*1364 Senator Steele-John: To move—

(1) That the Senate—

(a) notes that:

(i) despite the hard-won progress of the disability rights movement, disabled Australians continue to be subjected to discrimination and are routinely denied the right guaranteed them under international law,

(ii) this discrimination creates and sustains the barriers to employment, education, transport, social and political participation experienced by disabled Australians and, most concerning, manifests itself in horrific violence, abuse and neglect to which they are subjected, and

(iii) from July to September 2018, over 184 incidents of abuse and neglect were reported to the NDIS Quality and Safeguards Commission (the Commission) – the Commission has also released data that shows in the same three months it received 62 reports of expected and unexpected deaths, 91 reports of injuries, 34 complaints against individual staff or service providers and 75 cases of unauthorised restrictive practices; and

(b) calls on the House of Representatives to support the immediate establishment of a royal commission to investigate violence, abuse and neglect of disabled people.

(2) That a message be sent to the House of Representatives seeking its concurrence in this resolution.

*1365 Senator Griff: To move—That the Senate—

(a) notes that:

(i) the Royal Commission into Aged Care Quality and Safety (the Royal Commission) commenced on 18 January 2019, and started hearing evidence from witnesses in Adelaide this week,

(ii) part of the Royal Commission’s task is to examine substandard care and the causes of any systematic failures that have affected the quality or safety of aged care services,

(iii) the Royal Commission will also examine existing policy, regulations and practices in order to consider reform and change to deliver better outcomes for those receiving aged care in Australia now and into the future,

(iv) the Honourable Richard Tracey AM RFD QC stated that the Royal Commission was a “once in a lifetime opportunity” and cautioned the aged care sector against instructing staff not to talk to the Royal Commission or to withhold information,

(v) aged care providers approved under the Commonwealth Aged Care Act 1997 were asked to provide information to the Royal Commission, with the largest 100 providers invited to make written submissions by 7 January 2019, and the remaining 1,882 approved aged care providers to provide their written submissions by 8 February 2019, and
(vi) at the commencement of the Royal Commission, fewer than half of the 1,982 approved providers had responded to the Royal Commission’s invitation for submissions;

(b) urges every approved aged care provider who has not yet put forward a submission to the Royal Commission to do so, as a matter of urgency;

(c) further notes that, under section 6M of the Royal Commissions Act 1902, it is a criminal offence for a person to punish, disadvantage or otherwise injure a person who has appeared as a witness or produced a document or given information or a statement pursuant to a summons requirement or notice issued by the Royal Commission; and

(d) denounces any attempt by aged care providers to stop current or former employees from participating freely in the Royal Commission into Aged Care Quality and Safety.

1366 Senator Griff: To move—That the Senate—

(a) congratulates refugee Mr Behrouz Boochani on winning Australia’s richest literary award, the $100,000 Victorian Prize for Literature, as well as claiming $25,000 for first place in the category of non-fiction;

(b) recognises that Mr Boochani won the literary prizes for his memoir, No Friend But the Mountains: Writing from Manus Prison, which was written on a mobile phone and charts his flight from Iran and his experiences in offshore detention;

(c) notes that Mr Boochani described his win as “It is a victory not only for us, but for literature and art, and above all, it is a victory for humanity – a victory for human beings and human dignity ... A victory against a system that has never recognised us as human beings. It is a victory against a system that has reduced us to numbers. This is a beautiful moment.”; and

(d) expresses its dismay that Mr Boochani was not able to attend the awards ceremony as the Iranian-Kurdish journalist remains on Manus Island where he has been in detention since 2013.

1369 Leader of the Australian Greens (Senator Di Natale): To move—That the Senate—

(a) notes that:

(i) over the 2018-19 summer, more than five people have died or been injured as a result of taking illicit drugs,

(ii) there is a real possibility that these deaths could have been prevented and harm reduced if pill testing services had been offered at music festivals and in the community,

(iii) best-practice pill testing models involve a consultation with a health practitioner about the content of the pill, and a person’s choices about whether or not to consume illicit drugs,
(iv) pill testing services give health services critical information about what has been consumed and provide people with more information about what is in the pills that they are taking than they otherwise have access to,

(v) a large number of relevant medical professional organisations have declared their support for pill testing over the summer period, including the Royal College of Physicians, the Pharmaceutical Society of Australia, the Royal Australian College of General Practitioners and the Australian Medical Association, and

(vi) members of Parliament from both the Australian Labor Party and the Liberal Party have expressed support for pill testing, but the leaders of both of the parties are refusing to consider these real and critically-important benefits; and

(b) calls on the Federal Government to:
   (i) urgently develop and implement a pill testing policy to prevent more deaths and harm, and
   (ii) work with the medical community, community groups and all state and territory governments to implement existing models which demonstrably have worked and helped save lives.

