PRIVATE MEMBERS’ BUSINESS

Notices given for Wednesday, 20 November 2013

*1 DR LEIGH: To move—That this House:
   (1) notes that:
      (a) prior to the 1999 referendum to alter the Constitution to establish the Commonwealth of Australia as a republic, many opponents (including monarchists and direct electionists) fomented the expectation that if the vote were defeated, another referendum would be put within a few years;
      (b) 14 years on, public support for Australia becoming a republic remains solid; and
      (c) Australian engagement with Asia has strengthened, with the former Government’s White Paper on Australia in the Asian Century reminding us that our future lies in our region; and
   (2) calls upon the Parliament to make it a priority to hold a referendum to alter the Constitution to establish the Commonwealth of Australia as a republic, so that every Australian child can aspire to be our Head of State. (Notice given 19 November 2013.)

*2 MR S. P. JONES: To move—That this House notes that:
   (1) as identified by Infrastructure Australia, we are an urban nation with four-fifths of our population and economic activity occurring in our cities;
   (2) Australia’s growing cities have a strategic need for greater public transport capacity to meet the growing transport task, ease urban road congestion and ensure improved national productivity;
   (3) this urban transport task is a joint Australian and state government responsibility;
   (4) recognising this, Labor in government invested $13 billion—more Commonwealth funding for public transport than all other governments since Federation—and this investment in urban transport projects, put forward and assessed through Infrastructure Australia, resulted in a significant boost to the strategic development of Australia’s public transport network; and
   (5) urban public transport projects including the Brisbane Cross River Rail project, the Perth Public Transport Package and the Tansley Park Public Transport Package in Adelaide are nationally significant projects and are not guaranteed to proceed without Australian Government funding. (Notice given 19 November 2013.)

Notice given for Monday, 9 December 2013

*1 MR PALMER: To present a Bill for an Act to amend the Foreign Acquisitions and Takeovers Act 1975, and for other purposes. (Foreign Acquisitions and Takeovers Amendment Bill 2013) (Notice given 19 November 2013.)

Notices—continued

1 MS HALL: To move—That this House:
   (1) notes that:
      (a) Governments should be encouraging all Australians to save for their retirement wherever possible and superannuation payments are an important part of this process;
      (b) many low income earners have previously received $500 from the Federal Government which was paid directly into their superannuation fund each year to help with retirement savings;
      (c) the $500 payment was payable to workers earning $37,000 or less per year; and
      (d) the Government plans to scrap the annual $500 payment; and
   (2) calls on the Government to ensure the $500 superannuation payment to low-income earners is retained. (Notice given 12 November 2013. Notice will be removed from the Notice Paper unless called on on any of the next 7 sitting Mondays including 2 December 2013.)

2 MS HALL: To move—That this House:
   (1) notes that:
      (a) numerous foods and drinks contain artificial food colours and preservatives which do not contribute to the safety or nutritional value of the food or drink they are in;
      (b) artificial food colours and preservative E211 can have a major impact on the behaviour of some young children;
research in the United Kingdom has found links between artificial food colours and the hyperactive behaviour of some young children and this, in turn, can have an impact on their ability to concentrate and learn as they grow;

European Union regulations introduced in 2010 state that food manufacturers in those member countries now have to put warning labels on food and non-alcoholic drinks which contain six key artificial colours—these warning labels must be clearly legible and must carry the warning words ‘May have an adverse effect on activity and attention in children’;

the United Kingdom Food Standards Agency is encouraging manufacturers to find alternative ingredients to these artificial colours, leading to many manufacturers and retailers removing these colours from their products voluntarily;

Australian parents and families are acutely aware of the impacts in our own country of artificial colours and the E211 preservative on the behaviour of their children;

there are numerous food and drink products in our stores which still contain artificial colours and preservatives; and these additives are also found in many over-the-counter medicines for children, including junior pain killers and hayfever treatments; and calls on the Parliament to introduce a process for ruling out these artificial additives in our food, drinks and medicines where they provide no safety or nutritional benefits.

notes that:

(a) superannuation savings are vital for the retirement lifestyles of all Australians;
(b) the former Government had planned to increase the Superannuation Guarantee from 9 per cent to 12 per cent;
(c) this Government plans to delay, for two years, the proposed 9 per cent to 12 per cent increase of the Superannuation Guarantee; and
(d) stakeholders have estimated that the delay in the Superannuation Guarantee will reduce aggregate savings by $40 billion; and calls upon the House to:

(a) condemn the Government’s attack on the superannuation savings of Australians; and
(b) compel the Government to adhere to the timetable proposed by the former Government for the increase in the Superannuation Guarantee.

