*265 Senator Xenophon: To move—That the Senate—

(i) Australia is a country with significant gas resources (conventional natural gas and unconventional gas, including coal seam gas, shale gas and tight gas) estimated by Geoscience Australia to be in the order of 279,819 petajoules (equivalent to around 106 years of gas at current production rates, of which the gas reserves account for 47 years),
(ii) Australian energy consumers are entitled to reliable, efficient and long-term gas supply on fair and reasonable terms,

(iii) many Australian energy consumers are paying more for gas per unit than Australian gas is being sold for overseas,

(iv) many countries have mechanisms in place that ensure their domestic energy consumers have reliable, efficient and long-term gas supply on fair and reasonable terms, including:
   (A) mandatory percentages of extracted gas being reserved for domestic use,
   (B) reserves secured through state-owned gas supply companies, and
   (C) a public interest test prior to the grant of export approval,

(v) Western Australia requires commitments from gas producers for the equivalent of 15 per cent of gas from new offshore developments to be available for domestic use; and

(b) calls on the Government to introduce a public interest test for gas producers which has regard to, amongst other things, reliable, efficient and long-term domestic gas supply to Australian energy consumers on fair and reasonable terms.

*266 Leader of the Opposition in the Senate (Senator Wong): To move—That the Senate—

(a) notes:

   (i) on 21 March 2017, Harmony Day, the Senate passed a motion that acknowledged “the success of Australia’s laws in protecting Australians from discrimination on the basis of race, colour, descent or national or ethnic origin, key to Australia’s success as a multicultural society”;

(ii) the comments of the Prime Minister, Mr Turnbull, that “Here in Australia we have no tolerance for anti-Semitism, no tolerance for racism, no tolerance for anybody who seeks to demean or de-legitimise or dehumanise somebody because of their race or their religion or their culture”; and

(iii) the comments of the Coalition to Advance Multiculturalism, a collection of twenty organisations, that “The Turnbull Government’s decision to pursue watering down of protections against racial vilification is utterly shameful and at odds with the principles of multicultural Australia”;

(b) calls on all members of the Parliament to acknowledge the importance of legislative protections against actions that offend, insult, humiliate or intimidate another person or a group of people on the basis of the race, colour or national or ethnic origin of the other person or of some or all of the people in the group; and

(c) reaffirms its commitment to a multicultural Australia in which racism and discrimination have no place.
Senator Abetz: To move—That the Senate—

(a) notes that the Fair Work Act 2009 passed the Parliament with the support of the Honourable Bill Shorten, MP, and that the Fair Work Bill 2008 was circulated under the name of the Minister for Employment and Workplace Relations, the Honourable Julia Gillard, MP;

(b) notes that Mr Shorten enhanced some of the penalties for breaching the Fair Work laws when he was Minister for Employment and Workplace Relations;

(c) calls on all employers, employees and other groups to abide by the Fair Work laws; and

(d) condemns any expressions for support of breaching the Fair Work laws by employers, employees or other groups.

Senators Singh, Moore and Fierravanti-Wells: To move—That the Senate—

(a) notes that:

(i) 24 March is World Tuberculosis Day and the theme in 2017 is “Unite to End TB”,

(ii) World Tuberculosis Day is a designated World Health Organization global public health campaign and is an annual event that marks the anniversary of German Nobel Laureate, Dr Robert Koch’s 1882 discovery of the bacterium that causes Tuberculosis (TB),

(iii) TB is contagious and airborne, and ranks as the world’s second leading cause of death from a single infectious agent,

(iv) in 2016, TB was one of the top ten causes of death worldwide, was responsible for more deaths than HIV and malaria, and there were an estimated 10.4 million new (incident) TB cases worldwide,

(v) Papua-New Guinea has one of the highest rates of TB infection in the Pacific, with an estimated 33,000 total cases, including 2,000 drug-resistant cases in 2015,

(vi) the prevalence of multidrug resistant TB (MDR-TB) continues to increase worldwide – there were an estimated 480,000 new cases of MDR-TB and an additional 100,000 people with rifampicin resistant TB (RR-TB) who were also newly eligible for MDR-TB treatment,

(vii) TB is the leading cause of death among HIV positive people – HIV weakens the immune system, and in combination with TB is lethal, each contributing to the other’s progress, and

(viii) TB is considered to be a preventable and treatable disease, however, current treatment tools, drugs, diagnostics and vaccines are outdated and ineffective;

(b) recognises:

(i) the impact of the increased support by Australia to combat TB in Papua New Guinea, the need for continued support for prevention and treatment, as well as development of new tools and strategies to combat TB, consistent with the World Health Organization’s End TB Strategy,

(ii) current Australian Government funding of health and medical research that is helping to bring new medicines, diagnostic tests and vaccines to market for TB and other neglected diseases, and
(iii) that the ongoing support for research and development of new simple and affordable treatment tools for TB and multidrug-resistant TB (MDR-TB) is essential if the goals of the End TB strategy are to be met; and

(c) supports the Australian Government providing continued funding for TB prevention and treatment in Papua-New Guinea, and continued funding for the development of improved diagnostics, medications and vaccines to combat TB, beyond 2017.

