Notices of Motion

Notice given 16 September 2019

*133 Senator Waters: To move—

(1) That the Senate notes that clause 2.4 of the Prime Minister’s Statement of Ministerial Standards (the Standards) provides: “Except with the express approval of the Prime Minister, Ministers will resign or decline directorships of public or private companies and businesses on taking up office as a Minister. Approval to retain a directorship of a private company or business will be granted only if the Prime Minister is satisfied, on the advice of the Secretary of the Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet, that no conflict of interest is likely to arise. (emphasis added).

(2) That there be laid on the table by the Minister representing the Prime Minister, by no later than 12 pm on 19 September 2019, the following documents:

(a) details of all approvals given to current ministers under clause 2.4 of the Standards allowing a minister to retain or accept directorships of public or private companies, including:
   (i) who the approval was granted to,
   (ii) details of the relevant company,
   (iii) when the approval was granted,
   (iv) details of any advice received from the Secretary of the Department of Prime Minister and Cabinet in relation to the approval, and
   (v) any reasons given in support of the approval; and

(b) details of all applications made by current ministers for approval under clause 2.4 of the Standards where the Prime Minister refused to grant approval for the minister to retain or accept a directorship of a public or private company, including:
   (i) who made the application,
   (ii) details of the relevant company,
   (iii) when the application was refused,
   (iv) any advice received from the Secretary of the Department of Prime Minister and Cabinet in relation to the application, and
   (v) any reasons given in support of the refusal.

(3) That there be laid on the table by the Minister representing the Prime Minister, by no later than 12 pm on 14 October 2019, the following documents:

(a) details of all approvals given to ministers since the 42nd Parliament under the relevant Prime Minister’s Statement of Ministerial Standards allowing a minister to retain or accept directorships of public or private companies, including:
(i) who the approval was granted to,
(ii) details of the relevant company,
(iii) when the approval was granted,
(iv) details of any advice received from the Secretary of the Department of Prime Minister and Cabinet in relation to the approval, and
(v) any reasons given in support of the approval; and
(b) details of all applications made by current or former ministers since the 42nd Parliament for approval under the Standards where the Prime Minister refused to grant approval for the Minister to retain or accept a directorship of a public or private company, including:
(i) who made the application,
(ii) details of the relevant company,
(iii) when the application was refused,
(iv) any advice received from the Secretary of the Department of Prime Minister and Cabinet in relation to the application, and
(v) any reasons given in support of the refusal.

*134 Leader of the Australian Greens (Senator Di Natale): To move—That the Senate supports the right of people to engage in non-violent civil disobedience to demand action on the unfolding climate and environment crisis.

*135 Senator Sterle: To move—That there be laid on the table by the Minister representing the Prime Minister, by no later than 3 pm on 18 September 2019, copies of the final reports by the Coordinator-General for Drought, Major General Stephen Day, the Drought Interagency Taskforce and Special Envoy for Drought Assistance and Recovery.

*136 Leader of the Opposition in the Senate (Senator Wong): To move—That the Senate—
(a) notes widespread reports in the media about the Member for Chisholm over the last week, which raise questions concerning her fitness to be a member of the Australian Parliament; and
(b) at 9.30 am on 18 September 2019, before government business is called on:
   (i) requires the Minister representing the Prime Minister (Senator Cormann) to provide, for no more than 20 minutes:
      (A) an explanation of the Government’s response to the allegations raised against the Member for Chisholm, and
      (B) an assurance to the Senate that the Member for Chisholm is a fit and proper person to remain a member of the Australian Parliament, and
   (ii) a senator may, at the conclusion of the Minister’s explanation, move without notice, that the Senate take note of the explanation.