Mr Ripoll: To move—That this House:

(1) March 2013 marked the 25th anniversary of the genocidal chemical attack by the regime of Iraqi dictator Saddam Hussein on Halabja in the Kurdish region of Iraq that took at least 4,000 lives within a few minutes and displaced many thousands more, and was part of Saddam’s brutal Anfal Campaign of the 1980s, targeting Kurdish and other minorities in Iraq;

(2) some 4,000 villages, 2,000 schools and 300 hospitals were destroyed, including through the use of chemical weapons across dozens of Kurdish villages;

(3) the Saddam regime was also responsible for the:

(a) deportation or forced relocation of tens of thousands of Faili Kurds on the basis that they were not considered Iraqi;
(b) abduction and execution of an estimated 8,000 Barzani Kurds who were subsequently buried in mass graves in southern Iraq; and
(c) arrest, execution and subsequent burial of up to 100,000 Iraqi Kurds in 1988, including women and children; and

(4) the former dictator Saddam Hussein and Ali Hassan al-Majid, known as Chemical Ali, were subsequently prosecuted and convicted for these and other crimes.
MR BANDT: To move—That this House recognises:
(1) the tragic loss of life resulting from the sinking of ships carrying migrants off the coast of Lampedusa in October 2013;
(2) the challenging circumstances vulnerable people face in seeking asylum from persecution in their countries of origin; and
(3) Australia’s role in responding compassionately to this global challenge. (Notice given 14 November 2013. Notice will be removed from the Notice Paper unless called on on any of the next 8 sitting Mondays including 2 December 2013.)

MR BANDT: To move—That this House directs the Prime Minister to establish immediately an inquiry:
(1) into the actions of the Australian Securities and Investments Commission and the Australian Federal Police (‘the agencies’) in response to allegations of corruption and of breaches of Commonwealth laws:
   (a) concerning the Reserve Bank of Australia, Securency and Note Printing Australia; and
   (b) in the Leighton group of companies;
(2) with terms of reference that require it to investigate and report on at least the following matters:
   (a) whether actions taken by the agencies to investigate allegations of serious fraud and commence any prosecutions were appropriate;
   (b) whether the agencies properly communicated with each other and worked together in a manner that ensured the highest probability of laws regarding serious fraud being enforced;
   (c) whether the relationship between the agencies is such that the Australian community can have the highest confidence that any claims of serious fraud are being properly investigated and any breaches properly prosecuted;
   (d) whether Australia would be better served by having a ‘stand-alone’ Commonwealth agency to prosecute breaches of laws regarding serious fraud;
   (e) recommendations regarding future actions that should be taken by government and agencies; and
   (f) any related matters; and
(3) to report to the Prime Minister by 30 September 2014, with a copy of the report to be tabled in the House of Representatives at the earliest possible opportunity thereafter. (Notice given 14 November 2013. Notice will be removed from the Notice Paper unless called on on any of the next 8 sitting Mondays including 2 December 2013.)

MR NIKOLIC: To move—That this House notes:
(1) with concern that Tasmania has the lowest gross state product per capita in Australia, the nation’s highest unemployment rate, the lowest proportion of adults in the nation who have attained a year 12 qualification, one of the lowest retention rates to year 12, the lowest population growth, and the highest proportion of Australians without superannuation coverage;
(2) that Tasmania has enormous potential with productive land, a skilled and willing work force and people with a strong commitment to improve the state’s economy by endeavour and hard work; and
(3) that the Federal Coalition’s Economic Growth Plan for Tasmania, promised in the election campaign and reiterated in Her Excellency the Governor-General’s speech opening the 44th Parliament, will provide the architecture to help turn Tasmania’s economy around and encourage long term, sustainable employment. (Notice given 18 November 2013. Notice will be removed from the Notice Paper unless called on on any of the next 8 sitting Mondays including 2 December 2013.)

