GENERAL BUSINESS

Notices of Motion

Notice given 4 December 2013

44 Senator Carr: To move—that the Senate—
(a) condemns:
(i) the failure of the Government to provide answers on immigration policy and implementation, especially on serious incidents, to the Senate and the Australian people,
(ii) the Government’s complete lack of transparency, and its reversion to secrecy in its conduct of the business of government, especially as it relates to immigration policy, and
The Government for misleading the electorate on its immigration policies such as the Indonesian fishing boat buyback policy, bounties, wardens and turning boats back (where it is safe to do so); and

(b) calls on the Government to:
   (i) abandon unwarranted secrecy, and
   (ii) acknowledge the success of the Papua New Guinea Regional Resettlement arrangement in reducing boat arrivals and putting people smugglers out of business.

Notice given 5 March 2014

*156 Senator Waters: To move—That the Senate—
   (a) notes:
      (i) the serious concern shared by communities and experts across Australia about the significant risks coal and gas developments pose to our communities, public health, water resources and natural areas, and
      (ii) that in the week beginning 2 March 2014, a delegation of 16 community representatives from the Lock the Gate network have travelled to Canberra from across the nation, seeking the support of their elected representatives to protect their communities, their water and their land; and
   (b) calls on the Federal Government to urgently act on the concerns of the Lock the Gate network by:
      (i) passing national laws to protect food-producing land from coal and gas mining and give landholders the power of veto over mining on their land,
      (ii) protecting communities by establishing a national Environmental Protection Authority and a new Clean Air and Water Act; and
      (iii) excluding from the Trans Pacific Partnership Agreement any clause or instrument that undermines the power of Australian governments to protect land, water and communities.

*157 Senators Moore and Pratt: To move—That the Senate—
   (a) notes that:
      (i) today, 81 countries worldwide have legislation criminalising consensual same-sex activities between adults, with over half of these countries being members of the Commonwealth (43 of 53 Commonwealth nations), and furthermore, 17 of these countries (of which 14 are members of the Commonwealth) are our near neighbours in the Asia Pacific region,
      (ii) even in cases where discriminatory laws criminalising consensual same-sex relations are no longer enforced, the decriminalisation of homosexuality is essential if lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and intersex (LGBTI) people are to live lives of dignity and equality,
      (iii) even where homosexuality is not a crime, LGBTI people still face violence, eviction from their homes, dismissal from their jobs and estrangement from their families—the enactment of anti-discrimination legislation would help to combat this,
(iv) international human rights law requires states to respect the freedom and dignity of all people regardless of their sexual orientation, intersex status, gender identity and gender expression, and

(v) the Sex Discrimination Amendment (Sexual Orientation, Gender Identity and Intersex Status) Act 2013 (a bill introduced by Labor in 2013) contains measures to extend protection from discrimination on the grounds of sexual orientation, gender identity, and intersex status;

(b) recognises the efforts of activists and advocates internationally seeking to advance the human rights of LGBTI people, including the work of the Australian Kaleidoscope Human Rights Foundation in advancing the human rights of LGBTI people in the Asia Pacific region;

(c) calls on the Australian Government to take all available steps to:

(i) support the universal decriminalisation of homosexuality in accordance with the principles enshrined in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights,

(ii) support and defend the human rights of LGBTI people around the world, and

(iii) support a Commonwealth charter which defends LGBTI rights in accordance with international law in all Commonwealth countries; and

(d) calls on the Attorney-General to refer to the Parliamentary Joint Committee on Human Rights a future inquiry on issues affecting the human rights of LGBTI people.

*158 Senator Wright: To move—That the Senate—

(a) notes that:

(i) there is community concern about the Minister for Infrastructure and Regional Development’s decision to allow international passenger flights to land at Adelaide Airport at 5.10 am, from April 2014, and

(ii) the Adelaide Airport Curfew Act 2000 bans aircraft take-offs and landings between 11 pm and 6 am, except with the Minister’s permission, to protect the lifestyle of residents who live under the flight path; and

(b) affirms that:

(i) this use of executive power, to avoid a clear legislative protection for Adelaide’s residents, exposes these residents to aircraft noise and loss of amenity; and

(ii) where the Parliament establishes such a protection, the protection should not be removed without Parliament specifically considering the matter, and so the Minister’s power to approve flights outside of the Adelaide Airport curfew should be repealed.

*164 Senator Carr: To move—That the Senate—

(a) recognises:

   (i) the vital contribution of the Australian shipbuilding industry as an employer, a storehouse of advanced manufacturing capabilities and a strategic asset, and

   (ii) the urgent need for the Government to bring forward project work to ensure continuity of industry development, growth and employment;

(b) is gravely concerned by:

   (i) the scheduled end of project work in three Australian shipyards in 2015,

   (ii) the severe consequences of the resulting project trough, including:

       (A) the retrenchment of more than 3 000 skilled workers,

       (B) the crippling of the shipbuilding supply chain, and

       (C) the forced closure of research projects and facilities supporting shipbuilding and advanced manufacturing,

       (B) fight for Australian jobs,
   (ii) the deliberate and hostile actions of the Government in bringing about the end of Australia’s automotive manufacturing sector threatening a further 50 000 jobs directly reliant and the 200 000 jobs that rely on it indirectly, and

GUIDE TO THE NOTICE PAPER

A Notice Paper is issued each sitting day containing details of current business before the Senate. It works in conjunction with the Senate Order of Business (otherwise known as the Red) which sets out the daily routine of business to be followed as per standing order 57.

Standing orders are the rules or procedures set down by the Senate to govern the Senate and its committees. The current version of The Senate: Standing Orders and other orders of the Senate is available on the Senate website at

The publication of the Notice Paper is authorised by standing order 43(2).

Placement of business on the Notice Paper

The way business is placed on the Notice Paper is set down according to standing orders and is listed under one of the following four categories:

- Matters of privilege which take precedence over all other business and are listed at the beginning of the Notice Paper when they arise. They consist of notices of motion which the President has determined warrant such precedence and any orders relating to adjourned debates on such motions.

- Business of the Senate which has precedence over government and general business for the day on which it is listed. It includes disallowance motions, orders of the day for the presentation of committee reports, motions to refer matters to standing committees, motions for leave of absence for a senator and motions concerning the qualification of a senator.

- Government business which is business initiated by a minister including the consideration of government legislation. It takes precedence over general business except for a period of 2½ hours each week set aside on Thursdays for general business.

- General business which is all other business initiated by senators who are not ministers. It takes precedence over government business only as described above. (See below for a breakdown of this section.)

Within each of the above categories you may find notices of motions and/or orders of the day:

- Notices of motion are statements indicating that senators intend to move particular motions on the days indicated. They are entered on the Notice Paper in the order given and may be given jointly by two or more senators. Notices of motion are usually considered before orders of the day.

- Orders of the day are items of business which the Senate has ordered to be considered on particular days, usually arising from adjourned debates on matters, including legislation, or requirements to present committee reports.

On days other than Thursdays, the Notice Paper records all business of the Senate and government business items, but includes only new items of general business from the previous sitting day. On Thursdays, to take account of General Business at 4.30 pm, a full listing of business relating to the consideration of government documents, committee reports and government responses to committee reports and Auditor-General’s reports is also published.
