3 Schedule(s)

Each Act that is specified in a Schedule to this Act is amended or repealed as set out in the applicable items in the Schedule concerned, and any other item in a Schedule to this Act has effect according to its terms.
Schedule 1—Transitional provisions

Part 1—General

1 Definitions

(1) In this Schedule:

- commencement means the commencement of this item.
- repealed provision means a provision of the WR Act repealed by this Act.
- WR Act means the Workplace Relations Act 1996.

(2) If a provision of the WR Act, as in force immediately before commencement, and a provision of the RAO Act have substantially the same effect, each provision is, in relation to the other, a corresponding provision.

(3) An expression used in this Schedule and in the RAO Act has the same meaning in this Schedule as it has in that Act.

2 Orders etc. continue in force

An authorisation, certificate, decision, declaration, determination, direction, exemption, injunction, order, notice or permission that:

- (a) was made, given or granted under a repealed provision; and
- (b) was in force immediately before commencement;

continues in force on and after commencement as if it had been made, given or granted under the corresponding provision of the RAO Act.

3 Certain obligations continue

If:

- (a) a person or body had an obligation imposed under a repealed provision to do an act or thing for a specified period, or within a specified period; and
- (b) immediately before commencement, that period had not ended; the provision continues to operate in relation to the obligation of the person or body as if it had not been repealed.

4 Terms of office continue

If:

(a) a person was elected to an office under a repealed provision; and
(b) immediately before commencement, the term of office for which the person was elected had not ended;

the person continues to hold office, subject to the RAO Act, for the remainder of the term for which the person was elected.

5 Proceedings etc. commenced under WR Act continue under WR Act

(1) If, immediately before commencement, a proceeding (whether or not initiated by an application) in a matter arising under a repealed provision was pending in a court, the WR Act continues to apply in relation to the proceeding as if the amendments made by this Act had not been made.

(2) If, immediately before commencement, a proceeding (whether or not initiated by an application) before the Commission in a matter arising under a repealed provision has not been completed, the WR Act continues to apply in relation to the proceeding as if the amendments made by this Act had not been made.

(3) If, immediately before commencement, a matter (whether or not initiated by an application) under a repealed provision is before an Industrial Registrar, the WR Act continues to apply in relation to the matter as if the amendments made by this Act had not been made.

(4) If, in relation to the proceeding or matter mentioned in subitem (1), (2) or (3), the court, Commission or Industrial Registrar makes an order on or after commencement, the order is taken to have been made under the corresponding provision of the RAO Act and not under the repealed provision, under which (apart from this subitem) the order would have been made.
Schedule 1  Transitional provisions

Part 1  General

(5) If a penalty is imposed as a result of the order, the penalty is the penalty applicable under the WR Act as in force immediately before commencement and not the penalty applicable under the RAO Act.

(6) In this item:

make includes give or grant.

order includes authorisation, certificate, decision, declaration, determination, direction, exemption, injunction, notice or permission.

6  Pre-commencement WR Act continues for transitional purposes

If a repealed provision is continued in operation after commencement by this Act:

(a) any other provisions of the WR Act that are necessary for the effective operation and enforcement of the repealed provision; and

(b) any provisions of regulations made under provisions mentioned in paragraph (a) that are necessary for the effective operation and enforcement of the repealed provision;

continue to operate as if the amendments made by this Act had not been made.

7  RAO Act regulations may extend to transitional applications etc.

In section 359 of the RAO Act, references to applications and proceedings under that Act include references to applications and proceedings that are to be dealt with or completed under that Act because of this Act.

8  Power of President of the Commission to resolve difficulties

If a difficulty arises in the application of this Act to a particular proceeding or matter before the Commission or the Industrial Registrar, the President of the Commission may, subject to any order made by the Federal Court of Australia under item 9, give directions not inconsistent with the RAO Act to resolve the difficulty.

9  Power of Federal Court of Australia to resolve difficulties

8  Workplace Relations (Registration and Accountability of Organisations) (Consequential Provisions) Bill 2002  No. , 2002
(1) If a difficulty arises in:
   (a) the application of this Act in relation to a particular matter; or
   (b) the application, in relation to a particular matter, of a provision of the RAO Act because of the operation of this Act;

the Federal Court of Australia may, on the application of an interested person, make any order it considers proper to resolve the difficulty.

