Notices given for Tuesday, 22 November 2011

*1 MS PARKE: To move—That this House:

(1) expresses deep concern to our inter-parliamentary colleagues in the Iranian Parliament regarding serious and systematic human rights violations occurring in the Islamic Republic of Iran;

(2) notes the following from United Nations Secretary-General Ban Ki-moon’s report on The situation of human rights in the Islamic Republic of Iran released in September 2011, that:

(a) Iran has stepped up its crackdown on human rights workers, women's rights activists, journalists and government opponents;

(b) since the beginning of 2011, Iran has seen a notable increase in the use of capital punishment for political and juvenile prisoners;

(c) Iran has increased discrimination, in some cases amounting to persecution, against a number of religious and ethnic minority groups;

(d) the United Nations continues to hold long-standing concerns in respect of the treatment of the Baha’i community and the trial and sentencing of seven Baha’i community leaders, which did not meet due process and fair trial requirements;
(e) there is limited enjoyment of political, economic, social and cultural rights by, inter alia, Arabs, Azeri, Baloch and Kurdish communities, and some communities of non-citizens; and

(f) since May 2011, security forces conducted raids on the home of individuals involved in the activities of the Bahá'í Institute for Higher Education and arrested 15 of its members in various cities;

(3) notes that in recent months there have been:

(a) further reports of the denial of access to Iranian universities for young people on the basis of their political or religious beliefs; and

(b) prison terms of between four and five years imposed on seven Iranian Bahá'ís in relation to their association with the Bahá'í Institute for Higher Education; and

(4) calls on the National Consultative Assembly of Iran as fellow members of the inter-parliamentary union and as the parliamentary body of a member state of the United Nations, to:

(a) promote and protect fundamental human rights irrespective of origin, ethnicity, sex, religion, opinion, or other status;

(b) investigate the denial of access to universities for student activists, Bahá'ís, and others barred from universities for reasons other than academic capability; and

(c) seeks a judicial review of the trials of prisoners of conscience, including the seven former Bahá'í leaders, lawyer Ms Nasrin Sotoudeh, and other human rights defenders and lawyers. (Notice given 21 November 2011.)

*2 MS SAFFIN: To move—That this House:

(1) notes that as National Asbestos Awareness Week is formally recognised, it makes earnest representation to the Government to continue to call on Canada to ratify the listing of chrysotile asbestos in the Rotterdam Convention on Prior Informed Consent;

(2) recognises the proactive actions of the Australian Government in mitigating the possible spread of asbestos-related diseases through continuing bans on the production and use of asbestos as well as strict controls on the removal and disposal of existing material;

(3) commends the Australian Government on a number of measures that have been put into place to manage and compensate the victims of asbestos related diseases which include:

(a) the recent ratification of the International Labour Organization (ILO) Asbestos Convention, as one of the first ILO Conventions to be ratified by the Commonwealth Government since 2006;

(b) Australian leadership on a strong closing declaration by 66 countries at the 2011 Conference of the Rotterdam Convention, which expressed deep concern that the listing of chrysotile asbestos had been prevented by a small number of parties and resolved to move forward to list chrysotile asbestos in Annex III;

(c) the $5 million grant made to support the Asbestos Disease Research Institute Bernie Banton Centre;

(d) funding for the new Australian Mesothelioma Registry, which was launched in 2010 to gather more detailed and accurate information on mesothelioma and asbestos-related diseases;

(e) support for the harmonisation of health and safety legislation which will provide, for the first time, a uniform framework for the minimisation of exposure, the removal of asbestos, and the management asbestos materials in the workplace;

(f) the establishment of the Asbestos Management Review in late 2010 to recommend strategies for the development of a national strategic plan to improve asbestos awareness, management and removal;

(g) the loan agreement with the NSW Government to ensure asbestos victims and their families continue to receive payments through the Asbestos Injuries Compensation Fund; and