*1370 Senator Singh: To move—That the Senate—

(a) notes with concern that:
   (i) the Pacific region is especially vulnerable to the effects of climate change, many of which are already beginning to be felt and to threaten the lives and livelihoods of the region’s residents, and
   (ii) this region will soon be home to around 10 million people, residing in some of the world’s least developed and most infrastructure-poor nations;

(b) further notes that:
   (i) Prime Minister Scott Morrison completed a state visit to Fiji and Vanuatu in January this year,
   (ii) during this visit, the Prime Minister of Fiji expressed his hope that Australia would join Fiji ‘on the frontlines of the global campaign for climate action’,
   (iii) despite making a small pledge to combat the effects of climate change in the Pacific, the Federal Government has failed to adopt effective policy designed to lower emissions and prevent further climate change from occurring, and is now refusing to support the Green Climate Fund - the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change’s official method of supporting less developed countries, such as Fiji, in their efforts to mitigate the effects of climate change on their citizens, and
   (iv) as a result, since 2014, Australia’s greenhouse emissions have consistently grown, are currently at a seven-year high, and are projected to increase all the way to 2030, as far as government projections go;

(c) recognises that climate change is the single greatest threat to the livelihoods, security and wellbeing of the peoples of the Pacific region; and
(d) calls upon the Federal Government to:
   (i) take effective and immediate action to combat the causes of climate change, and
   (ii) to work in partnership with Pacific nations in the development of measures to combat climate change’s effects.

*1371 Senator Bilyk: To move—That the Senate—

(a) notes that:
   (i) 5 February 2019 was Safer Internet Day, an annual, worldwide event to help raise awareness about internet safety, and empower individuals and communities to have more positive online experiences,
   (ii) the internet has opened an unprecedented opportunity for people to communicate and receive information anywhere and at any time,
   (iii) internet users of all ages are exposed to risks and threats online, including fraud, identity theft, unauthorised access to personal information, image-based abuse, cyberbullying, stalking and exposure to unreliable information or illicit materials, and
   (iv) this year’s theme, ‘Together for a better internet’, encourages everyone to take responsibility for making the internet a positive experience by being kind and respectful to others, seeking out positive opportunities to create and connect, and reporting inappropriate or illegal content and behaviour online;

(b) encourages all Australians to promote internet safety and to help make the internet a positive experience for all users; and

(c) calls on the Australian Government, and all future Australian governments, to continue working with state and territory governments, schools, community groups, the information and communications technology industry and the wider community to make the internet safer.

*1372 Senator Bilyk: To move—That the Senate—

(a) notes that:
   (i) 12 February 2019 was World Cholangiocarcinoma Day, an international effort to raise awareness of a form of liver cancer that develops in the bile duct cells,
   (ii) 1 in 67,000 Australians are diagnosed each year with cholangiocarcinoma – around one per day,
   (iii) in Australia, cholangiocarcinoma generally has a five-year survival rate of around 30%, and
   (iv) many cholangiocarcinoma patients are diagnosed too late for potentially curative surgery; and

(b) recognises the need for continued efforts to improve the diagnosis, treatment and survival rates for rare and less common cancers, such as cholangiocarcinoma.
Senator McCarthy and Siewert: To move—That the Senate—

(a) observes that:
   (i) this week marks Ochre Ribbon Week, raising awareness of the devastating impacts of family violence in First Nations communities and calling for action to end the violence against First Nations, especially our women and children, and
   (ii) the Ochre Ribbon Campaign is an initiative supported by the National Family Violence Prevention Legal Services Forum and its member organisations across Australia;

(b) recognises:
   (i) that First Nations women are 32 times more likely to be hospitalised from family violence, and 10 times more likely to be killed as a result of violent assault,
   (ii) the damaging impacts of intergenerational trauma, invasion and racism on First Nations communities, and
   (iii) that First Nations men and women are working to address family violence and community safety at the grassroots and their efforts should be supported; and

(c) calls on the Morrison Government to:
   (i) ensure all First Nations women have access to culturally-safe, specialist legal services, regardless of where they live, and
   (ii) develop justice targets to reduce family violence and incarceration rates in First Nations communities.

