Notice given 2 July 2019

*1 Senator Patrick: To move—

(1) That the Senate notes—

(a) the Prime Minister’s Statement of Ministerial Standards of 30 August 2018, at paragraph 2.25 concerning post-ministerial employment, states that “Ministers are required to undertake that, for an eighteen month period after ceasing to be a Minister, they will not lobby, advocate or have business meetings with members of the government, Parliament, public service or defence force on any matters on which they have had official dealings as Minister in their last eighteen months in office. Ministers are also required to undertake that, on leaving office, they will not take personal advantage of information to which they have had access as a Minister, where that information is not generally available to the public”;

(b) that Mr Christopher Maurice Pyne served as the Minister for Defence Industry from 19 July 2016 to 28 August 2018, and as the Minister for Defence from 28 August 2018 to 11 April 2019;

(c) that Mr Pyne has taken employment with consulting firm EY and that, in his own words, he is “looking forward to providing strategic advice to EY, as the firm looks to expand its footprint in the defence industry”;

(d) that media reports indicate that AusTender government contract notices show that over the past four years EY has secured over 830 contracts with the Australian Government worth more than $370 million, including 138 contracts with the Department of Defence worth $148 million;

(e) that EY has publicly identified the Australian Government’s investment in new defence capabilities, including the future submarines project and the future frigate project as major business opportunities;

(f) EY’s statement that Mr Pyne will help build EY’s defence-related business in South Australia and elsewhere, including helping to “lead conversations about what all states need to do to meet the challenges and opportunities this defence investment will bring”;

(g) EY’s subsequent statement that Mr Pyne “will not be lobbying or meeting with public sector MPs, public service or defence in his EY role” and that he will be “supporting the private sector side of the business”; and

(h) Mr Pyne’s further statement that he intends “to ensure that anyone I provide advice to has rigorous processes and procedures in place to ensure that I am not put in a position where the Ministerial Code might be breached”.

No. 1—3 July 2019
(2) That the following matter be referred to the Finance and Public Administration References Committee for inquiry and report by 10 September 2019:

(a) compliance by former Ministers of State with the requirements of paragraph 2.25 of the Prime Minister’s Statement of Ministerial Standards, dated 30 August 2018, including, but not limited to the undertakings given by Ministers to comply with their obligations concerning post-ministerial employment, and action taken by the Prime Minister and the Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet to ensure full compliance by former Ministers with paragraph 2.25 of the Ministerial Standards; and

(b) any related matters.

GENERAL BUSINESS

Notices of Motion

Notice given 2 July 2019

*1 Senator Patrick: To move—

(1) That so much of the standing orders be suspended as would prevent this resolution having effect.

(2) That the following bills be restored to the Notice Paper and consideration of each of the bills resume at the stage reached in the 45th Parliament:
   - Competition and Consumer Amendment (Truth in Labelling—Palm Oil) Bill 2017
   - Freedom of Information Legislation Amendment (Improving Access and Transparency) Bill 2018
   - Intelligence Services Amendment (Enhanced Parliamentary Oversight of Intelligence Agencies) Bill 2018

*2 Senator Patrick: To move—

(1) That the Senate notes that—
   (a) on 12 October 2017, Mr Richard Boyle made a disclosure under the Public Interest Disclosure Act 2013 (PID Act) as a former employee of the Australian Taxation Office (ATO), alleging the ATO:
      (i) had instructed employees to issue standard garnishee notices to seize funds from taxpayers’ bank accounts without notice or consideration of their personal and business circumstances, and
      (ii) in doing so, had required employees to engage in conduct that was unethical, unprofessional and against the Australian Public Service Code of Conduct;
   (b) on 27 October 2017, the ATO decided not to further investigate Mr Boyle’s disclosure on the basis that the information did not concern serious disclosable conduct as defined in the PID Act; and
   (c) subsequent media inquiries found anomalies in the ATO’s debt collection practices that appeared consistent with Mr Boyle’s disclosure.

(2) That the Senate is of the opinion that—
   (a) whistleblowers must be protected to ensure integrity and deter misconduct within the government and the public sector; and
   (b) examining the ATO’s actions in relation to Mr Boyle’s disclosure is consistent with the Senate’s role in providing oversight of government administration.

(3) That the Senate orders the Commissioner of Taxation to provide all documents relating to the disclosure generated or received by Mr Boyle’s supervisor, authorised officer and principal officer (as defined in the PID Act) to the Economics Legislation Committee (the committee) by no later than 5 pm on 10 July 2019.
(4) That the committee, when it has considered the documents, report to the Senate as to whether the ATO’s handling of disclosures by whistleblowers warrants further inquiry.