*137 Senator Faruqi: To move—That the Senate—
(a) notes that:
   (i) the New South Wales (NSW) Youth Council held their ‘Unleash the Future’ Conference from 13 to 15 September 2019 in Rooty Hill, and
(ii) young people from across NSW came together to workshop issues, including the need for emergency action on the climate crisis, the role of advocacy, gender and cultural diversity, mental health, youth and family violence, and the importance of having young voices at all levels of Australian government;

(b) congratulates the Blacktown Youth Advisory Committee on organising a successful conference; and

(c) recognises the role of youth councils in providing forums for young people to discuss issues, advise local councils and hold events organised for and by young people.

*138 Senator Siewert: To move—That there be laid on the table by the Minister for Employment, Skills, Small and Family Business, by 10 am on 18 September 2019, the latest job seeker compliance data including all payment suspensions, cancellations, demerits and penalties for the jobactive program for the financial year 2018-19 and year to date 2019-20.

General Business—Notice of Motion

Notice given 31 July 2019

84 Chair of the Standing Committee on Regulations and Ordinances (Senator Fierravanti-Wells): To move—That, in accordance with the recommendations of the Standing Committee on Regulations and Ordinances in its report, Parliamentary scrutiny of delegated legislation—

(1) The standing orders be amended, with effect from 4 December 2019, as follows:

(a) omit standing order 23, substitute:

23 Scrutiny of Delegated Legislation

(1) A Standing Committee for the Scrutiny of Delegated Legislation shall be appointed at the commencement of each Parliament.

(2) All instruments made under the authority of Acts of the Parliament, which are subject to disallowance, disapproval or affirmative resolution by the Senate and which are of a legislative character, shall stand referred to the committee for consideration and, if necessary, report.

(3) The committee shall scrutinise each instrument as to whether:

(a) it is in accordance with its enabling Act and otherwise complies with all legislative requirements;
(b) it appears to be supported by a constitutional head of legislative power and is otherwise constitutionally valid;
(c) it makes rights, liberties, obligations or interests unduly dependent on insufficiently defined administrative powers;
(d) those likely to be affected by the instrument were adequately consulted in relation to it;
(e) its drafting is defective or unclear;
(f) it, and any document it incorporates, may be freely accessed and used;
(g) the accompanying explanatory material provides sufficient information to gain a clear understanding of the instrument;
(h) it trespasses unduly on personal rights and liberties;
(i) it unduly excludes, limits or fails to provide for independent review of decisions affecting rights, liberties, obligations or interests;
(j) it contains matters more appropriate for parliamentary enactment; and
(k) it complies with any other ground relating to the technical scrutiny of delegated legislation that the committee considers appropriate.

(4) The committee shall also scrutinise each instrument to determine whether the attention of the Senate should be drawn to the instrument on the ground that it raises significant issues, or otherwise gives rise to issues that are likely to be of interest to the Senate.

(5) The committee may, for the purpose of reporting on its terms of reference, consider any proposed or draft legislative instrument, including an exposure draft of such an instrument.

(6) (a) The committee shall consist of 6 senators, 3 being members of the government party nominated by the Leader of the Government in the Senate, and 3 being senators who are not members of the government party, nominated by the Leader of the Opposition in the Senate or by any minority groups or independent senators.

(b) The nominations of the opposition or any minority groups or independent senators shall be determined by agreement between the opposition and the minority groups or independent senators, and, in the absence of agreement duly notified to the President, the question of the representation on the committee shall be determined by the Senate.

(7) The committee may appoint sub-committees consisting of 3 or more of its members, and refer to any such sub-committee any matters which the committee is empowered to consider.

(8) The committee shall elect as chair a member appointed to the committee on the nomination of the Leader of the Government in the Senate.
(9) The committee shall elect as deputy chair a member appointed to the committee on the nomination of the Leader of the Opposition in the Senate, and the member so elected shall act as chair of the committee when there is no chair or the chair is not present at a meeting of the committee.

(10) Where votes on a question before the committee are equally divided, the chair, or the deputy chair when acting as chair, shall have a casting vote.