Senator Storer: To move—That the Senate—

(a) notes that:
   (i) the Murray-Darling Basin needs more water to ensure its survival, the latest evidence of this being the fish-kills at Menindee Lakes,
   (ii) the management of the Murray-Darling Basin requires urgent reform,
   (iii) the Murray-Darling Basin Royal Commission delivered its findings on 29 January 2019, including recommendations to:
      (A) improve transparency by “requiring real-time data sharing and publication on water extractions”,
      (B) abolish the water buybacks cap of 1,500 gigalitres, and
      (C) undertake further research into return flows so that we know the effects of irrigation efficiency projects, and
   (iv) the Productivity Commission delivered its findings to the Federal Government on 19 December 2018, pointing out that:
      (A) the Murray-Darling Basin Authority’s twin roles as overseer of the Plan and its regulator are “conflicted and the conflicts will intensity in the next five years”, and
      (B) structural separation of the Murray-Darling Basin Authority into a Basin Plan Regulator and Murray-Darling Basin Agency is required to ensure effective implementation of the Plan; and
(b) calls on the Federal Government to:
   (i) adopt each and every recommendation proposed by the Murray-Darling Basin Royal Commission, and
   (ii) proceed with the structural separation of the Murray-Darling Basin Authority, as proposed by the Productivity Commission.

*1375 Deputy Chair of the Parliamentary Joint Committee on Corporations and Financial Services (Senator O'Neill): To move—That the time for the presentation of the report of the Parliamentary Joint Committee on Corporations and Financial Services on its inquiry into the Franchising Code of Conduct and Oil Code of Conduct be extended to 14 March 2019.

*1376 Senator Polley: To move—That the Senate—
   (a) notes that:
      (i) February is Ovarian Cancer Awareness Month,
      (ii) this year, Australians are being encouraged to take ‘ovary-action’ by knowing the signs, symptoms and risk factors of ovarian cancer,
      (iii) there has been very little improvement in treatment in 50 years and there is still no early detection test, and
      (iv) the best way of detecting ovarian cancer is to know and recognise the signs, symptoms and risk factors; and
   (b) urges all levels of government to encourage Australians to become more aware of the signs and symptoms of ovarian cancer, to know their family history, where to get help, and to create communities where people openly talk about ovarian cancer.

*1377 Senator Polley: To move—That the Senate acknowledges and congratulates:

(C) any other question requisite to dispose of the business before the Senate or committee.

*1379 Senator Collins: To move—that there be laid on the table by the Leader of the Government in the Senate (Senator Cormann), by no later than 3.30 pm on 14 February 2019, all outstanding answers to questions on notice as at 31 January 2019 from the 2018-19 supplementary Budget estimates hearings in the following portfolios:

(a) Health (210 answers);

(b) Human Services (91 answers);

(c) Industry, Innovation and Science (7 answers);

(d) Treasury (14 answers);

(e) Education and Training (22 answers);

(f) Jobs and Small Business (4 answers);

(g) Communications and the Arts (1 answer);

(h) Environment and Energy (2 answers);

(j) Defence, including Veterans’ Affairs (75 answers);

(k) Foreign Affairs and Trade (1 answer); and

(l) Infrastructure, Regional Development and Cities (1 answer).
*1380 Senator Waters: To move—That the Senate—

(a) notes that:

(i) the gambling industry donated almost $3 million dollars to the Liberal, Labor and Australian Conservatives political parties in 2017-18,

(ii) these donations came from sports betting companies, casinos and poker machine operators,

(iii) the Australian Hotels Association was the second largest political donor in the country for the 2017-18 year, with declared political gifts leaping from $153,000 in 2016-17 to $1.1 million last financial year,

(iv) Australia has the world’s worst per-capita gambling losses of $1,000 a head,

(v) there are at least 115,000 Australians at the moment who are directly and seriously harmed by gambling, and another 280,000 experiencing significant risk,

(vi) for every person directly harmed by gambling, between 5 and 10 friends, family and others, including employers, are also affected – this means that up to 5 million Australians could be negatively affected,

(vii) online wagering is the fastest growing gambling segment, with over $1.4 billion gambled online each year,

(viii) pokies cause the most harm, with three out of four people being harmed by gambling, principally using poker machines, and

(ix) enormous donations from the gambling lobby to the major political parties has resulted in consecutive Australian governments failing to support harm-minimisation reforms that would help protect people from predatory gambling; and

(b) calls on the Federal Government to:

(i) ban corporate donations from the gambling industry,

(ii) introduce evidence-based harm-minimisation and product safety measures to reduce the development of problem gambling, and to assist gamblers to limit their expenditure,

(iii) phase out poker machines, and, in the meantime, implement $1 maximum bets per spin, $20 machine load-up limits, and $500 jackpot limits, and mandatory pre-commitment for pokies and sports betting, and

(iv) ban sports betting advertisements during the broadcast of sporting events and children’s viewing times.