(h) the $1.5 million Comcare Asbestos Innovation Fund which sponsors programs and research to prevent and better manage asbestos exposure, as well as improve treatment for asbestos-disease sufferers;

(4) notes the unwelcome inheritance that asbestos has left on the Australian community, which sees Australian citizens suffering one of the highest rates of asbestos-related diseases in the world, with the effects of asbestos mining still being suffered by many, mostly Indigenous and past employees of James Hardie's operation at Baryulgil in the electoral division of Page, and the poor health and mortality they and their families suffer;
(5) extends its profound sympathies to all individuals suffering asbestos-related diseases as well as their friends and families and the friends and families of those who have passed away as a result of asbestos-related diseases;

(6) notes the current and potential damage that imported asbestos is creating to the people in the Asia Pacific region where, despite these well documented health risks, it remains an attractive commodity due to its low cost compared to other comparable building material;

(7) calls upon the Canadian Government to recognise the potentially catastrophic health and social implications of Canada’s production and sale of asbestos and products containing asbestos to these lower socio-economic markets; and

(8) supports the Australian Government in using strong diplomatic efforts to convince the Canadian Government to cease both production and trade in asbestos. (Notice given 21 November 2011.)

*3 MS RISHWORTH: To move—That this House:

(1) acknowledges the findings of the Letting the Children be Children review into the commercialisation and sexualisation of childhood commissioned by the Government of the United Kingdom including that:
   (a) children are growing and developing against the backdrop of a culture of increasing commercialisation and sexualisation;
   (b) parents are concerned about clothing, services and products for children which reinforce gender stereotypes and portray children as being more sexually mature than their chronological age would indicate;

   (d) parents often feel their concerns are not being listened to despite the fact that they are often in the best position to decide what is appropriate for their children;

(3) notes with concern that the sexualisation of children is a growing issue not just in the United Kingdom but also in Australia;

(4) recognises that the sexualisation of children, and in particular girls, has been associated with a range of negative consequences including body image issues, eating disorders, low self esteem and mental ill health; and

(5) urges governments, industries, regulators and the wider community in Australia to take note of the Letting the Children be Children report and to work together to address the commercialisation and sexualisation of childhood. (Notice given 21 November 2011.)

(1) notes that:
   (a) microbreweries are important niche businesses in Australia, providing valuable job opportunities and economic growth, particularly in rural and regional areas;

   (c) the Microbrewery Refund was introduced in 2000 and that the definition of a microbrewery has not been reviewed and is now markedly out of step with industry reality; and
   (d) the maximum excise refund has remained capped at $10,000, while the beer excise has been raised twice a year for the past 11 years with the consumer price index; and
(2) calls on the Government to amend:
   (a) the definition of a microbrewery under the Excise Regulations 1925, regulation 2AB, to significantly increase the current maximum volume of 30,000 litres; and
   (b) Excise Regulations 1925, regulation 50(l)(zzd), to remove or significantly increase the maximum of $10,000 excise refund that can be claimed in a financial year. (Notice given 2 November 2011.    (a) accommodation with appropriate support and activities specifically for their age;
   (b) support for family members to understand and cope with the impact of the disease especially for young dependent children; and
   (c) support for the individual and their families in managing their reduced capacity to work and inability to fulfil family responsibilities, such as parenting, as a result of the disease; and

   (2) calls on all Members to support the abolition of the ABCC to restore fairness in the construction industry for workers and employers. (Order of the day will be removed from the Notice Paper unless re-accorded priority on any of the next 2 sitting Mondays after 13 February 2012.)

(2) calls on the Government to amend the Act to stipulate a minimum GST revenue-sharing relativity of 75 per cent, which would allow continuing respect for the principles of HFE, but with proper recognition for population, and without Western Australia being unfairly penalised for its disproportionate contribution to our national economic prosperity.