*3 Senators Bilyk and Sterle: To move—That the Senate—

(a) notes that:

(i) 3 to 9 June 2019 was World Haemochromatosis Week,
(ii) around 1 in 200 Australians have the genetic risk for haemochromatosis – or inherited iron overload disorder – making it the most common genetic disorder in Australia,
(iii) if detected, haemochromatosis is easy to treat, yet it can be fatal if left undiagnosed and untreated, and
(iv) during that week, Haemochromatosis Australia was promoting the message “TEST: Tricky to say, Easy to test, Simple to treat, Tragic to ignore”; and

(b) urges all members and senators to raise awareness among their constituents of:

(i) the early symptoms of haemochromatosis, such as fatigue and joint pain,
(ii) the dangers of experiencing the more severe symptoms of iron overload, such as organ failure, and
(iii) the importance of asking their doctor for a blood test to check their risk of iron overload.

*4 Senator Bernardi: To move—

(1) That so much of the standing orders be suspended as would prevent this resolution having effect.

(2) That the Nuclear Fuel Cycle (Facilitation) Bill 2017 be restored to the Notice Paper and consideration of the bill resume at the stage reached in the 45th Parliament.

*6 Senator Griff: To move—

(1) That so much of the standing orders be suspended as would prevent this resolution having effect.

(2) That the Telecommunications Legislation Amendment (Unsolicited Communications) Bill 2019 be restored to the Notice Paper and consideration of the bill resume at the stage reached in the 45th Parliament.

*7 Senator Faruqi: To move—That the Senate—

(a) notes that:

(i) the Royal National Park in New South Wales has enormous heritage value, including being the first national park in Australia, as well as one of the first in the world, and
(ii) it has been six years since the Federal and New South Wales State Governments committed to nominating the Royal National Park for World Heritage status; and

(b) calls on the Federal Government to demonstrate environmental leadership and work with the New South Wales government to place the Royal National Park on Australia’s Tentative World Heritage List.

*8 Senator Faruqi: To move—That the following bill be introduced: A Bill for an Act to amend the Export Control Act 1982 to prohibit the export of live animals for slaughter, and for related purposes. Live Animal Export (Slaughter) Prohibition Bill 2019.

*9 Senator Siewert: To move—That the Senate—

(a) notes that:

(i) there are approximately 3 million people in Australia living in poverty, including over 700,000 children,

(ii) Australia has no poverty reduction plan and, despite economic growth, poverty levels have remained high,

(iii) Newstart and Youth Allowance have not had an increase in real terms for over 25 years,

(iv) recipients of these income support payments are unable to cover basic living costs such as housing, food, transport, healthcare and utilities,

(v) income inequality and poverty has significant negative effects on individuals’ physical and mental wellbeing and society, and

(vi) poverty in early childhood can lead to poorer life outcomes; and

(b) calls on the Federal Government to make it a priority to help address poverty in Australia by raising Newstart and Youth Allowance by $75 a week.

*10 Senator Whish-Wilson: To move—That the Senate—

(a) notes that:

(i) Japan has turned its back on the international community by recommencing commercial whaling for the first time since 1988,

(ii) Japan has also turned its back on a rules-based order by leaving the International Whaling Commission (IWC) which has been integral to preventing some species of whales from becoming extinct,

(iii) Norway and Iceland, who have also left the IWC, have reduced commercial whaling in recent years in response to the negative impact it is having on tourism, and

(iv) whale watching is a viable business in many parts of the world, and that it is a much more sustainable business than killing whales; and

(b) condemns Japan, Norway and Iceland for their commercial whaling, and implores them to support whale watching rather than whale killing.

*11 Senators Hanson-Young and Di Natale: To move—That the Senate—

(a) notes the ongoing protests in Hong Kong;

(b) recognises the legitimate concerns of many of the residents of Hong Kong that democracy is under threat; and
(c) calls on the Australian Government to make representations to the Chinese Government to uphold democratic rights in Hong Kong.

*12 Senator Faruqi: To move—

(1) That so much of the standing orders be suspended as would prevent this resolution having effect.

(2) That the Australian Research Council Amendment (Ensuring Research Independence) Bill 2018 be restored to the Notice Paper and consideration of the bill resume at the stage reached in the 45th Parliament.

*13 Senators Griff and Patrick: To move—That the following bill be introduced: A Bill for an Act to alter the Constitution to expressly protect freedom of expression, including freedom of the press. Constitution Alteration (Freedom of Expression and Freedom of the Press) 2019.

