GENERAL BUSINESS

Notices of Motion

Notice given 4 December 2013

44 Senator Carr: To move—That the Senate—

(a) condemns:

(i) the failure of the Government to provide answers on immigration policy and implementation, especially on serious incidents, to the Senate and the Australian people,
(ii) the Government’s complete lack of transparency, and its reversion to secrecy in its conduct of the business of government, especially as it relates to immigration policy, and
(iii) the Government for misleading the electorate on its immigration policies such as the Indonesian fishing boat buyback policy, bounties, wardens and turning boats back (where it is safe to do so); and

(b) calls on the Government to:

(i) abandon unwarranted secrecy, and
(ii) acknowledge the success of the Papua New Guinea Regional Resettlement arrangement in reducing boat arrivals and putting people smugglers out of business.

Notice given 5 March 2014

157 Senators Moore and Pratt: To move—That the Senate—

(a) notes that:

(i) today, 81 countries worldwide have legislation criminalising consensual same-sex activities between adults, with over half of these countries being members of the Commonwealth (43 of 53 Commonwealth nations), and furthermore, 17 of these countries (of which 14 are members of the Commonwealth) are our near neighbours in the Asia Pacific region,
(ii) even in cases where discriminatory laws criminalising consensual same-sex relations are no longer enforced, the decriminalisation of homosexuality is essential if lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and intersex (LGBTI) people are to live lives of dignity and equality,
(iii) even where homosexuality is not a crime, LGBTI people still face violence, eviction from their homes, dismissal from their jobs and estrangement from their families – the enactment of anti-discrimination legislation would help to combat this,
(iv) international human rights law requires states to respect the freedom and dignity of all people regardless of their sexual orientation, intersex status, gender identity and gender expression, and
(v) the Sex Discrimination Amendment (Sexual Orientation, Gender Identity and Intersex Status) Act 2013 (a bill introduced by Labor in 2013) contains measures to extend protection from discrimination on the grounds of sexual orientation, gender identity, and intersex status;

(b) recognises the efforts of activists and advocates internationally seeking to advance the human rights of LGBTI people, including the work of the Australian Kaleidoscope Human Rights Foundation in advancing the human rights of LGBTI people in the Asia Pacific region;

(c) calls on the Australian Government to take all available steps to:
   (i) support the universal decriminalisation of homosexuality in accordance with the principles enshrined in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights,
   (ii) support and defend the human rights of LGBTI people around the world, and
   (iii) support a Commonwealth charter which defends LGBTI rights in accordance with international law in all Commonwealth countries; and

(d) calls on the Attorney-General to refer to the Parliamentary Joint Committee on Human Rights a future inquiry on issues affecting the human rights of LGBTI people.

158 Senator Wright: To move—That the Senate—

(a) notes that:
   (i) there is community concern about the Minister for Infrastructure and Regional Development’s decision to allow international passenger flights to land at Adelaide Airport at 5.10 am, from April 2014, and
   (ii) the Adelaide Airport Curfew Act 2000 bans aircraft take-offs and landings between 11 pm and 6 am, except with the Minister’s permission, to protect the lifestyle of residents who live under the flight path; and

(b) affirms that:
   (i) this use of executive power, to avoid a clear legislative protection for Adelaide’s residents, exposes these residents to aircraft noise and loss of amenity; and
   (ii) where the Parliament establishes such a protection, the protection should not be removed without Parliament specifically considering the matter, and so the Minister’s power to approve flights outside of the Adelaide Airport curfew should be repealed.

160 Senator Whish-Wilson: To move—That there be laid on the table by the Minister representing the Minister for Trade and Investment, no later than noon on 18 March 2014, the modelling and associated reports referred to by the Prime Minister and the Minister for Trade and Investment in a media release of 5 December 2013 titled ‘Australia concludes FTA negotiations with the Republic of Korea.’

Notice of motion altered on 6 March 2014 pursuant to standing order 77.

163 Senator McEwen: To move—That there be laid on the table by the Minister representing the Minister for Education, no later than Friday, 21 March 2014, a copy of the Heads of Agreement on National Education Reform, and associated bilateral agreements, between the Commonwealth and New South Wales, Victoria, Tasmania, South Australia and the Australian Capital Territory, including all schedules and attachments, letters, implementation plans submitted, whether or not agreed by the Commonwealth, along with other documents that outline Commonwealth-state/territory funding commitments, agreements with or letters to any state or territory outlining future Commonwealth school funding and related requirements, including letters the Minister has sent to Queensland, Western Australia and the Northern Territory.

Notice of motion altered on 6 March 2014 pursuant to standing order 77.