17 FOOTBALL QUEENSLAND LICENCING SCHEME: Resumption of debate (from 12 September 2011) on the motion of Mr Ripoll—That this House:

(1) acknowledges that the Football Queensland licensing scheme is anti-competitive because it:
   (a) excludes smaller and new apparel manufacturers who cannot afford to pay the annual fee from the market;
   (b) increases costs for clubs and players as licensed suppliers pass on the cost of the licence fee and the ‘Q Logo’ to consumers;
   (c) forces clubs to purchase what some regard as inferior and expensive products as Football Queensland strictly enforces penalties against clubs that wear apparel from non-licensed suppliers in competitive matches;
   (d) increases cost for regional clubs as manufacturers large enough to pay the licensing fee are based in the large population centres, not in the regions; and
   (e) protects licensed suppliers from true competition as there is only a limited number of licensed suppliers and most are aware of each others prices;

(c) estimated 2.5 million people that live in refugee camps in Darfur and neighbouring Chad, while others struggle to survive in remote villages;

(5) notes that:
(a) humanitarian relief efforts to provide assistance to vulnerable populations are being hampered by limited humanitarian access in some of the most affected conflict areas including in South Kordofan and Darfur; and
(b) insecurity and inaccessibility remain amongst the biggest challenges facing the delivery of assistance by humanitarian agencies to vulnerable populations;

(6) urges the Government of South Sudan and the Government of Sudan to reaffirm their commitment to peace, conflict prevention, the inclusion of the peripheral regions and ethnic minorities in political representation and decision making, and the recognition of cultural and ethnic diversity through durable political solutions; and

(a) strong advocacy over the plight of the Burmese refugees in the region; and

25 ELECTROMAGNETIC EXPOSURE VIA MOBILE PHONES: Resumption of debate (from 4 July 2011) on the motion of Ms O’Neill—That this House notes:

(1) the release by the World Health Organisation’s cancer research report by the International Agency for Research on Cancer (IARC) which says that radio frequency electromagnetic fields generated by mobile phones are ‘possibly carcinogenic to humans’ and asserts that heavy usage could lead to a possible increased risk of glioma, a malignant type of brain cancer;

(2) the warnings of Dr Charlie Teo, one of Australia’s leading brain surgeons and former Australian of the Year finalist, that ‘there is an increasing body of evidence that there is an association between brain tumours and mobile phones’;
(3) that the Australian Government, through the Australian Radiation Protection and Nuclear Safety Agency (ARPANSA), welcomes the report and considers that the classification by IARC corresponds to the current ARPANSA advice, including its advice on practical ways in which people can reduce their exposure to the electromagnetic fields produced by wireless telephones;

(4) that the methods to reduce exposure include:
   (a) limiting call time;
   (b) preferring the use of land-line phones;
   (c) using hands-free or speaker options;
   (d) texting instead of making voice calls; and
   (e) using phones in good signal areas which reduce power levels for communication; and
(5) that ARPANSA has also recommended parents encourage their children to use these methods of reducing exposure. (Order of the day will be removed from the Notice Paper unless re-accorded priority on any of the next 3 sitting Mondays after 13 February 2012.)

26 ORGAN DONATION IN AUSTRALIA: Resumption of debate (from 4 July 2011—Mr E. T. Jones, in continuation) on the motion of Ms Brodtmann—That this House:

   (1) notes that:
      (a) Australia had a record year in 2010 with 309 multiple organ donors;
      (b) activity in 2011 shows that Australia is on track to steadily sustain this improvement with 112 donors already this year;
      (c) following the injection of $151 million by the Government to establish a coordinated approach to organ donation, 242 staff have now been appointed in 77 hospitals and DonateLife agencies across Australia, thus enabling all jurisdictions to work cooperatively to support sustained improvements in organ donation;
      (d) there were 931 transplants in 2010 and already there have been 327 transplants in 2011; and
      (e) States and Territories are committed to supporting this reform agenda; and

   (2) acknowledges:
      (a) the selfless act of all donor families who have supported new life for transplant recipients;
      (b) the introduction of a national protocol for donation after cardiac death that will ensure Australia maximises the number of organ donors;
      (c) that many hospitals that have not previously donated organs and tissue are now undertaking this important role as a result of the extra funding and staffing that are available;
      (d) that the States and Territories reaffirmed their commitment to the reform agenda in February 2011, in particular the financing of increases in tissue typing, retrieval of organs and transplant surgery;
      (e) the success of the two advertising campaigns launched in May 2010 and February 2011; and
      (f) the importance of continued input of community groups and non government organisations in raising awareness among the Australian community. (Order of the day will be removed from the Notice Paper unless re-accorded priority on any of the next 3 sitting Mondays after 13 February 2012.)

