1 Meeting of Senate

The Senate met at 10.30 am, pursuant to a proclamation made by His Excellency the former Governor-General under section 5 of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Australia and published in the Commonwealth of Australia Gazette on 21 June 2019.

The proclamation calling the Parliament together was read by the Clerk, as follows:

PROCLAMATION

I, GENERAL THE HONOURABLE SIR PETER COSGROVE AK MC (RET’D), Governor-General of the Commonwealth of Australia, acting under section 5 of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Australia:

• appoint Tuesday, 2 July 2019, at 10.30 am as the day and time for the Parliament to meet at Parliament House to hold a session of the Parliament;
• summon all Senators and Members of the House of Representatives to meet at that day, time and place.

Signed and sealed with the Great Seal of Australia on 19th June 2019

Peter Cosgrove
Governor-General

By His Excellency’s Command
Scott Morrison
Prime Minister.

2 Opening of the 46th Parliament

The Deputy of His Excellency the Governor-General, the Honourable Susan Mary Kiefel, AC, Chief Justice of the High Court of Australia, accompanied by the Honourable Stephen Gageler, AC, Justice of the High Court of Australia, were announced by the Usher of the Black Rod.

The Deputy took the chair and directed the Usher of the Black Rod to let the members of the House of Representatives know that she desired their attendance in the Senate.

The members of the House of Representatives attended.

The Deputy addressed the members of both Houses, as follows:

Senators—Members of the House of Representatives—

His Excellency the Governor-General has appointed me as his Deputy to declare open the Parliament of the Commonwealth. The Clerk of the Senate will now read the instrument of appointment.

The Clerk read the instrument, as follows:

APPOINTMENT OF A DEPUTY OF THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL TO DECLARE OPEN THE PARLIAMENT

Dated 1st July 2019.

David Hurley
Governor-General

By His Excellency’s Command
Scott Morrison
Prime Minister.

The Deputy declared open the 46th Parliament of the Commonwealth and further addressed the members of both Houses, as follows:

His Excellency the Governor-General has commanded me to let you know that, after senators and members of the House of Representatives have been sworn, the Governor-General will declare in person at this place the cause of his calling the Parliament together.

Before that time, it is necessary for the Senate to choose its President and for the House of Representatives to choose its Speaker. Later today you will present those you have chosen to the Governor-General.

The Honourable Justice Gageler will now attend in the House of Representatives to administer the oath or affirmation of allegiance to honourable members of that House.

The Honourable Justice Gageler was escorted from the Senate by the Usher of the Black Rod and the members of the House of Representatives retired.

3 Deputy’s commission to administer oath or affirmation

The Deputy produced a commission authorising her to administer the oath or affirmation of allegiance.

The Clerk read the commission, as follows:

AUTHORITY TO ADMINISTER THE OATH OR AFFIRMATION OF ALLEGIANCE TO SENATORS

I, GENERAL THE HONOURABLE DAVID HURLEY AC DSC (RETD), Governor-General of the Commonwealth of Australia, acting under section 42 of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Australia, authorise THE HONOURABLE SUSAN MARY KIEFEL AC, Chief Justice of the High Court of Australia, to administer the oath or affirmation of allegiance to Senators.

8 President’s commission to administer oath or affirmation

The President announced that he had received from His Excellency the Governor-General a commission to administer to senators the oath or affirmation of allegiance.

The President tabled the commission as follows:

AUTHORISATION TO ADMINISTER THE OATH OR AFFIRMATION OF ALLEGIANCE TO SENATORS

I, GENERAL THE HONOURABLE DAVID HURLEY AC DSC (RETD), Governor-General of the Commonwealth of Australia, acting under section 42 of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Australia, authorise SCOTT MICHAEL RYAN, President of the Senate, to administer the oath or affirmation of allegiance to those Senators who have not already made and subscribed that oath or affirmation since being chosen, elected or appointed, or since last being chosen, elected or appointed, as Senators.
By His Excellency’s Command
Scott Morrison
Prime Minister.

9 Governor-General’s opening speech
The President reported that he had received a copy of the opening speech delivered by His Excellency the Governor-General to both Houses of Parliament.

Ordered, on the motion of the Leader of the Government in the Senate (Senator Cormann), that consideration of the Governor-General’s opening speech be made an order of the day for the next day of sitting.

Suspension of standing order 3(4): Senator Cormann, by leave, moved—That standing order 3(4) be suspended to enable the Senate to consider business other than that of a formal character before the address-in-reply to the Governor-General’s opening speech has been adopted.