*14 Senator Patrick: To move—That the following bill be introduced: A Bill for an Act to alter the Constitution to make laws for the use and management of water resources that extend beyond the limits of a State, and to require laws relating to water resources to not have an overall detrimental effect on the environment. Constitution Alteration (Water Resources) 2019.

*15 Senator Waters: To move—That the Senate—

(a) notes that:

(i) since the start of 2019, there have been 25 women killed by violence in Australia as reported by Counting Dead Women Australia from Destroy The Joint,

(ii) today there have been reports of a further violent death of a woman in Queensland—her death is under investigation and raises the toll to 26,

(iii) there is no national government reporting program to record the ongoing toll of women killed by violence in real time—this work is currently left to researchers at not-for-profit organisations like Destroy the Joint,

(iv) on average, one woman a week is murdered by her current or former partner,

(v) 1 in 3 Australian women have experienced physical violence since the age of 15,

(vi) 1 in 5 Australian women has experienced sexual violence,

(vii) 1 in 6 Australian women has experienced physical or sexual violence by a current or former partner,

(viii) 1 in 4 Australian women has experienced emotional abuse by a current or former partner,

(ix) Australian women are nearly three times more likely than men to experience violence from an intimate partner,

(x) there is growing evidence that women with disabilities are more likely to experience violence,

(xi) Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander women report experiencing violence in the previous 12 months at 3.1 times the rate of non-Indigenous women, and

(xii) in 2014-15, Indigenous women were 32 times as likely to be hospitalised due to family violence as non-Indigenous women; and
(b) calls on the Federal Government to:

(i) recognise domestic violence against women as a national security crisis,

(ii) adequately fund frontline domestic violence and crisis housing services to ensure that all women seeking safety can access these services when and where they need them,

(iii) legislate for 10 days paid domestic violence leave so that women don’t have to choose between paying the bills and seeking safety,

(iv) implement all 25 recommendations contained in the report of the Finance and Public Administration References Committee on domestic violence in Australia, tabled on 20 August 2015, and

(v) much like the national road toll, maintain and publish an official real-time national toll of women killed by violence in Australia.

*16 Senators Rice and Waters: To move—That the Senate—

(a) notes:

(i) the recent dominant performances of Australian women across a range of international sports, including:

(A) Ms Ashleigh Barty has been ranked No. 1 in singles by the international Women’s Tennis Association, the first Australian woman to reach the top of the world tennis rankings since Ms Evonne Goolagong Cawley in 1976,

(B) Ms Hannah Green secured a win in the Women’s PGA Championship, becoming the third Australian woman to win a golfing major title after Ms Karrie Webb and Ms Jan Stephenson,

(C) Ms Sally Fitzgibbons was crowned surfing world No. 1 after beating Ms Carissa Moore in the final of World Surf League’s Rio Pro in Brazil,

(D) The Matildas reached the Round of 16 in the Women’s Football World Cup in France, with captain Ms Sam Kerr becoming the first Australian to score four goals in a World Cup game, and

(E) Australia’s women’s eight crew won gold at the Rowing World Cup in Poland,

(ii) that there continue to be significant barriers to equality in women’s sport, including huge pay and prize money disparity, lack of investment in and access to facilities and sporting grounds, and structural barriers including sexism, transphobia, intersexism and lack of media coverage, and

(iii) that interest in women’s sport is increasing and female athletes are inspiring a whole new generation of children - equality in sport will benefit our economy, communities and athletes and help to address cultural issues that prevent women from being equally valued in our society;

(b) congratulates and thanks all these women for their dedication to excellence, and for the inspiration they provide to women and girls across Australia; and
(c) calls on the Federal Government to encourage and facilitate women’s participation in sport, particularly in traditionally male-dominated sports, as players, coaches and leaders, by appropriately investing in facilities and promoting pay, prize money, and broadcast equity.

*17 Leader of the Australian Greens (Senator Di Natale): To move—

(1) That so much of the standing orders be suspended as would prevent this resolution having effect.

(2) That the following bills be restored to the Notice Paper and consideration of each of the bills resume at the stage reached in the 45th Parliament:

- Air Services Amendment Bill 2018
- Australian Cannabis Agency Bill 2018
- Australian Multicultural Bill 2018
- Broadcasting Services Amendment (Audio Description) Bill 2018

- Murray-Darling Basin Commission of Inquiry Bill 2019
- Regional Forest Agreements Legislation (Repeal) Bill 2017
- Social Services Legislation Amendment (Ending the Poverty Trap) Bill 2018.