27 WORLD REFUGEE DAY: Resumption of debate (from 20 June 2011) on the motion of Ms Parke—That this House:

   (1) notes:
      (a) that 20 June each year is World Refugee Day, celebrating the courageous spirit and resilience of more than 10 million refugees around the world;
      (b) that the global theme for World Refugee Day 2011, occurring in the year of the sixtieth anniversary of the United Nations Refugee Convention, is ‘1 refugee without hope is too many’;
      (c) Australia’s history of support for the United Nations Refugee Convention and its objectives, being the sixth signatory to the 1951 United Nations Refugee Convention which brought the convention into force in 1954, and having since welcomed 750,000 refugees who have made an enormous contribution to the culture, economy and social fabric of Australian society;
      (d) that much of the political, media and public commentary in Australia regarding asylum-seekers and refugees misses or ignores the following facts:
(i) of the more than 10 million refugees identified by the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR), just over 100,000 or 1 per cent are resettled under orderly programs each year, which means that if someone puts their name on a list today they could wait more than 100 years for processing;

(ii) in many countries wracked by conflict, like Iraq or Afghanistan, there is no list or queue to join;

(iii) Australia’s 8,250 asylum seekers in 2010 is a minimal number compared with the 358,000 people who sought asylum in the 44 major industrialised counties in 2010, and compared with the millions of people from Iraq and Afghanistan who have sought refuge in neighbouring countries like Jordan, Iran and Pakistan.

(iv) only 2 per cent of the world’s asylum claims are made in Australia;

(v) persons fleeing from persecution are not ‘illegals’, they have a legal right under international law to seek asylum, and under the Menzies Government, Australia agreed to this by signing up to the United Nations Refugee Convention; and

(vi) while Essential Research has reported that 25 per cent of Australians believe that 75 per cent of our migrant intake is made up of asylum-seekers, in fact only 1 per cent of Australia’s annual migrant intake comes from them and even less from asylum-seekers who arrive by boat;

(2) notes the UNHCR report of April 2011 entitled Back to Basics: The Right to Liberty and Security of Person and ‘Alternatives to Detention’ of Refugees, Asylum-Seekers, Stateless Persons and Other Migrants and welcomes the forthcoming parliamentary inquiry into mandatory detention;

(3) recognises that it is possible to protect Australia’s borders while also treating asylum-seekers fairly, humanely and in accordance with international law; and

(4) calls for:

(a) a return to bipartisanship in support of a reasoned, principled and facts-based approach to the issue of asylum-seekers and refugees; and

(b) Australia to continue to work with other nations and the United Nations to address the complex global and regional challenges associated with increased numbers of asylum-seekers and other people movements that cannot be addressed by countries acting on their own. (Order of the day will be removed from the Notice Paper unless re-accorded priority on any of the next 2 sitting Mondays after 13 February 2012.)

28 DEATH OF SENIOR CONSTABLE DAMIAN LEENDING: Resumption of debate (from 20 June 2011) on the motion of Mrs D’Ath—That this House:

(1) expresses:

(a) its condolences to:

(i) the family of Senior Constable Damian Leeding who was shot in the line of duty on Sunday evening, 29 May 2011; and

(ii) the colleagues of Senior Constable Leeding at Coomera CIB, Queensland Police Service; and

(b) our gratitude to men and women who serve in our police forces across Australia for the burden placed upon them and the sacrifices they make to protect others; and

(2) acknowledges:

(a) the risks associated with the work performed by our men and women in the police forces across Australia and the bravery that they display in the performance of their duty; and

(b) the husbands, wives and partners of serving police officers for their support of those who serve in our police forces. (Order of the day will be removed from the Notice Paper unless re-accorded priority on any of the next 2 sitting Mondays after 13 February 2012.)