The Leader of the Opposition in the Senate (Senator Wong) moved the following amendment:

Omit all words after “That”, substitute:

“so much of standing order 3(4) be suspended to enable the Senate to consider the following business before the address-in-reply to the Governor-General’s opening speech has been adopted:

(a) business other than that of a formal character (excluding government business); and

(b) government business relating to the consideration of the Treasury Laws Amendment (Making Sure Multinationals Pay Their Fair Share of Tax in Australia and Other Measures) Bill 2019.”

Debate ensued.

Question was divided at the request of the Leader of the Australian Greens (Senator Di Natale)—

Question—That paragraph (a) of the amendment be agreed to—put.
The Senate divided—

The Minister for Families and Social Services (Senator Ruston): To move on the next day of sitting—That, in accordance with the recommendation in the Procedure Committee’s first report of 2019, standing order 66 be amended as follows:

   After paragraph (3), insert:

   (4) The question on any motion to suspend standing orders moved in the following circumstances shall be put immediately without any amendment or debate:

   (a) any motion to suspend standing orders to provide for the consideration of a motion for which formality has been denied; and

   (b) any other motion to suspend standing orders moved during consideration of formal business under standing order 66.

The Minister for Finance (Senator Cormann): To move on the next day of sitting—That on Thursday, 4 July 2019—

   (a) following the reporting of a message from the House of Representatives transmitting the Treasury Laws Amendment (Tax Relief So Working Australians Keep More Of Their Money) Bill 2019 for concurrence, the bill be considered immediately and have precedence over all other government business until determined;

   (b) if by 2 pm consideration of the bill has not concluded, then the routine of business after 3.30 pm be government business only;

   (c) divisions may take place after 4.30 pm; and

   (d) the Senate shall adjourn without debate after it has completed consideration of the bill, including any message from the House of Representatives, or a motion for the adjournment is moved by a minister, whichever is the earlier.
Senator Patrick: To move on the next day of sitting—

(1) That so much of the standing orders be suspended as would prevent this resolution having effect.

(2) That the following bills be restored to the Notice Paper and consideration of each of the bills resume at the stage reached in the 45th Parliament:

- Competition and Consumer Amendment (Truth in Labelling—Palm Oil) Bill 2017
- Freedom of Information Legislation Amendment (Improving Access and Transparency) Bill 2018
- Intelligence Services Amendment (Enhanced Parliamentary Oversight of Intelligence Agencies) Bill 2018
- Ministers of State (Checks for Security Purposes) Bill 2019. (general business notice of motion no. 1)

Senator Patrick: To move on the next day of sitting—

(1) That the Senate notes that—

(a) on 12 October 2017, Mr Richard Boyle made a disclosure under the Public Interest Disclosure Act 2013 (PID Act) as a former employee of the Australian Taxation Office (ATO), alleging the ATO:

(i) had instructed employees to issue standard garnishee notices to seize funds from taxpayers’ bank accounts without notice or consideration of their personal and business circumstances, and

(ii) in doing so, had required employees to engage in conduct that was unethical, unprofessional and against the Australian Public Service Code of Conduct;

(b) on 27 October 2017, the ATO decided not to further investigate Mr Boyle’s disclosure on the basis that the information did not concern serious disclosable conduct as defined in the PID Act; and

(c) subsequent media inquiries found anomalies in the ATO’s debt collection practices that appeared consistent with Mr Boyle’s disclosure.

(2) That the Senate is of the opinion that—

(a) whistleblowers must be protected to ensure integrity and deter misconduct within the government and the public sector; and

(b) examining the ATO’s actions in relation to Mr Boyle’s disclosure is consistent with the Senate’s role in providing oversight of government administration.

(3) That the Senate orders the Commissioner of Taxation to provide all documents relating to the disclosure generated or received by Mr Boyle’s supervisor, authorised officer and principal officer (as defined in the PID Act) to the Economics Legislation Committee (the committee) by no later than 5 pm on 10 July 2019.