(2) An order made under subitem (1) has effect in spite of anything contained in this Act, in the RAO Act or in any Act in force immediately before commencement.

(3) The Federal Court of Australia has jurisdiction with respect to matters arising under this Act in relation to which applications may be made to it under subitem (1).

10 General rules are subject to specific rules

This Part has effect subject to the following Parts of this Schedule.
Part 2—Registered organisations

11 Register of organisations

The register of organisations required to be kept by the Industrial Registry under paragraph 63(1)(a) of the WR Act as in force immediately before commencement is taken to be the register of organisations required to be kept by the Industrial Registry under paragraph 13(1)(a) of the RAO Act.

12 Applications for registration

If an application for registration as an organisation was made but not determined under the WR Act before commencement, the application is to be determined under the WR Act as if the amendments made by this Act had not been made.

13 Acts or omissions relevant to prohibited conduct

In sections 21 and 22 of the RAO Act:
(a) references to acts done or omitted under that Act include references to acts done or omitted under the WR Act; and
(b) references in those sections to section 18 of the RAO Act include references to the corresponding provision of the WR Act.

14 Correction of errors in rules of association applying for registration

If an application for registration as an organisation had been made but not determined under the WR Act before commencement, the Commission may grant leave to the applicant association under paragraph 25(1)(c) of the RAO Act, despite item 12.

15 Registration as an organisation continues

(1) A body that was an organisation under the WR Act immediately before commencement is taken to have been registered under section 19 or 20 of the RAO Act (as the case requires).

(2) Subject to this Schedule, the operation of subitem (1) in relation to an organisation does not otherwise affect the organisation or the operation of the WR Act (as in force after commencement) in relation to it.
(3) If:
(a) an organisation is taken to be registered under the RAO Act because of the operation of subitem (1); and
(b) immediately before commencement, an undertaking given by the organisation under subsection 189(2) of the WR Act was in force;
the undertaking is, after commencement, taken to have been given under subsection 19(2) of the RAO Act.

(4) In subsection 26(6) of the RAO Act:
(a) the reference to a certificate of registration issued under subsection (4) of that section includes a reference to a certificate issued under subsection 191(4) of the WR Act as in force immediately before commencement; and
(b) the reference to a certificate as amended under section 160 of the RAO Act includes a reference to a certificate as amended under section 206 of the WR Act as in force immediately before commencement.

16 Representation orders
Subsection 133(2) of the RAO Act applies to the following orders:
(a) orders made by the Commission under subsection 133(1) of that Act on or after commencement;
(b) orders taken to have been made under that subsection because of item 2 or item 5.

17 Applications for amalgamation
If an application for approval for the submission of an amalgamation to ballot was made under section 242 of the WR Act but not determined before commencement, Division 7 of Part IX of the WR Act continues to apply in relation to the amalgamation as if the amendments made by this Act had not been made.

Note: This general rule is subject to some exceptions in relation to particular aspects of amalgamation proceedings (see, for example, item 20 (ballots)).

18 Applications for recognition as a federation
(1) If an application for recognition as a federation was made under section 236 of the WR Act but not determined before commencement,
Schedule 1  Transitional provisions
Part 2  Registered organisations

the application is to be determined under the WR Act as if the amendments made by this Act had not been made.

(2) For the purposes of applying subitem (1), each reference in section 236 of the WR Act to section 242 of that Act includes a reference to section 44 of the RAO Act.

19  Applications for community of interest declaration

(1) If an application for a declaration was made under section 241 of the WR Act but not determined before commencement, the application is to be determined under the WR Act as if the amendments made by this Act had not been made.

(2) For the purposes of applying subitem (1), each reference in section 241 of the WR Act to section 242 of that Act includes a reference to section 44 of the RAO Act.

20  Amalgamation ballots approved after commencement

If, on or after commencement, the Commission approves the submission of an amalgamation to ballot and the ballot (the approved ballot) is, because of the operation of item 17, to be conducted under the WR Act:

(a) in addition to the requirements of the WR Act, subsections 65(6) and (7) of the RAO Act apply in relation to the approved ballot; and
(b) the reference in subsection 65(6) of the RAO Act to a ballot conducted under that section includes a reference to the approved ballot.