29 RELIGIOUS MINORITIES IN IRAQ: Resumption of debate (from 30 May 2011) on the motion of Mr Hayes—That this House:

(1) notes that:

(a) for more than 2,000 years religious groups such as Assyrians, Mandaeans, Chaldeans, Syriacs and other Aramaic speakers have called Iraq home;

(b) in 2003, Australia was part of the ‘coalition of the willing’ that invaded Iraq in the belief that Iraq harboured weapons of mass destruction;
since 2003 there have been horrendous acts of persecution against these religious minorities in Iraq, including murders, bombings and extortion; and

(d) the Catholic Church reports that one million Christians have fled Iraq since the 2003 invasion; and

(2) recognises that:

(a) thousands of people are sheltering in Syria, Egypt, Jordan and the northern regions of Iraq because they feel they cannot return to their homes for fear of death and persecution;

(b) due to our part in the ‘coalition of the willing’, Australia has a moral responsibility to deal compassionately with these displaced people; and

(c) it will be a damning critique on humanity and the Coalition forces, who have vowed to protect the people of Iraq, if religious groups with such a significant historical link to the region are forced out at the hands of terrorists. (Order of the day will be removed from the Notice Paper unless re-accorded priority on the next sitting Monday after 13 February 2012.)

30  MARINE CONSERVATION: Resumption of debate (from 30 May 2011) on the motion of Ms Parke—That this House:

(1) notes that:

(a) Australia’s oceans are the most diverse on earth but less than 1 per cent of the South-West, North-West, North, Coral Sea and East marine regions are currently protected;

(b) the Australian coastal lifestyles and our coastal economies are dependent on the good health of our oceans;

(c) evidence from marine sanctuaries around the world, including in Australia, New Zealand, Canada and the United States, has shown that fish populations and fish size dramatically increase inside sanctuaries and in the nearby fished areas;

(d) the marine and environmental science is clear, and in 2008, 900 scientists from the Australian Marine Scientists Association reached a consensus that the creation of networks of large marine sanctuaries will:

(i) protect ocean life, including threatened species and critical habitats;

(ii) recover the abundance of ocean life within and beyond sanctuary boundaries, fostering more and bigger fish;

(iii) increase the resilience of ocean life to climate change; and

(iv) underpin the future of commercial and recreational fisheries and the sustainability of coastal economies; and

(e) through international agreement under the Convention on Biological Diversity, Australia has committed to establishing networks of marine reserves in its oceans by the end of 2012;

(2) welcomes the fact that:

(a) during 2011 the Australian Government will be finalising marine bioregional marine plans for the South-West, North-West, North and East marine regions (including the Coral Sea) in keeping with the commitment to a national marine conservation scheme first agreed to at the Council of Australian Governments in 1998;

(b) each marine bioregional plan will include a proposed network of Commonwealth marine reserves that will include sanctuary zones; and

(c) 2011 is the year of delivery for the world-class protection of the world’s richest marine environments; and

(3) calls upon the Australian Government to further consider:

(a) establishing networks of large marine sanctuaries in each of the marine regions currently under investigation in the marine bioregional planning process; and

(b) providing sufficient funding for the transition of commercial fishing activities displaced by the establishment of marine sanctuaries. (Order of the day will be removed from the Notice Paper unless re-accorded priority on the next sitting Monday after 13 February 2012.)