Notice given 6 March 2014

*165 Senator Siewert: To move—That the Senate—

(a) notes that:

(i) on 21 August 2009, the Montara wellhead platform drill rig owned by PTTEP Australasia suffered a wellhead accident, resulting in the uncontrolled discharge of oil and gas until 3 November 2009, a total of 74 days,
(ii) the resultant oil spill flowed into Indonesian waters to a ‘significant degree’, a fact acknowledged by the Montara Commission of Inquiry in 2010,
(iii) the impact of the spill outside of Australian waters was not assessed and no comprehensive study has been carried out to date,
(iv) there is a great deal of concern in communities in the Indonesia province of East Nusa Tenggara, particularly among fishers and seaweed farmers, that the spill has adversely affected fisheries and seaweed farms – there are credible preliminary reports available validating communities’ concerns,
(v) communities affected have yet to receive any compensation for their loss of livelihood, and
(vi) East Nusa Tenggara is already ranked among the top five priority provinces of the Australian aid program in Indonesia; and

(b) calls on the Government to:

(i) review the need for an independent study into reported damage in East Nusa Tenggara, and
(ii) liaise with the victims represented by East Nusa Tenggara provincial governments and their agents, the Indonesian Government and PTTEP, with the objective of setting up an effective working group to progress the matter, and to include representatives of these parties and the Commonwealth.

*166 Senator Rhiannon: To move—That the Senate—

(a) notes:

(i) the public has a right to know who may benefit from the work of lobbyists,
(ii) the current regulation that covers lobbyists is deficient as it does not cover in-house lobbyists and lobbying of non-government and backbench members of Parliament (MPs),
(iii) in its submission to the inquiry into the operation of the Lobbying Code of Conduct, the Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet estimated that around 5 000 lobbyists would be required to register
if in-house lobbyists were covered by the scheme, compared to 934 entities and individuals currently on the register, and

(iv) the recent controversy about links between lobbying company Australian Public Affairs and the office of the Assistant Minister for Health (Senator Nash); and

(b) calls on the government to:
   (i) establish an Office of the Commissioner of Lobbying,
   (ii) provide a legislative framework for the regulation of lobbying,
   (iii) expand the scope of who is the subject of lobbying to include all MPs and senators, including cross-benchers and opposition MPs,
   (iv) expand the scope of lobbying to include corporations and organisations employing in-house lobbyists, and
   (v) ban the payment of success fees to lobbyists.

*167 Senator Rhiannon: To move—That the following bill be introduced: A Bill for an Act to amend the Industrial Chemicals (Notification and Assessment) Act 1989, and for related purposes. Industrial Chemicals (Notification and Assessment) Amendment (Ban on Cruel Cosmetics) Bill 2014.

Adjourned debate on the motion of Senator Carr—That the Senate—
   (a) condemns:
      (i) the failure of the Government to:
         (A) articulate a comprehensive innovation policy so that Australia has the high skill, high wage jobs of the future, and
         (B) fight for Australian jobs,
      (ii) the deliberate and hostile actions of the Government in bringing about the end of Australia’s automotive manufacturing sector threatening a further 50,000 jobs directly reliant and the 200,000 jobs that rely on it indirectly, and
      (iii) the cowardice of the Government for blaming job losses on workers to distract from its own inaction and lack of any plan to deal with the crisis facing Australian manufacturing due to the strong dollar; and
   (b) calls on the Government to immediately outline:
      (i) its plans to support the 50,000 Australian workers who have lost their jobs since the election,
(ii) the industries in which it expects these workers to find new jobs, and
(iii) its plans to attract the billions in new investment, new jobs, new skills and new technologies to replace those lost in the automotive sector (Senator Back, in continuation, 13 February 2014).

*4 Industry—Australian shipbuilding
Adjourned debate on the motion of Senator Farrell—That the Senate—
(a) recognises:
   (i) the vital contribution of the Australian shipbuilding industry as an employer, a storehouse of advanced manufacturing capabilities and a strategic asset, and
   (ii) the urgent need for the Government to bring forward project work to ensure continuity of industry development, growth and employment;
(b) is gravely concerned by:
   (i) the scheduled end of project work in three Australian shipyards in 2015,
   (ii) the severe consequences of the resulting project trough, including:
       (A) the retrenchment of more than 3 000 skilled workers,
       (B) the crippling of the shipbuilding supply chain, and
       (C) the forced closure of research projects and facilities supporting shipbuilding and advanced manufacturing,
   (iii) the heavy costs of rebuilding lost capabilities and retraining workers to meet future defence needs, and
   (iv) the threat to national security posed by the erosion of local capability; and
(c) calls on the Government to immediately:
   (i) identify suitable project work to be fast-tracked and make a public commitment to those projects with a revised timeframe for tendering and delivery,
   (ii) recognise that this cannot wait for the Defence White Paper process to be concluded, and
   (iii) incorporate the long-term opportunities for the Australian

GUIDE TO THE NOTICE PAPER

A Notice Paper is issued each sitting day containing details of current business before the Senate. It works in conjunction with the Senate Order of Business (otherwise known as the Red) which sets out the daily routine of business to be followed as per standing order 57.