*1381 Senator Hanson-Young: To move—That—

(a) the Senate notes that:

(i) the German-based Association for the Conservation of Threatened Parrots (ACTP) received permission to export 232 birds between 2015 and November 2018 for exhibition purposes,

(ii) among the birds exported were endangered Carnaby’s black cockatoos, vulnerable Baudin’s black cockatoos, naretha bluebonnets, gang-gang cockatoos and mutation varieties of king parrots and galahs,
(iii) the legal import and export of rare and endangered birds is governed by the 1975 Convention on International Trade in Endangered Species (CITES), of which Australia and Germany are signatories, and

(iv) the ACTP has no facilities freely open to the public; and

(b) there be laid on the table by the Minister representing the Minister for the Environment, by 15 February 2019, all documents and correspondence, including meeting minutes, that set out the owners of parrots that were supplied for the ACTP prior to the consignments being collated for export.

*1382 Leader of Derryn Hinch’s Justice Party (Senator Hinch): To move—That the Senate—

(a) notes that:

(i) the National Redress Scheme, which was established in response to the Royal Commission into Institutional Responses to Child Sexual Abuse, has been operating since July 2018,

(ii) as of November last year, 2,335 survivors have made applications to the National Redress Scheme, but only 28 have received compensation,

(iii) the primary reason for this delay is due to institutions that are responsible for child sexual abuse not opting into the Scheme or staggering their entry into the Scheme, and

(iv) the National Redress Scheme was a key recommendation of the Royal Commission into Institutional Responses to Child Sexual Abuse in 2015, and institutions have had sufficient time to prepare for their entry into the Scheme; and

(b) calls on the Minister for Families and Social Services to:

(i) continue encouraging all institutions within states and territories which are currently signed on to the National Redress Scheme, to opt in,

(ii) seek a timeframe from institutions that have publically stated their intention to join the Scheme as to when they will start fully participating in the Scheme, and

(iii) make this timeframe publically available so that survivors, many of whom are elderly or ill, can have some clarity about when they will receive the redress that is owed to them.

*1383 Senator Collins: To move—That the Senate—

(a) requires legislation committees to set a deadline for the return of answers to questions on notice from the 2018-19 additional estimates of not later than Friday, 29 March 2019; and

(b) for the 2019-20 Budget estimates only, varies the order of the Senate of 25 June 2014, Estimates hearings - Unanswered questions on notice, to require that the statement required under paragraph (1) of the order be laid on the table by not later than Monday, 1 April 2019.
Leader of the Opposition in the Senate (Senator Wong): To move—That the Senate—

(a) notes that, on 25 October 2017, the Minister for Small and Family Business, Skills and Vocational Education (Senator Cash) told a supplementary Budget estimates hearing that her media adviser, Mr De Garis, had received information that raids on the AWU may take place “from a media source”;

(b) further notes that, in court proceedings on 12 February 2019, Mr De Garis has now named the Minister’s then-Chief of Staff as the source of the information; and

(c) orders the Minister for Small and Family Business, Skills and Vocational Education, to attend the Senate at 2 pm on Thursday, 14 February 2019, prior to questions being called on, to make a statement of not more than five minutes to correct the record and apologise to the chamber for misleading the Senate.

Notice of motion altered on 12 February 2019 pursuant to standing order 77.

Senator Rice: To move—That there be laid on the table by the Minister representing the Minister for Agriculture and Water Resources, by no later than 9.30 am on 14 February 2019: draft advice issued to states and territories by the Department of Agriculture and Water Resources in relation to proposed amendments to the Gene Technology Regulations 2001, discussed at the Legislative and Governance Forum on Gene Technology meeting in October 2018.