31  WORLD MULTIPLE SCLEROSIS DAY: Resumption of debate (from 30 May 2011) on the motion of Ms A. E. Burke—That this House:

(1) notes that:

(a) Thursday 26 May marks World Multiple Sclerosis Day; and
(b) around the world, World Multiple Sclerosis Day in 2011 is being given the theme of employment to acknowledge that staying at work is a key concern for people diagnosed with multiple sclerosis;

(2) recognises that:

(a) multiple sclerosis is most frequently diagnosed in people aged between 20 and 40 years, at a stage in life when these people are building their careers and their families;
(b) the Australian Multiple Sclerosis Longitudinal Study reported that 80 per cent of people with multiple sclerosis lose their employment within 10 years of diagnosis;
(c) like many chronic diseases, multiple sclerosis is costly, and enabling people with multiple sclerosis to stay in work not only builds their confidence and self-esteem but helps to meet the costs that come with managing a lifelong disease; and
(d) with the ageing of the population, people with chronic diseases such as multiple sclerosis will increasingly feature in Australian workplaces, requiring enhanced management and support of these employees; and

(3) commits itself to:

(a) ensuring that the labour market and welfare system continue to provide assistance to people with multiple sclerosis in supporting them to both obtain and retain employment; and
(b) encouraging employers to incorporate greater flexibility in workplaces to enable people with multiple sclerosis and their carers to fulfil their productive capacity.

32 CONFLICT IN THE PHILIPPINES: Resumption of debate (from 30 May 2011) on the motion of Mr L. D. T. Ferguson—That this House:

(1) notes:

(a) there has been a long running armed conflict in the Philippines;
(b) both the new President Benigno Aquino III and the National Democratic Front of the Philippines have expressed the desire to resume the peace negotiations between the two parties which began in 1992 and were suspended in 2005; and
(c) the Royal Norwegian Government is the third party facilitator of these peace negotiations and it is actively supporting the resumption of the peace negotiations; and

(2) welcomes the re-commencement of the formal peace negotiations between the Government of the Republic of the Philippines and the National Democratic Front of the Philippines from February 15-21 this year; and

(3) encourages both parties in their efforts to resolve the conflict, and expresses a sincere wish for their success.

33 MYSCHOOL, MYHOSPITALS AND MYCHILD WEBSITES: Resumption of debate (from 30 May 2011—Mr Laming, in continuation) on the motion of Dr Leigh—That this House:

(1) recognises that:

(a) Australians are keen to have better access to information about government performance;
(b) more transparent public services have been shown to perform at higher levels; and
(c) greater access to information helps Australians make the best choices; and

(2) commends the Australian Government on the creation of the MySchool, MyHospitals and MyChild websites.

34 FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL: Resumption of debate (from 23 May 2011) on the motion of Mr Oakeshott—That this House:

(1) notes that 28 May 2011 marks the fiftieth anniversary of Amnesty International, a global movement of over three million supporters dedicated to defending and protecting human rights;

(2) recognises the important role Amnesty International continues to play in promoting and protecting human rights and shining a light on human rights abuses around the world;

(3) acknowledges the many achievements of Amnesty International, including its:
(a) integral role in the development, promotion and ultimate adoption of the United Nations Convention Against Torture in 1975, it being awarded the Nobel Peace Prize in 1977 and the Sydney Peace Prize in 2006; and
(b) successful campaigning for the release of thousands of political prisoners around the world; and

(4) notes that from 1961 till the end of 2010 the organisation:
(a) conducted at least 3341 missions to research human rights abuses around the world; and
(b) produced and published an estimated 17,093 reports and public documents including the annual human rights report which is now produced in 25 languages; and
(c) issued over 31,000 urgent actions for individuals at risk. (Order of the day will be removed from the Notice Paper unless re-accorded priority on 13 February 2012.)