*269 Leader of Derryn Hinch’s Justice Party (Senator Hinch): To move—

(a) the response and implementation of the recommendations of the Royal Commission by the Australian Government, state and territory governments and relevant not-for-profit organisations;

(b) the Australian Government policy, program and legal response, including the establishment and operation of the Commonwealth Redress Scheme and ongoing support of survivors; and

(c) any matter in relation to the Royal Commission’s recommendations referred to the committee by a resolution of either House of the Parliament.

(2) That the committee present its final report on or before 1 December 2018.

(3) That the committee consist of 12 members – 7 senators, and 5 members as follows:

(a) 3 to be nominated by the Leader of the Government in the Senate;

(b) 2 to be nominated by the Leader of the Government in the House of Representatives;

(c) 2 to be nominated by the Leader of the Opposition in the Senate;

(d) 3 to be nominated by the Leader of the Opposition in the House of Representatives;

(e) 1 to be nominated by minority groups or independents in the Senate; and

(f) the Leader of Derryn Hinch’s Justice Party (Senator Hinch).

(4) That every nomination of a member of the committee be notified in writing to the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives.

(5) That the members of the committee hold office as a joint select committee until the House of Representatives is dissolved or expires by effluxion of time.

(6) That the committee may proceed to the dispatch of business notwithstanding that all members have not been duly nominated and appointed and notwithstanding any vacancy.

(7) That Senator Hinch be appointed as chair of the committee and the committee elect as deputy chair a member or senator nominated by the Opposition.
(8) That the deputy chair shall act as chair of the committee at any time when the chair is not present at a meeting of the committee, and at any time when the chair and deputy chair are not present at a meeting of the committee the members present shall elect another member to act as chair at that meeting.

(9) That the committee have power to send for and examine persons and documents, to move from place to place, to sit in public or in private, notwithstanding any prorogation of the Parliament or dissolution of the House of Representatives, and have leave to report from time to time its proceedings and the evidence taken and such interim recommendations as it may deem fit.

(10) That the committee be provided with all necessary staff, facilities and resources and be empowered to appoint persons with specialist knowledge for the purposes of the committee with the approval of the President.

(11) That the committee be empowered to print from day to day such papers and evidence as may be ordered by it, and a daily Hansard be published of such proceedings as take place in public.

(13) That the provisions of this resolution, so far as they are inconsistent with the standing orders, have effect notwithstanding anything contained in the standing orders.

(14) That a message be sent to the House of Representatives seeking its concurrence in this resolution.

*270 Senator Lambie: To move—That, given the success of the trial of the Cashless Debit Card (CDC) in Ceduna, South Australia and the East Kimberley, Western Australia, the Senate—

(a) notes that, based on the Cashless Debit Card Trial Evaluation Wave 1 Interim Evaluation Report:

(i) of the 66 per cent of CDC participants who reported drinking, gambling or taking drugs before or during the trial, 33 per cent reported a reduction in at least one of these behaviours,

(ii) 31 per cent of participants indicated they had been able to save more money,

(iii) 31 per cent indicated they could care for children better,

(iv) 31 per cent logged an improvement in technology use,

(v) 46 per cent of non-participants said life in the community was better; only 18 per cent disagreed,

(vi) only 6 per cent of all participants explicitly raised stigma or shame associated with the CDC as an issue, and

(vii) community leaders/stakeholders generally responded that they had seen an increase (between 32-56 per cent) in the ability to afford basic household goods, ability to pay bills, nutrition and health and wellbeing;

(b) further notes that:

(i) it is common for adolescents to begin drinking alcohol at 14-15 years of age with the behaviour increasing as they get older with its ability to impair judgement and coordination, and excessive drinking contributes to crime, violence, anti-social behaviours and accidents,

(ii) adolescence is often characterised by rapid physical and psychological transition, experimentation and risk-taking behaviour, including illicit drug use causing both short and long-term mental and physical health problems – those who participate in early drug use are more likely to continue with future illicit and problematic drug use, and

(iii) Australia-wide, 17 year olds and under are learning to become productive members of our community, so introducing the CDC to this age group and breaking the cycle on addictive habits would be beneficial into the future for their own development and the communities they live in; and

(c) calls on the Government to support the inclusion in the upcoming Budget for a further rollout of the CDC for all persons 17 years of age and under who are on ABSTUDY (Living Allowance), Assistance for Isolated Children, Carer Payment, Disability Support Pension, Parenting Payment Partnered, Parenting Payment Single, Special Benefit, Youth Allowance (apprentice), Youth Allowance (other), Youth Allowance (student) across Australia on 1 January 2018.

*271 Senator Ludlam: To move—That the Senate—

(a) notes:

(i) that the F-35 Joint Strike Fighter (JSF) cannot turn, cannot climb, cannot run and cannot fight according to multiple reports from defence experts, and

(ii) an article in The Australian on 22 March 2017, which added to the litany of things the JSF cannot do, by confirming that it would not carry cluster munitions and therefore “would struggle to hit a moderately slow moving target such as a car”;

(b) welcomes:

(i) the decision not to equip the JSF with an inhumane and internationally-banned weapon, and

(ii) the fact that the JSF is therefore less capable of killing people;

(c) notes that, in spite of this welcome news, the JSF remains a $17 billion waste of taxpayer money; and

(d) urges the Government not to proceed with such a profligate and unnecessary waste.
