†2 Mr Ruddock: To move—That this House:

(b) in this endeavour, Australian troops were assisted by the East Timorese people;

(3) commends and thanks the people of Timor-Leste for the sacrifices they made in supporting Australia during World War II. (Notice given 13 November 2013. Time allowed—30 minutes.)

* Notifications to which an asterisk (*) is prefixed appear for the first time

   (c) displacement of 800,000 people as a result of a complete destruction of homes, schools, hospitals, roads and infrastructure; and
(4) welcomes the Australian Government’s provision of $10 million in assistance to the Philippines, and urges the Australian Government to maintain close dialogue with the Philippines Government to ensure that further meaningful support may be extended in a timely way, where required. (Notice given 13 November 2013. Time allowed—remaining private Members’ business time prior to 12 noon.)

   (c) whether the relationship between the agencies is such that the Australian community can have the highest confidence that any claims of serious fraud are being properly investigated and any breaches properly prosecuted;

1 MS HALL: To move—That this House:
(1) notes that:
   (a) Governments should be encouraging all Australians to save for their retirement wherever possible and superannuation payments are an important part of this process;
   (b) many low income earners have previously received $500 from the Federal Government which was paid directly into their superannuation fund each year to help with retirement savings;
   (c) the $500 payment was payable to workers earning $37,000 or less per year; and
   (d) the Government plans to scrap the annual $500 payment; and
(2) calls on the Government to ensure the $500 superannuation payment to low-income earners is retained. (Notice given 12 November 2013. Notice will be removed from the Notice Paper unless called on on any of the next 8 sitting Mondays including 18 November 2013.)

2 MS HALL: To move—That this House:
(1) notes that:
   (a) numerous foods and drinks contain artificial food colours and preservatives which do not contribute to the safety or nutritional value of the food or drink they are in;
   (b) artificial food colours and preservative E211 can have a major impact on the behaviour of some young children;
(c) research in the United Kingdom has found links between artificial food colours and the hyperactive behaviour of some young children and this, in turn, can have an impact on their ability to concentrate and learn as they grow;

(d) European Union regulations introduced in 2010 state that food manufacturers in those member countries now have to put warning labels on food and non-alcoholic drinks which contain six key artificial colours—these warning labels must be clearly legible and must carry the warning words ‘May have an adverse effect on activity and attention in children’;

(e) the United Kingdom Food Standards Agency is encouraging manufacturers to find alternative ingredients to these artificial colours, leading to many manufacturers and retailers removing these colours from their products voluntarily;

(f) Australian parents and families are acutely aware of the impacts in our own country of artificial colours and the E211 preservative on the behaviour of their children;

(g) there are numerous food and drink products in our stores which still contain artificial colours and preservatives; and

(Notice given 12 November 2013. Notice will be removed from the Notice Paper unless called on on any of the next 8 sitting Mondays including 18 November 2013.)

(c) this Government plans to delay, for two years, the proposed 9 per cent to 12 per cent increase of the Superannuation Guarantee; and

(d) stakeholders have estimated that the delay in the Superannuation Guarantee will reduce aggregate savings by $40 billion; and

(2) calls upon the House to:

(a) condemn the Government’s attack on the superannuation savings of Australians; and

(b) compel the Government to adhere to the timetable proposed by the former Government for the increase in the Superannuation Guarantee. (Notice given 13 November 2013. Notice will be removed from the Notice Paper unless called on on any of the next 8 sitting Mondays including 18 November 2013.)

(2) some 4,000 villages, 2,000 schools and 300 hospitals were destroyed, including through the use of chemical weapons across dozens of Kurdish villages;

(3) the Saddam regime was also responsible for the:
