other case—imprisonment for 1 year.

(2) For the purpose of this section, it does not matter whether the conduct actually interferes with the carrying on of the animal enterprise.

Constitutional basis

(3) This subsection applies if:

(a) the first person is a federally regulated entity; or

(b) the first person engages in the conduct by constitutional communication; or Schedule 1  Amendments
Part 1  Main amendments

(c) the conduct occurs in a Territory or a Commonwealth place; or
(d) the animal enterprise is carried on by:
   (i) a Commonwealth entity; or
   (ii) a Territory; or
   (iii) a federally regulated entity; or
   (e) the interference with the carrying on of the animal enterprise would cause detriment to constitutional trade and commerce.

(4) Absolute liability applies to paragraph (1)(e).

Note:  For absolute liability, see section 6.2.

385.15  Defences

This Division does not apply to conduct if the conduct is:
(a) peaceful picketing, or some other legally sanctioned peaceful demonstration; or
(b) done in good faith in connection with an industrial dispute or an industrial matter; or
(c) publishing in good faith a report or commentary about a matter of public interest.

Note:  A defendant bears an evidential burden in relation to the matters in this section: see subsection 13.3(3).

385.20  Aggravated offences

Aggravated offences

(1) This subsection applies to an offence if the conduct results in economic damage exceeding $10,000.

(2) This subsection applies to an offence if the conduct results in:
    (a) substantial bodily injury to any individual; or
    (b) economic damage exceeding $100,000.

(3) This subsection applies to an offence if the conduct results in:
    (a) serious bodily injury to any individual; or
    (b) economic damage exceeding $1,000,000.

(4) This subsection applies to an offence if the conduct results in death to any individual.
Procedural matters

(5) If the prosecution intends to prove an offence (an aggravated offence) to which subsection (1), (2), (3) or (4) applies, the charge must allege the relevant aggravated offence.

(6) If, on a trial for an aggravated offence against a section of this Division, the trier of fact:

(a) is not satisfied that the defendant is guilty of the aggravated offence; but

(b) is otherwise satisfied that the defendant is guilty of an offence against that section (including an offence to which subsection (1), (2) or (3) of this section applies);

the trier of fact may find the defendant not guilty of the offence mentioned in paragraph (a), but guilty of the offence mentioned in paragraph (b).

(7) Subsection (6) only applies if the defendant has been afforded procedural fairness in relation to the finding of guilt for the offence mentioned in paragraph (6)(b).

385.25 Division not intended to exclude State or Territory law

It is the intention of the Parliament that this Division is not to apply to the exclusion of a law of a State or a Territory to the extent that the law is capable of operating concurrently with this Division.

2 Dictionary in the Criminal Code

Insert:

animal enterprise includes:

(a) a commercial or academic enterprise that uses, sells, houses or stores animals or animal products for:

(i) profit; or