35 NATIONAL CONSUMER CREDIT ACTION PLAN: Resumption of debate (from 23 May 2011) on the motion of Ms Vamvakinou—That this House:

(1) acknowledges the Federal Government’s National Consumer Credit Action Plan, particularly phase one of the plan which came into effect on 1 January 2011 and provides for licensing of all credit providers, new responsible lending requirements and access to external dispute resolution for all consumers of consumer credit;
(2) notes that phase two of the National Consumer Credit Action Plan will be considered by the Government in 2011, which will include consideration of new rules to apply to small amount short term loans (often known as payday loans);
(3) calls on all Members of this House to consider and consult with relevant community organisations on the impact of small amount short term loans on vulnerable constituents, particularly the impact of very expensive interest, fees and charges which can be detrimental to household budgets and reduce the ability for people to manage their day-to-day finances; and
(4) calls on the Minister for Financial Services and Superannuation to improve the operation of the consumer credit market in Australia by ensuring that small amount short term loans are not damaging to families and households, by replacing the myriad of existing state-based interest rate limits with a single, national limit on the fees and interest that can be charged by short term lenders. (Order of the day will be removed from the Notice Paper unless re-accorded priority on 13 February 2012.)

36 TAX SUMMIT: Resumption of debate (from 23 May 2011) on the motion of Mr Hockey—That this House:

(1) notes the Government’s decision to delay the Tax Summit from June to October 2011;
(2) considers that any genuine Tax Summit will properly review and report on Labor’s proposals to introduce a national mining tax and a carbon tax; and
(3) decides that no legislation to impose a national mining tax or a carbon tax be considered by the House until after the October Tax Summit has reported. (Order of the day will be removed from the Notice Paper unless re-accorded priority on 13 February 2012.)

37 CARDIOVASCULAR DISEASE: Resumption of debate (from 23 May 2011) on the motion of Ms Hall—That this House:

(1) notes that cardiovascular disease:
(a) is a heart, stroke and blood vessel disease;
(b) kills one Australian nearly every 11 minutes;
(c) affects more that 3.4 million Australians;
(d) prevents 1.4 million people from living a full life because of disability caused by the disease;
(e) affects one in five Australians, and two out of three families; and
(f) claimed the lives of almost 48,000 Australians (34 per cent of all deaths) in 2008—deaths that are largely preventable;
(2) notes that cardiovascular risk factors include:
(a) tobacco smoking;
(b) insufficient physical activity;
(c) poor nutrition;
(d) alcohol consumption;
(e) high blood pressure;
(f) high blood cholesterol;
(g) being overweight;
(h) having diabetes; and
(i) kidney (renal) failure;
(3) notes the importance of knowing the warning signs of heart attack:
   (a) discomfort or pain in the centre of the chest;
   (b) discomfort in the arms, neck, shoulders, jaw and back; and
   (c) shortness of breath, nausea, cold sweat, dizziness or light headedness;
(4) notes that recognition of heart attack and early response increases cardiovascular awareness, saving lives and preventing related disability; and
(5) acknowledges that promotion of healthy eating and increased exercise will lead to healthier lifestyles and a reduction in cardiovascular disease. (Order of the day will be removed from the Notice Paper unless re-accorded priority on 13 February 2012.)

38 ONE-HUNDREDTH ANNIVERSARY OF INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY: Resumption of debate (from 23 May 2011) on the motion of Ms Brodtmann—That this House acknowledges the:

(1) one-hundredth anniversary of International Women's Day on 8 March 2011 and celebrates the achievements of women throughout the world; and
(2) need to continue to fight against the barrier that stops women achieving equal rights and equal opportunities throughout the world. (Order of the day will be removed from the Notice Paper unless re-accorded priority on 13 February 2012.)