(4) That the committee, when it has considered the documents, report to the Senate as to whether the ATO’s handling of disclosures by whistleblowers warrants further inquiry. (general business notice of motion no. 2)
Senator Patrick: To move on the next day of sitting—

(1) That the Senate notes—

(a) the Prime Minister’s Statement of Ministerial Standards of 30 August 2018, at paragraph 2.25 concerning post-ministerial employment, states that “Ministers are required to undertake that, for an eighteen month period after ceasing to be a Minister, they will not lobby, advocate or have business meetings with members of the government, Parliament, public service or defence force on any matters on which they have had official dealings as Minister in their last eighteen months in office. Ministers are also required to undertake that, on leaving office, they will not take personal advantage of information to which they have had access as a Minister, where that information is not generally available to the public”;

(b) that Mr Christopher Maurice Pyne served as the Minister for Defence Industry from 19 July 2016 to 28 August 2018, and as the Minister for Defence from 28 August 2018 to 11 April 2019;

(c) that Mr Pyne has taken employment with consulting firm EY and that, in his own words, he is “looking forward to providing strategic advice to EY, as the firm looks to expand its footprint in the defence industry”;

(d) that media reports indicate that AusTender government contract notices show that over the past four years EY has secured over 830 contracts with the Australian Government worth more than $370 million, including 138 contracts with the Department of Defence worth $148 million;

(e) that EY has publicly identified the Australian Government’s investment in new defence capabilities, including the future submarines project and the future frigate project as major business opportunities;

(f) EY’s statement that Mr Pyne will help build EY’s defence-related business in South Australia and elsewhere, including helping to “lead conversations about what all states need to do to meet the challenges and opportunities this defence investment will bring”;

(g) EY’s subsequent statement that Mr Pyne “will not be lobbying or meeting with public sector MPs, public service or defence in his EY role” and that he will be “supporting the private sector side of the business”; and

(h) Mr Pyne’s further statement that he intends “to ensure that anyone I provide advice to has rigorous processes and procedures in place to ensure that I am not put in a position where the Ministerial Code might be breached”.

(2) That the following matter be referred to the Finance and Public Administration References Committee for inquiry and report by 10 September 2019:

(a) compliance by former Ministers of State with the requirements of paragraph 2.25 of the Prime Minister’s Statement of Ministerial Standards, dated 30 August 2018, including, but not limited to the undertakings given by Ministers to comply with their obligations concerning post-ministerial employment, and action taken by the Prime Minister and the Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet to ensure full compliance by former Ministers with paragraph 2.25 of the Ministerial Standards; and
(b) any related matters.

Senators Bilyk and Sterle: To move on the next day of sitting—That the Senate—

(a) notes that:

(i) 3 to 9 June 2019 was World Haemochromatosis Week,
(ii) around 1 in 200 Australians have the genetic risk for haemochromatosis – or inherited iron overload disorder – making it the most common genetic disorder in Australia,
(iii) if detected, haemochromatosis is easy to treat, yet it can be fatal if left undiagnosed and untreated, and
(iv) during that week, Haemochromatosis Australia was promoting the message “TEST: Tricky to say, Easy to test, Simple to treat, Tragic to ignore”;

(b) urges all members and senators to raise awareness among their constituents of:

(i) the early symptoms of haemochromatosis, such as fatigue and joint pain,
(ii) the dangers of experiencing the more severe symptoms of iron overload, such as organ failure, and
(iii) the importance of asking their doctor for a blood test to check their risk of iron overload. (general business notice of motion no. 3)

Senator Bernardi: To move on the next day of sitting—

(1) That so much of the standing orders be suspended as would prevent this resolution having effect.

(2) That the Nuclear Fuel Cycle (Facilitation) Bill 2017 be restored to the Notice Paper and consideration of the bill resume at the stage reached in the 45th Parliament. (general business notice of motion no. 4)

Senator Rice: To move on 23 July 2019—That the following matter be referred to the Legal and Constitutional Affairs References Committee for inquiry and report by 3 December 2019:

The continuing discrimination against lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, gender diverse, intersex and queer people and their families in Australia, its prevalence and its impacts, including:

(a) existing discrimination within federal, state and territory law and policy;

(b) experience of discrimination in Australian life, including but not limited to educational settings, workplaces, aged care, healthcare, sporting clubs and organisations, religious organisations, the provision of government services, including where contracted out, and in the provision of goods, services, housing and accommodation;

(c) where discrimination is sanctioned by federal, state and territory legislation and where it is occurring in breach or potential breach of legislation;

(d) how this discrimination affects the human rights, legal rights, access to justice, health, wellbeing and educational and economic outcomes of LGBTIQ+ people in Australia;

(e) the additional and compounding impacts of discrimination on LGBTIQ+ people and their families who are Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander, of different or minority race, ethnicity or religion, or on the grounds of their migrant status, age, ability and socio-economic background or circumstances, who have intersectional LGBTIQ+ identities, or who have a range of these personal characteristics;

(f) how the experience of discrimination on LGBTIQ+ people and their families differs for young people;