21  Withdrawal from amalgamation—application made before commencement etc.

(1) If an application for a ballot was made under section 253ZJ of the WR Act but not determined before commencement, Subdivision B of Division 7A of Part IX of the WR Act continues to apply in relation to:
(a) the application; and
(b) any ballot ordered by the Federal Court of Australia in granting the application;
as if the amendments made by this Act had not been made.
(2) However, if the application is granted, section 101, paragraph 102(2)(d) and subsection 102(3) of the RAO Act apply in relation to the ballot ordered by the Federal Court of Australia in granting the application.

22 Organisation not to penalise members in relation to withdrawal from amalgamation

(1) Section 131 of the RAO Act applies to amalgamated organisations and officers and members of such organisations in relation to any conduct of the organisation that occurs on or after commencement.

(2) For the purposes of applying subitem (1), the reference in subsection 131(1) of the RAO Act to section 130 of that Act includes a reference to section 253ZX of the WR Act as in force immediately before commencement.

23 Withdrawal from amalgamation—application made after commencement

For the purposes of applying Part 3 of Chapter 3 of the RAO Act to an organisation that became an amalgamated organisation under the WR Act, references in that Part to a provision or provisions of the RAO Act are taken to include references to the corresponding provision or provisions of the WR Act.

24 Grounds for deregistration

(1) An application under the RAO Act for cancellation of the registration of an organisation may be made, in relation to conduct occurring before commencement, on the grounds set out in the following provisions of the RAO Act:

(a) paragraph 28(1)(a) (conduct preventing or hindering object of the WR Act);
(b) paragraph 28(1)(b) (industrial action interfering with trade or commerce etc.);
(c) paragraph 28(1)(c) (industrial action affecting community safety, health or welfare);
(d) paragraph 28(1)(d) (failure to comply with injunctions under section 127 or 187AD of the WR Act).

(2) For the purposes of applying paragraph (1)(a) of this item:
Schedule 1 Transitional provisions

Part 2 Registered organisations

1 (a) the reference in paragraph 28(1)(a) of the RAO Act to an object of the RAO Act is taken to be omitted; and 2 (b) a reference in paragraph 28(1)(a) of the RAO Act to the Workplace Relations Act is taken to be a reference to that Act as in force before commencement.
Part 3—Rules of organisations

25 Existing rules

Rules of a registered organisation that were in force immediately before commencement continue in force on and after commencement but may be altered under the RAO Act.

Note: For transitional provisions applying to rule changes that were in the process of being certified at commencement, see item 5.

26 New rule requirements

(1) This item applies only to the extent that it concerns alterations of rules of an organisation required to bring them into conformity with the RAO Act where:

(a) the organisation is taken to be registered under the RAO Act because of subitem 15(1); and

(b) the requirements (the new rule requirements) are provided for in the RAO Act but not in the WR Act (as in force immediately before commencement).

(2) The Industrial Registrar must not exercise the power conferred by subsection 156(1) of the RAO Act in relation to the new rule requirements until the end of the interim period.

Note: This means that the Industrial Registrar cannot alter an organisation’s rules to bring them into conformity with the RAO Act if the requirement for the particular rule is imposed by the RAO Act only and did not exist under the WR Act (as in force immediately before commencement).

(3) For the purposes of this item, the interim period is the period of:

(a) 6 months immediately after commencement; or

(b) in relation to an organisation that has been granted an extension by a Registrar—6 months immediately after commencement, extended by the period determined by the Registrar in granting the extension.

(4) If, within 6 months immediately after commencement, an organisation applies to a Registrar for an extension of the interim period beyond the period mentioned in paragraph (3)(a), the Registrar may extend the period in relation to the organisation. The period must not be extended by more than 6 months.
(5) In determining an application for an extension under subitem (4), the Registrar must take into account:
(a) the ability of the organisation to make the necessary changes to its rules within 6 months immediately after commencement; and
(b) any other matter the Registrar considers relevant.

27 Review of rules by Industrial Registrar

As soon as practicable after the end of the interim period applying to an organisation under item 26, the Industrial Registrar must review the rules of the organisation.

Note: If the Industrial Registrar finds that an organisation’s rules do not meet the requirements of the RAO Act, the Industrial Registrar may alter the rules to bring them into conformity with the Act (see section 156 of the RAO Act).