Standing orders are the rules or procedures set down by the Senate to govern the Senate and its committees. The current version of The Senate: Standing Orders and other orders of the Senate is available on the Senate website at

The publication of the Notice Paper is authorised by standing order 43(2).

Placement of business on the Notice Paper

The way business is placed on the Notice Paper is set down according to standing orders and is listed under one of the following four categories:

- Matters of privilege which take precedence over all other business and are listed at the beginning of the Notice Paper when they arise. They consist of notices of motion which the President has determined warrant such precedence and any orders relating to adjourned debates on such motions.

- Business of the Senate which has precedence over government and general business for the day on which it is listed. It includes disallowance motions, orders of the day for the presentation of committee reports, motions to refer matters to standing committees, motions for leave of absence for a senator and motions concerning the qualification of a senator.

- Government business which is business initiated by a minister including the consideration of government legislation. It takes precedence over general business except for a period of 2½ hours each week set aside on Thursdays for general business.

- General business which is all other business initiated by senators who are not ministers. It takes precedence over government business only as described above. (See below for a breakdown of this section.)

Within each of the above categories you may find notices of motions and/or orders of the day:

- Notices of motion are statements indicating that senators intend to move particular motions on the days indicated. They are entered on the Notice Paper in the order given and may be given jointly by two or more senators. Notices of motion are usually considered before orders of the day.

- Orders of the day are items of business which the Senate has ordered to be considered on particular days, usually arising from adjourned debates on matters, including legislation, or requirements to present committee reports.

On days other than Thursdays, the Notice Paper records all business of the Senate and government business items, but includes only new items of general business from the previous sitting day. On Thursdays, to take account of General Business at 4.30 pm, a full listing of business relating to the consideration of government documents, committee reports and government responses to committee reports and Auditor-General’s reports is also published.
Sections of the Notice Paper

Other than the sections: Matters of Privilege, Business of the Senate and Government Business, the Notice Paper, may also contain the following:

Orders of the Day relating to Committee Reports and Government Responses and Auditor-General’s Reports Adjourned debates on motions to consider or adopt committee reports and government responses. These orders may be considered for one hour on Thursdays at the conclusion of general business. New items appear on the following day’s Notice Paper. The section is printed in full on Thursdays.

This section can be found residing between Government Business and General Business on the Notice Paper.

General Business

Orders of the Day—Adjourned debates on motions initiated by private senators to take note of business other than a government document or a private senator’s bill as these have their own sections.

Orders of the day relating to Government Documents—Adjourned debates on motions to take note of government documents. Such orders arise from consideration of the government documents presented on a particular day and include consideration of any documents not reached on the day. They are also listed for consideration for up to one hour on Thursdays during the consideration of general business. New items appear in the following day’s Notice Paper. The section is printed in full on Thursdays.

Orders of the day relating to Private Senators’ Bills—Adjourned debates on motions to consider bills introduced by senators in a personal capacity. New items appear in the following day’s Notice Paper.

They can also be listed for consideration for up to 2 hours and 20 minutes on Thursday mornings (temporary order agreed to on 2 November 2010 upon adoption of recommendation in the Procedure Committee’s 4th report of 2010).

Business for Future Consideration
Lists any notice of motion or order of the day to be considered on a specific day in the future, for example, a committee report ordered to be presented on a specific date, or a notice of motion given for a day other than the next day of sitting.

Business, is listed under the date it is to dealt with in the chamber, starting with the next day of sitting. Any business to which a date cannot be allocated, for example, the tabling date may be a result of some other event occurring, will be placed at the end of the section.

Bills Referred to Committees

Answers to Estimates Questions on Notice
Lists the dates set by standing committees for the answering of questions taken on notice during estimates hearings.

Orders of the Senate
An order of the Senate is a resolution agreed to by the Senate which is regarded as continuing in effect unless its terms indicate that it has a limited life, or is spent by the effluxion of time or the circumstances to which it applied no longer exist.

This section can include resolutions such as: new or amendments of standing orders which have not yet appeared in a current reprint, temporary orders of the Senate, the authorisation of committees to meet during the sitting of the Senate, and orders for production of documents.

Contingent Notices of Motion