MS RISHWORTH: To move—That this House:
(1) notes that November is Lung Cancer Awareness Month;
(2) acknowledges that more than 9,100 Australians are diagnosed with lung cancer every year;
(3) recognises that lung cancer claims the lives of more Australians than any other cancer with only 14 out of 100 Australians surviving five years beyond their initial diagnosis; and
(4) calls on Australian and state and territory governments to work together to improve the survival rates of Australians diagnosed with lung cancer by encouraging early detection and providing access to high quality health care treatment and support. (Notice given 18 November 2013. Notice will be removed from the Notice Paper unless called on on any of the next 8 sitting Mondays including 2 December 2013.)
Orders of the day

1 WHITE RIBBON DAY: Resumption of debate (from 18 November 2013) on the motion of Mr Hayes—That this House:

(1) notes that:
   (a) 25 November 2013 is White Ribbon Day, a day dedicated to raising public awareness of as well as eliminating violence against women across the nation;
   (b) one in three Australian women over the age of 15 will experience physical violence while one in five will experience sexual violence at some point in their life, with 64 per cent of the incidents occurring at home;
   (c) one Australian woman dies every week as a result of domestic violence;
   (d) 64 per cent of women who experience physical assault and 81.1 per cent of women who experience sexual assault do not report these incidents to police; and
   (e) domestic violence is the leading cause of homelessness in Australia and carries high social and economic costs to the economy—an estimated $14.7 billion annually which is expected to surpass $16 billion by 2022 if significant measures are not taken to challenge the attitudes and behaviours that allow violence to continue; and

(2) calls on all Australian men to take the following oath: I swear never to commit, excuse or remain silent about violence against women. (Order of the day will be removed from the Notice Paper unless re-accorded priority on any of the next 8 sitting Mondays including 2 December 2013.)

2 EAST TIMORESE SUPPORT OF AUSTRALIAN TROOPS: Resumption of debate (from 18 November 2013) on the motion of Mr Ruddock—That this House:

(1) notes that in East Timor between December 1941 and January 1943, 700 Australian troops engaged some 20,000 Japanese troops through guerrilla warfare, and:
   (a) this severely hampered the Japanese war effort by preventing its troops from being deployed elsewhere; and
   (b) in this endeavour, Australian troops were assisted by the East Timorese people;

(2) recognises that while Australian troops were in East Timor between December 1941 and January 1943, and after they had left, some 40,000 East Timorese are estimated to have died as a result of protecting Australian soldiers; and

(3) commends and thanks the people of Timor-Leste for the sacrifices they made in supporting Australia during World War II. (Order of the day will be removed from the Notice Paper unless re-accorded priority on any of the next 8 sitting Mondays including 2 December 2013.)

3 SUPER-TYPHOO HAIYAN IN THE PHILIPPINES: Resumption of debate (from 18 November 2013—Mr Pitt, in continuation) on the motion of Mr Husic—That this House:

(1) extends its sympathies to the people of the Philippines who have been affected by the devastating super-typhoon Haiyan;

(2) acknowledges the anxiety and concern this terrible event has caused for the Filipino-Australian community, that is worried about the safety and well-being of family and friends in the Philippines;

(3) in particular, has regard for the:
   (a) officially estimated 2,500 casualties reported to have been caused by the super-typhoon;
   (b) growing concern about the possible widespread outbreak of disease along with the lack of food, clean water and medical supplies; and
   (c) displacement of 800,000 people as a result of a complete destruction of homes, schools, hospitals, roads and infrastructure; and

(4) welcomes the Australian Government’s provision of $30 million in assistance to the Philippines, and urges the Australian Government to maintain close dialogue with the Philippines Government to ensure that further meaningful support may be extended in a timely way, where required. (Order of the day will be removed from the Notice Paper unless re-accorded priority on any of the next 8 sitting Mondays including 2 December 2013.)

(2) recognises that:

(a) residents in more than 50 localities from Amberley, Benarkin to Karana Downs and Vernor share the postcode 4306, suburbs which in some instances are more than 130 kilometres apart;

(b) these localities fall within the four divisions of Ryan, Maranoa, Wright and Blair;

(c) the shared postcode is having a detrimental impact on mail delivery services, postal delivery costs and insurance premiums for people living in these areas; and

(d) communities within the 4306 postcode have previously petitioned the Government on this issue and to date have had their request rejected; and

(3) calls on Australia Post to review the allocation of unique postcodes for localities which currently share a postcode with a geographically separate locality.