Senator Rice: To move—That the Senate—

(a) notes that:

(i) until 24 November 1992, gay, lesbian and bisexual people were explicitly banned from serving in the Australian Defence Force (ADF),

(ii) between 1953 and 1992, at least 489 men and 165 women in the ADF were investigated for being LGBT – data provided to honourable discharges of lesbian, gay and bisexual people and 21 dishonourable discharges of LGB people across Army, Navy and Royal Australian Air Force,

(iii) a recent report by ACU Associate Professor Noah Riseman, indicates that LGBT personnel were subject to harrowing interviews that probed intimate personal details and surveillance of movements during and outside of service hours – these practices saw LGBT service members humiliated and intimidated, forcing many of them to resign their posts or be dishonourably discharged,

(iv) lifting the ban in 1992 ended the threat of dismissal for lesbians, gays and bisexuals, but it did not grant equal treatment to LGB service members – many Defence members still kept their same-sex relationships a secret for fear of bullying or other persecution, and

(v) transgender people continued to be subject to policies, until September 2010, that required them to discharge if they intended to affirm their gender; and
(b) calls on all parliamentarians to:

(i) acknowledge the personal and professional harm that these policies have caused,

(ii) recognise that discriminatory dismissals on account of sexuality or gender identity, suspected or otherwise, continue to impact the mental health and wellbeing of some affected ex-service members, and

(iii) celebrates the contribution of the LGBTQ people who bravely served in the ADF despite these discriminatory policies.

*1387 Senator Siewert: To move—That the Senate—

(a) notes that the Federal Government is spending $48.7 million to commemorate the 250th anniversary of James Cook’s first voyage to Australia and the Pacific, of which $6.7 million is being spent on a replica of the HMB Endeavour to circumnavigate Australia;

(b) recognises that First Nations peoples are still feeling the impacts of ongoing dispossession and oppression and continue to have poor health, employment, justice, housing and education outcomes, and high rates of child removals; and

(c) calls on the Federal Government to reverse the $48.7 million allocated to commemorating the anniversary of James Cook and reallocate this funding towards meeting our Closing the Gap targets.

*1388 Leader of Pauline Hanson’s One Nation (Senator Hanson): To move—That the Senate—

(a) notes the critical situation facing many Townsville small tradesmen and businesses as a result of the recent devastating floods; many such tradesmen and businesses who are still trying to recover from the collapse of Mr Clive Palmer’s Queensland Nickel; and

(b) calls on Mr Palmer to immediately:

(i) meet his outstanding debts to creditors resulting from the collapse of Queensland Nickel, and

(ii) repay the Australian taxpayers for the dollars paid out to meet employment entitlements owed to workers following the collapse of Queensland Nickel.

*1389 Senator Hanson-Young: To move—

(1) That the Senate notes that:

(a) the South Australian Royal Commission handed down its findings on 29 January 29 2019; and

(b) Commissioner Bret Walker SC found that the construction of the Murray-Darling Basin Plan was unlawful.

(2) That there be laid on the table by the Minister representing the Minister for Agriculture and Water Resources, all legal advice received by the Department or relevant agencies, including the Murray-Darling Basin Authority, Commonwealth Environmental Water Holder and the National Water Commission, relating to the development of the Murray-Darling Basin Plan and the 2,750GL water recovery target.
Senator Hanson-Young: To move—That the following bill be introduced: A Bill for an Act to establish an inquiry into the management of the Murray-Darling Basin, and for related purposes. Murray-Darling Basin Commission of Inquiry Bill 2019.

Senator Faruqi: To move—That the Senate—

(a) notes that:
(i) Asset Energy is planning to conduct further seismic testing for gas off the coast of Newcastle and the Central Coast in New South Wales,
(ii) seismic air gun blasting for offshore drilling creates underwater noise at extraordinarily high volumes, and it poses major risks to marine life of all sizes, including whales and dolphins,
(iii) tourism and local fishing industries rely on healthy oceans and have the potential to be severely impacted by seismic testing and offshore fossil fuel rigs, and
(iv) the community is deeply opposed to this proposal and hundreds of people have rallied against it along the coast of New South Wales; and

(b) calls on the Federal Government to suspend Asset Energy’s permit to conduct seismic testing off the coast of Newcastle and the Central Coast.

Senator Faruqi: To move—That the Senate—

(a) notes the decision of the NSW Land and Environment Court to block the proposed Rocky Hill coal mine on the ground that it will contribute to climate change – Chief Judge Brian Preston, SC noted in his judgment that the proposed coal mine “will be a material source of greenhouse gas emissions and contribute to climate change”;
(b) acknowledges the link between burning coal and climate change;
(c) recognises the power of grassroots community activism and the outstanding work by Groundswell Gloucester and the Environmental Defenders Office; and
(d) congratulates the community and Groundswell Gloucester on this landmark decision.