39 INTERNATIONAL DAY OF UNITED NATIONS PEACEKEEPERS: Resumption of debate (from 23 May 2011) on the motion of Ms Parke—That this House:

(1) notes that:
   (a) by resolution 57/129 of 11 December 2002, the General Assembly designated 29 May as the International Day of United Nations Peacekeepers to:
      (i) pay tribute to all the men and women who have served and continue to serve in United Nations peacekeeping operations;
      (ii) recognise their high level of professionalism, dedication and courage; and
      (iii) honour the memory of those who have lost their lives in the cause of peace;
   (b) on 29 May 2011 Australia joins with other nations to commemorate United Nations workers who provide life-saving assistance to millions of people around the world; who work in conflict zones and areas of natural hazards; and who place their own lives at risk in the line of duty;
   (c) Australia has been a strong supporter of United Nations peacekeeping operations since the first mission in 1947, and is one of the top 20 contributors to the United Nations peacekeeping budget;
   (d) the United Nations' total peacekeeping budget is US$7.8 billion, or half of 1 per cent of global military spending, indicating that building and keeping the peace is overwhelmingly cheaper than the pursuit of war;
   (e) there are over 122,000 military and civilian men and women working in 15 different United Nations missions around the world, who are not there for personal gain, rather, they are engaged in maintaining peace and security and in building the political, social and economic infrastructure required to ensure conflict zones can make the transition to peace on a sustainable and lasting basis;
   (f) in the last decade, more than 1100 United Nations peacekeepers have died while striving to help those most in need in some of the world's most hostile environments, with recent examples being in April 2011, when:
      (i) 28 United Nations staff and 5 non-government organisations workers were killed in a plane crash in Kinshasa in the Democratic Republic of the Congo; and
      (ii) 7 international United Nations staff were killed in an attack on a United Nations compound in Mazar-e-Sharif in northern Afghanistan, which was the third direct attack against United Nations personnel in Afghanistan in the past 18 months; and
   (g) United Nations and other humanitarian workers are increasingly being targeted for political and ideological reasons; and
(2) commends the vital work carried out by United Nations peacekeepers and other humanitarian workers and calls upon all United Nations member states to ensure the safety and security of United Nations peacekeepers and other humanitarian workers, and to appropriately punish perpetrators of violence against such workers. (Order of the day will be removed from the Notice Paper unless re-accorded priority on 13 February 2012.)

40 UNIFORM ROAD LAWS AND MOTOR VEHICLE REGISTRATION COMPLIANCE STANDARDS:
Resumption of debate (from 23 May 2011) on the motion of Mr Zappia—that this House:

(1) notes that:
   (a) Australian road laws and vehicle compliance standards vary between each of the States and Territories of Australia; and

Questions unanswered

22 November 2011

*746 MR ALEXANDER: To ask the Minister for Health and Ageing—

(1) Is she aware that approximately 300,000 Australians at risk of severe and disabling stroke would benefit greatly from the listing of the medicine dabigatran (Pradaxa®) on the Pharmaceutical Benefits Scheme (PBS); if so, why is she deferring the listing of Pradaxa on the PBS?

(2) Why has she called for another inquiry into the efficacy of Pradaxa when similar work has already been performed and the drug approved for listing by the Pharmaceutical Benefits Advisory Committee.

(3) Will she provide a detailed breakdown for the basis of her claim in her press release from 30 September 2011 that listing Pradaxa on the PBS ‘will cost the budget up to $1 billion over the forward estimates.’

*747 MR ALEXANDER: To ask the Minister for Health and Ageing—

(1) Is it a fact that Warfarin is the most common cause of drug-related hospitalisation.

(2) For 2010-11, can she provide data on the number and cost of Warfarin hospitalisations, and the proportion of Warfarin prescriptions that were subsidised for pensioners and for veterans.

*748 MR ALEXANDER: To ask the Minister for Health and Ageing—

(1) For 2010-11, can she provide data on (a) the number of strokes that occurred as a result of the condition atrial fibrillation, and (b) the proportion of atrial fibrillation patients who (i) took Warfarin, (ii) took Aspirin, and (iii) sought no treatment.

(2) Does she know the common reason(s) why many atrial fibrillation patients seek no treatment; if so, can she indicate the reason(s).

*749 MR ALEXANDER: To ask the Minister for Health and Ageing—For 2010-11, can she provide the cost to the Government of each stroke in Australia, and the proportion of this cost that was paid by the (a) Commonwealth, and (b) each State and Territory.