(11) The committee and any sub-committee shall have power to send for persons and documents, to move from place to place, and to meet and transact business in public or private session and notwithstanding any prorogation of the Parliament or dissolution of the House of Representatives.

(12) The committee may inquire into and report on any matter related to the technical scrutiny of delegated legislation.

(13) The committee may appoint with the approval of the President a legal adviser to the committee.

(14) The committee shall be empowered to print from day to day any of its documents and evidence. A daily Hansard shall be published of public proceedings of the committee.

(15) The committee may report from time to time its proceedings and evidence and any recommendations, and shall make regular reports of the progress of the proceedings of the committee.

(b) omit standing order 25(2)(a), substitute:

(a) The legislation committees shall inquire into and report upon:
   (i) estimates of expenditure in accordance with standing order 26,
   (ii) bills or draft bills referred to them by the Senate,
   (iii) legislative instruments made in the portfolios allocated to them,
   (iv) annual reports in accordance with paragraph (20), and
   (v) the performance of departments and agencies allocated to them.

(2) The initial members of the Standing Committee for the Scrutiny of Delegated Legislation shall be the members of the Standing Committee on Regulations and Ordinances appointed at the commencement of this Parliament.

(3) The Standing Committee for the Scrutiny of Delegated Legislation have the power to consider and use the records of the Standing Committee on Regulations and Ordinances.
On 25 November 2019

General Business—Notice of Motion

Notice given 30 July 2019

72 Senator Kitching: To move—

(1) That a select committee, to be known as the Select Committee on Integrity, be established to inquire into and report on the integrity of government administration, with particular reference to:

(a) the adequacy and performance of existing integrity measures including, but not limited to:
   (i) the Statement of Ministerial Standards, and

Business of the Senate—Notice of Motion

Notice given 2 July 2019

1 Senator Rice: To move—That the following matter be referred to the Legal and Constitutional Affairs References Committee for inquiry and report by 3 December 2019:

The continuing discrimination against lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, gender diverse, intersex and queer people and their families in Australia, its prevalence and its impacts, including:

(a) existing discrimination within federal, state and territory law and policy;

(b) experience of discrimination in Australian life, including but not limited to educational settings, workplaces, aged care, healthcare, sporting clubs and organisations, religious organisations, the provision of government services, including where contracted out, and in the provision of goods, services, housing and accommodation;

(c) where discrimination is sanctioned by federal, state and territory legislation and where it is occurring in breach or potential breach of legislation;

(d) how this discrimination affects the human rights, legal rights, access to justice, health, wellbeing and educational and economic outcomes of LGBTIQ+ people in Australia;

(e) the additional and compounding impacts of discrimination on LGBTIQ+ people and their families who are Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander, of different or minority race, ethnicity or religion, or on the grounds of their migrant status, age, ability and socio-economic background or circumstances, who have intersectional LGBTIQ+ identities, or who have a range of these personal characteristics;

(f) how the experience of discrimination on LGBTIQ+ people and their families differs for young people;

(g) how the experience of discrimination on LGBTIQ+ people and their families differs based on whether they live in urban, regional, rural or remote areas;
(h) the specific discrimination, stigmatisation and human rights violations, including harmful practices in medical settings, experienced by people born with variations of sex characteristics, including infants, children and adolescents, and also encompassing prenatal interventions due to variations of sex characteristics;

(i) the broad range of sexual orientation and gender identity change efforts and associated formal and informal activities, particularly by religious organisations, and the impacts of these on lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, gender diverse and queer people;

(j) the reforms and initiatives required to remedy prejudice, stigma and discrimination against LGBTIQ+ people and their families, including legislative and policy reforms, funding for training and education programs, funding for community and government initiatives, development of funded government strategies, better liaison between government, relevant NGOs and the LGBTIQ+ community, and the development of national standards for best-practice legislative, policy and program initiatives; and

(k) any other related matters.