(g) how the experience of discrimination on LGBTIQ+ people and their families differs based on whether they live in urban, regional, rural or remote areas;

(h) the specific discrimination, stigmatisation and human rights violations, including harmful practices in medical settings, experienced by people born with variations of sex characteristics, including infants, children and adolescents, and also encompassing prenatal interventions due to variations of sex characteristics;

(i) the broad range of sexual orientation and gender identity change efforts and associated formal and informal activities, particularly by religious organisations, and the impacts of these on lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, gender diverse and queer people;

(j) the reforms and initiatives required to remedy prejudice, stigma and discrimination against LGBTIQ+ people and their families, including legislative and policy reforms, funding for training and education programs, funding for community and government initiatives, development of funded government strategies, better liaison between government, relevant NGOs and the LGBTIQ+ community, and the development of national standards for best-practice legislative, policy and program initiatives; and

(k) any other related matters.

Senator Waters: To move on the next day of sitting—That the Senate—

(a) notes that:

(i) since the start of 2019, there have been 25 women killed by violence in Australia as reported by Counting Dead Women Australia from Destroy The Joint, today there have been reports of a further violent death of a woman in Queensland – her death is under investigation and raises the toll to 26, there is no national government reporting program to record the ongoing toll of women killed by violence in real time – this work is currently left to researchers at not-for-profit organisations like Destroy the Joint,

on average, one woman a week is murdered by her current or former partner,

1 in 3 Australian women have experienced physical violence since the age of 15,

1 in 5 Australian women has experienced sexual violence,

1 in 6 Australian women has experienced physical or sexual violence by a current or former partner,

1 in 4 Australian women has experienced emotional abuse by a current or former partner,

Australian women are nearly three times more likely than men to experience violence from an intimate partner, there is growing evidence that women with disabilities are more likely to experience violence,

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander women report experiencing violence in the previous 12 months at 3.1 times the rate of non-Indigenous women, and in 2014-15, Indigenous women were 32 times as likely to be hospitalised due to family violence as non-Indigenous women; and

(b) calls on the Federal Government to:

(i) recognise domestic violence against women as a national security crisis,

(ii) adequately fund frontline domestic violence and crisis housing services to ensure that all women seeking safety can access these services when and where they need them,

(iii) legislate for 10 days paid domestic violence leave so that women don’t have to choose between paying the bills and seeking safety,

(iv) implement all 25 recommendations contained in the report of the Finance and Public Administration References Committee on domestic violence in Australia, tabled on 20 August 2015, and

(v) much like the national road toll, maintain and publish an official real-time national toll of women killed by violence in Australia. (general business notice of motion no. 15)

Senators Rice and Waters: To move on the next day of sitting—That the Senate—

(a) notes:

(i) the recent dominant performances of Australian women across a range of international sports, including:

(A) Ms Ashleigh Barty has been ranked No. 1 in singles by the international Women’s Tennis Association, the first Australian woman to reach the top of the world tennis rankings since Ms Evonne Goolagong Cawley in 1976,

(B) Ms Hannah Green secured a win in the Women’s PGA Championship, becoming the third Australian woman to win a golfing major title after Ms Karrie Webb and Ms Jan Stephenson,

(C) Ms Sally Fitzgibbons was crowned surfing world No. 1 after beating Ms Carissa Moore in the final of World Surf League’s Rio Pro in Brazil,

(D) The Matildas reached the Round of 16 in the Women’s Football World Cup in France, with captain Ms Sam Kerr becoming the first Australian to score four goals in a World Cup game, and

(E) Australia’s women’s eight crew won gold at the Rowing World Cup in Poland,

(ii) that there continue to be significant barriers to equality in women’s sport, including huge pay and prize money disparity, lack of investment in and access to facilities and sporting grounds, and structural barriers including sexism, transphobia, intersexism and lack of media coverage, and

(iii) that interest in women’s sport is increasing and female athletes are inspiring a whole new generation of children – equality in sport will benefit our economy, communities and athletes and help to address cultural issues that prevent women from being equally valued in our society;

(b) congratulates and thanks all these women for their dedication to excellence, and for the inspiration they provide to women and girls across Australia; and

(c) calls on the Federal Government to encourage and facilitate women’s participation in sport, particularly in traditionally male-dominated sports, as players, coaches and leaders, by appropriately investing in facilities and promoting pay, prize money, and broadcast equity. (general business notice of motion no. 16)

The Leader of the Australian Greens (Senator Di Natale): To move on the next day of sitting—

(1) That so much of the standing orders be suspended as would prevent this resolution having effect.