28 Rules relating to retirement age of office-holders

If, immediately before commencement, the rules of an organisation made provision as set out in paragraph 199(1)(b) of the WR Act, those rules:
(a) continue to apply to a person elected to a full-time office in an election for which nominations were called before commencement; and
(b) do not apply to a person elected in an election for which nominations were called on or after commencement.

Note: Although the rules relating to retirement age may have some continuing application under this item, they must still be removed from the organisation’s rules during the interim period applying to it under item 26 in order for the rules to conform with section 145 of the RAO Act.

29 Membership agreements between organisation and State union

(1) An agreement that was made under section 202 of the WR Act and was in force immediately before commencement continues in force after commencement as if it had been made under Subdivision B of Division 4 of Part 2 of Chapter 5 of the RAO Act.

(2) If a copy of an agreement made under section 202 of the WR Act was lodged in the Industrial Registry but had not come into force before commencement, the WR Act continues to apply in relation to the agreement as if the amendments made by this Act had not been made.
(3) If a copy of an agreement to terminate made under subsection 202(11) of the WR Act was lodged in the Industrial Registry but had not taken effect before commencement, the WR Act continues to apply in relation to the agreement as if the amendments made by this Act had not been made.

30 Certain alterations of rules to be recorded

If, under the WR Act:

(a) there was a change in the name of an organisation or an alteration of the eligibility rules of an organisation; and

(b) the Industrial Registrar had not taken the actions required under section 206 of that Act before commencement in relation to the change or alteration;

section 160 of the RAO Act applies in relation to the change or alteration as if the change or alteration had occurred on or after commencement.

31 Evidence of rules

In section 161 of the RAO Act, the reference to a copy of the rules of an organisation certified by a Registrar includes a reference to a copy certified by a Registrar under the WR Act.
Part 4—Membership of organisations

32 Resignation from membership

If a member of an organisation gave notice of resignation from membership under section 264 of the WR Act but the notice did not take effect before commencement, section 264 of the WR Act continues to apply in relation to the resignation, and to any outstanding dues of the member, as if the amendments made by this Act had not been made.

33 Recovery of arrears

(1) Section 178 of the RAO Act applies only to amounts that become payable on or after the commencement of that section.

(2) Sections 264A and 265 of the WR Act continue to apply to amounts that became payable before commencement as if the amendments made by this Act had not been made.
Part 5—Democratic control

34 Elections for offices

(1) Subject to item 38, the RAO Act (except section 188) applies in relation to each step (including the calling of nominations) started on or after commencement relating to an election for an office in an organisation, or a branch of an organisation, that is required to be conducted by the Australian Electoral Commission.

(2) The WR Act as in force immediately before commencement continues to apply in relation to each step (including the calling of nominations) started but not completed before commencement relating to an election for an office in an organisation, or a branch of an organisation, that is required to be conducted by the Australian Electoral Commission.

35 Elections completed before commencement

The WR Act as in force immediately before commencement continues to apply in relation to:

(a) elections held under that Act that were completed before commencement; and

(b) inquiries into those elections.

36 Inquiries into elections

(1) To avoid doubt, the Electoral Commissioner must make an application under subsection 200(2) of the RAO Act for an inquiry by the Federal Court of Australia into an irregularity in relation to an election for an office if at least one step in relation to the election started on or after commencement even if the irregularity concerned conduct relating to a step started before commencement.

(2) To avoid doubt, the Electoral Commissioner may make an application under subsection 200(3) of the RAO Act for an inquiry by the Federal Court of Australia into an irregularity in relation to an election for an office if at least one step in relation to the election started on or after commencement even if the irregularity concerned conduct relating to a step that started before commencement.

37 Action after inquiries into elections
(1) If, after an inquiry into an election where the inquiry was conducted under Division 5 of Part IX of the WR Act because of item 35, the Federal Court of Australia orders a new election to be held, the RAO Act applies to the new election.

(2) If, after an inquiry into an election where the inquiry was conducted under Division 5 of Part IX of the WR Act because of item 35, the Federal Court of Australia makes an order other than an order that a new election be held, the RAO Act applies to the action the subject of the order.

38 Post election report by Australian Electoral Commission