*18 Senator Hanson-Young: To move—That the Senate—

(a) notes that:

(i) public services in South Australia, this time the transport system, are under attack from privatisation, and

(ii) privatisation of essential services has an adverse effect on South Australians, with services becoming more expensive and less reliable – electricity prices increased when the Electricity Trust of South Australia was privatised in 1999, as well as bus fares increasing after privatisation in recent years; and

(b) calls on the South Australian Liberal Government to reconsider its move to privatise Adelaide Metro trains and trams.
BUSINESS LISTED FOR FUTURE CONSIDERATION

     matters which the committee is empowered to consider.

(13) That the committee and any subcommittee have power to send for and examine persons and documents, to move from place to place, to sit in public or in private, notwithstanding any prorogation of the Parliament, and have leave to report from time to time its proceedings and the evidence taken and such interim recommendations as it may deem fit.

(14) That the committee be provided with all necessary staff, facilities and resources and be empowered to appoint persons with specialist knowledge for the purposes of the committee with the approval of the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives.
(15) That the committee be empowered to print from day to day such papers and evidence as may be ordered by it, and a daily Hansard be published of such proceedings as take place in public.

(16) That the committee have power to adjourn from time to time and to sit during any adjournment of the Senate and the House of Representatives.

(17) That a message be sent to the House of Representatives seeking its concurrence in this resolution.

Business of the Senate—Notice of Motion

Notice given 2 July 2019

*1 Senator Rice: To move—That the following matter be referred to the Legal and Constitutional Affairs References Committee for inquiry and report by 3 December 2019:
The continuing discrimination against lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, gender diverse, intersex and queer people and their families in Australia, its prevalence and its impacts, including:
(a) existing discrimination within federal, state and territory law and policy;
(b) experience of discrimination in Australian life, including but not limited to educational settings, workplaces, aged care, healthcare, sporting clubs and organisations, religious organisations, the provision of government services, including where contracted out, and in the provision of goods, services,
housing and accommodation;
(c) where discrimination is sanctioned by federal, state and territory legislation and where it is occurring in breach or potential breach of legislation;
(d) how this discrimination affects the human rights, legal rights, access to justice, health, wellbeing and educational and economic outcomes of LGBTIQ+ people in Australia;
(e) the additional and compounding impacts of discrimination on LGBTIQ+ people and their families who are Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander, of different or minority race, ethnicity or religion, or on the grounds of their migrant status, age, ability and socio-economic background or circumstances, who have intersectional LGBTIQ+ identities, or who have a range of these personal characteristics;
(f) how the experience of discrimination on LGBTIQ+ people and their families differs for young people;
(g) how the experience of discrimination on LGBTIQ+ people and their families differs based on whether they live in urban, regional, rural or remote areas;
(h) the specific discrimination, stigmatisation and human rights violations, including harmful practices in medical settings, experienced by people born with variations of sex characteristics, including infants, children and adolescents, and also encompassing prenatal interventions due to variations of sex characteristics;

ORDERS OF THE SENATE

Address-in-reply—Suspension of standing order 3(4)
That standing order 3(4) be suspended to enable the Senate to consider business other than that of a formal character before the address-in-reply to the Governor-General’s opening speech has been adopted.

(Agreed to 2 July 2019)

Environment and Communications References Committee—Determination of committee chair—Standing order 25(9)
That, pursuant to standing order 25(9), the Senate determines:

(a) that the chair of the Environment and Communications References Committee shall be elected by that committee from members nominated by minor parties or independent senators; and

(b) that this order remain in effect until the President is duly notified of an agreement that meets the terms of standing order 25(9)(c).

(Agreed to 2 November 2011; varied 13 September 2016)
Meeting of Senate
That the Senate meet on Wednesday, 3 July and Thursday, 4 July 2019.
(Agreed to 2 July 2019)

CONTINGENT NOTICES OF MOTION

Conduct of business
1 Leader of the Government in the Senate (Senator Cormann): To move (contingent on the Senate on any day concluding its consideration of any item of business and prior to the Senate proceeding to the consideration of another item of business)—That so much of the standing orders be suspended as would prevent a minister moving a motion to provide for the consideration of any matter.

2 Leader of the Opposition in the Senate (Senator Wong)
   Leader of the Australian Greens (Senator Di Natale)
   Leader of Pauline Hanson’s One Nation (Senator Hanson)
   Senator Bernardi
   Senator Patrick
   To move (contingent on the Senate on any day concluding its consideration of any item of business and prior to the Senate proceeding to the consideration of another item of business)—That so much of the standing orders be suspended as would prevent the senator moving a motion relating to the conduct of the business of the Senate or to provide for the consideration of any matter.

Formal business
3 Leader of the Government in the Senate (Senator Cormann)