(2) That the following bills be restored to the Notice Paper and consideration of each of the bills resume at the stage reached in the 45th Parliament:

- Air Services Amendment Bill 2018

Senator Hanson-Young: To move on the next day of sitting—That the Senate—

(a) notes that:

(i) public services in South Australia, this time the transport system, are under attack from privatisation, and

(ii) privatisation of essential services has an adverse effect on South Australians, with services becoming more expensive and less reliable — electricity prices increased when the Electricity Trust of South Australia was privatised in 1999, as well as bus fares increasing after privatisation in recent years; and

(b) calls on the South Australian Liberal Government to reconsider its move to privatise Adelaide Metro trains and trams. (general business notice of motion no. 18)

Senator Keneally: To move on 4 July 2019—

(1) That a joint select committee, to be known as the Joint Select Committee into the Public’s Right to Know and Press Freedom, be established to inquire into and report on the appropriate balance between the public’s right to know, the freedom of the press and Australia’s national security, with particular reference to:

(a) disclosure and public reporting of sensitive and classified information, including the appropriate regime for warrants regarding journalists and media organisations and adequacy of existing legislation;

(b) the whistleblower protection regime and protections for public sector employees;

(c) the adequacy of referral practices of the Australian Government in relation to leaks of sensitive and classified information;

(d) appropriate culture, practice and leadership for Government and senior public employees;

(e) mechanisms to ensure that the Australian Federal Police have sufficient independence to effectively and impartially carry out their investigatory and law enforcement responsibilities in relation to politically sensitive matters; and

(f) any related matters.

(2) That the committee should provide an interim report by 19 September 2019 and a final report by 28 November 2019.

(3) That the committee consist of 8 members of the House of Representatives and 8 senators, as follows:

(a) 3 members of the House of Representatives nominated by the Government Whip or Whips;

(b) 4 members of the House of Representatives nominated by the Opposition Whip or Whips;

(c) 1 member of the House of Representatives nominated by the Member for Clark;

(d) 3 senators nominated by the Leader of the Government in the Senate;
(e) 3 senators nominated by the Leader of the Opposition in the Senate;
(f) 1 senator nominated by the Leader of the Australian Greens; and
(g) 1 senator from Centre Alliance.

(4) That:

(a) participating members may be appointed to the committee on the nomination of the Government Whip in the House of Representatives, the Opposition Whip in the House of Representatives, the Leader of the Government in the Senate, the Leader of the Opposition in the Senate or any minority party or independent senator or member of the House of Representatives; and

(b) participating members may participate in hearings of evidence and deliberations of the committee, and have all the rights of members of the committee, but may not vote on any questions before the committee.

(5) That 3 members of the committee constitute a quorum of the committee, provided that in a deliberative meeting the quorum shall include one Government member of either House and one non-Government member of either House.

(6) That every nomination of a member of the committee be notified in writing to the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives.

(7) That the members of the committee hold office as a joint select committee until the House of Representatives is dissolved or expires by effluxion of time.

(8) That the committee may proceed to the dispatch of business notwithstanding that not all members have been duly nominated and appointed and notwithstanding any vacancy.

(9) That the committee elect as chair one of the members nominated by the Opposition Whip in the House of Representatives or the Leader of the Opposition in the Senate, and as deputy chair one of the members nominated by Government Whip in the House of Representatives or the Leader of the Government in the Senate.

(10) That the deputy chair shall act chair when the chair is absent from a meeting of the committee or the position of chair is temporarily vacant.

(11) That, in the event of an equality of voting, the chair, or the deputy chair when acting as chair, have a casting vote.

(12) That the committee have power to appoint subcommittees consisting of 3 or more of its members, and to refer to any such subcommittee any of the matters which the committee is empowered to consider.

(13) That the committee and any subcommittee have power to send for and examine persons and documents, to move from place to place, to sit in public or in private, notwithstanding any prorogation of the Parliament, and have leave to report from time to time its proceedings and the evidence taken and such interim recommendations as it may deem fit.

(14) That the committee be provided with all necessary staff, facilities and resources and be empowered to appoint persons with specialist knowledge for the purposes of the committee with the approval of the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives.
(15) That the committee be empowered to print from day to day such papers and evidence as may be ordered by it, and a daily Hansard be published of such proceedings as take place in public.

(16) That the committee have power to adjourn from time to time and to sit during any adjournment of the Senate and the House of Representatives.

(17) That a message be sent to the House of Representatives seeking its concurrence in this resolution. (general business notice of motion no. 19)