Senators McGrath, O’Sullivan, Stoker, Macdonald and Canavan: To move—That the Senate—

(a) recognises the severe impact that flooding in North Queensland and the Gulf region has had on families, businesses, agricultural producers and the transport industry;
(b) notes with regret that in excess of an estimated 300,000 head of livestock have perished due to the floods;
(c) further notes the long-term effects this will have on the livestock industry in North Queensland and the Gulf; and
(d) commends the Federal, state and local Governments for the assistance provided to flood-stricken communities thus far, whilst noting that sustained support will be needed to allow affected communities and industries to properly recover.
Senator Pratt: To move—That the following bill be introduced: A Bill for an Act to amend the Water Act 2007, and for related purposes. Water Amendment (Purchase Limit Repeal) Bill 2019.

Senator Anning: To move—That the Senate—
(a) affirms the right of every citizen to feel safe in their own home;
(b) recognises the sad reality that the police cannot be everywhere at every time;
(c) accepts that Australian citizens have the absolute right to defend themselves and their family from harm;
(d) notes that, due to the failure of the current Government to restrict immigration from lawless Third World countries, criminal types are being allowed to come here and subsequently terrorise the Australian public with home invasions;
(e) acknowledges the growing public outrage at Sudanese gang crime as expressed at the recent rally of concerned citizens at St Kilda; and
(f) calls on the Commonwealth and state Governments to legislate Castle Doctrine into Australian law to allow Australian citizens the right to defend their families and homes with, up to and including, lethal force against Sudanese gangs and other criminals.

Senator Anning: To move—That the Senate—
(a) notes that:
(i) in the last 15 years, Labor Governments around Australia have progressively forced Parliaments and every government department and instrumentality to begin public meetings with a secular genuflection to Aboriginal prior settlement called “acknowledgement of country”,
(ii) this practice constitutes a tokenistic exercise invented by left-wing white activists, with absolutely no relationship to any authentic Aboriginal tradition, and simply seeks to co-opt aboriginal identity as a political weapon to undermine European settlement,
(iii) the bogus nature of this manufactured ‘tradition’ is highlighted by the fact that the wording used in Federal Parliament acknowledges the Ngunnawal people as the so-called “traditional custodians” when in fact the Kamberri people were the original Aboriginal inhabitants of the region from which Canberra took its name, and
(iv) while the Gillard Labor Government imposed this left-wing tokenism on the Federal Parliament in 2010, subsequent Liberal-National Governments have notably failed to remove it from the standing orders, and this stands as a metaphor for their lack of conservative commitment and weakness of political will;
(b) seeks to assist the current Liberal-National Government to listen to its conservative conscience, and its political constituency, by proposing the removal of this socialist mantra for them; and
(c) amends standing order 50, by omitting the following:

(i) the words “and acknowledgement of country” in the title of standing order 50, and

(ii) “The President shall then make an acknowledgement of country in the following terms: I acknowledge the Ngunnawal and Ngambri peoples who are the traditional custodians of the Canberra area and pay respect to the elders, past and present, of all Australia’s Indigenous peoples.”.

*1397 Senator Leyonhjelm: To move—That the Senate—

(a) notes:

(i) recent violent crimes against numerous women,

(ii) that blame for these crimes rests with the perpetrators, not the victims,

(iii) that, despite all policy efforts and wishful thinking, there will always be some individual men in our community intent on violence against women,

(iv) that the first duty of government is to protect citizens from harm, but police cannot be everywhere at all times, so citizens must be allowed, if they choose, to deter and defend against attacks,

(v) that the innate ability of individuals to deter and defend against attacks varies, with women and the elderly generally more vulnerable,

(vi) that pepper spray can assist deterrence and self-defence, particularly for the vulnerable,

(vii) that the use of pepper spray is generally non-lethal and does not require prior training,

(viii) that pepper spray is unlikely to be used for criminal attacks, and

(ix) that, in most other countries, pepper sprays are not even regulated, let alone prohibited; and

(b) calls on the Australian Government to legalise the importation of pepper spray, subject to the state governments legalising the carrying of pepper spray, to deter and defend against attacks.

*1398 Senator Hanson-Young: To move—That the Senate—

(a) notes that:

(i) the South Australian Royal Commission into the Murray-Darling Basin has recently reported to the South Australian Governor, and

(ii) the Commissioner made 44 recommendations to address the ill-health and mismanagement of the Basin; and

(b) calls on the Federal Government to adopt the recommendations in full.
