(b) the proved infringement involved a communication of a work or other subject-matter to the public; and

(b) may be recovered by an action taken in a court of competent jurisdiction.

(a) is a debt due by the objector, or by the objectors jointly or each of them separately, to the Commonwealth; and

43C Reproducing works in books, newspapers and periodical publications in different form for private use

(1) This section applies if:

(a) the owner of a book, newspaper or periodical publication makes from it a reproduction (the main copy) of a work contained in the book, newspaper or periodical publication; and

(b) the main copy is made for his or her private and domestic use instead of the work as contained in the book, newspaper or periodical publication; and

(c) the main copy embodies the work in a form different from the form in which the work is embodied in the book, newspaper or periodical publication; and

(d) the book, newspaper or periodical publication itself is not an infringing copy of either the work or a published edition of the work; and

(e) at the time the owner makes the main copy, he or she has not made, and is not making, another copy that embodies the work in a form substantially identical to the form of the main copy.

For this purpose, disregard a temporary reproduction of the work incidentally made as a necessary part of the technical process of making the main copy.

(2) The making of the main copy is not an infringement of copyright in the work or a published edition of the work.

Dealing with main copy may make it an infringing copy

(3) Subsection (2) is taken never to have applied if the main copy is:

Note: If the main copy is dealt with as described in subsection (3), then copyright may be infringed not only by the making of the main copy but also by the dealing with the main copy.

(4) To avoid doubt, paragraph (3)(d) does not apply to a loan of the main copy by the lender to a member of the lender’s family or household for the member’s private and domestic use.

Reproducing work from main copy may infringe copyright

(5) Subsection (2) does not prevent the main copy from being an infringing copy for the purpose of working out whether this section applies again in relation to the making of another reproduction of the work from the main copy.

Disposal of book etc. may make the main copy an infringing copy

(6) Subsection (2) is taken never to have applied if the owner of the book, newspaper or periodical publication disposes of it (in the form from which the main copy was made) to another person.

Status of temporary reproduction

(7) If subsection (2) applies to the making of the main copy only as a result of disregarding the incidental making of a temporary reproduction of the work as a necessary part of the technical process of making the main copy, then:

(a) if the temporary reproduction is destroyed at the first practicable time during or after the making of the main copy—the making of the temporary reproduction does not infringe copyright in the work or a published edition of the work; or

(b) if the temporary reproduction is not destroyed at that time—the making of the temporary reproduction is taken always to have infringed copyright (if any) subsisting in the work and the published edition of the work from which the main copy was made.

Division 4B—Acts not constituting infringements of copyright in artistic works

47J Reproducing photograph in different format for private use

(1) This section applies if:
   (a) the owner of a photograph (the original photograph) makes a reproduction (the main copy) of it for his or her private and domestic use instead of the original photograph; and
   (b) the original photograph itself is not an infringing copy of a work or published edition of a work; and
   (c) either:
      (i) the original photograph is in hardcopy form and the main copy is in electronic form; or
      (ii) the original photograph is in electronic form and the main copy is in hardcopy form; and
   (d) at the time the owner makes the main copy, he or she has not made, and is not making, another reproduction of the original photograph that embodies the original photograph in a form substantially identical to the form of the main copy.

   For this purpose, disregard a temporary reproduction of the original photograph incidentally made as a necessary part of the technical process of making the main copy.

(2) The making of the main copy is not an infringement of copyright:
   (a) in the original photograph; or
   (b) in a work, or published edition of a work, included in the original photograph.

Dealing with main copy may make it an infringing copy

(e) at the time the owner makes the main copy, he or she has not made, and is not making, another copy that embodies sounds in a format substantially identical to the format in which they are embodied in the main copy.

Status of temporary copy

(7) If subsection (2) applies to the making of the main copy only as a result of disregarding the incidental making of a temporary copy of the sound recording as a necessary part of the technical process of making the main copy, then:

(b) the videotape itself is not an infringing copy of the film or of a broadcast, sound recording, work or published edition of a work; and

200AB  Use of works and other subject-matter for certain purposes

(1) The copyright in a work or other subject-matter is not infringed by a use of the work or other subject-matter if all the following conditions exist:

(a) the circumstances of the use (including those described in paragraphs (b), (c) and (d)) amount to a special case;
(b) the use is covered by subsection (2), (3), (4) or (5);
(c) the use does not conflict with a normal exploitation of the work or other subject-matter;
(d) the use does not unreasonably prejudice the legitimate interests of the owner of the copyright or a person licensed by the owner of the copyright.

Use by body administering library or archives

(2) This subsection covers a use that:

(a) is made by or on behalf of the body administering a library or archives; and
(b) is made for the purpose of maintaining or operating the library or archives (including operating the library or archives to provide services of a kind usually provided by a library or archives); and
(c) is not made partly for the purpose of the body obtaining a commercial advantage.

Use by body administering educational institution

(3) This subsection covers a use that:

(a) is made by or on behalf of a body administering an educational institution; and
(b) is made for the purpose of giving educational instruction; and
(c) is not made partly for the purpose of the body obtaining a commercial advantage.

Use by or for person with a disability

(4) This subsection covers a use that meets all the following conditions:
   (a) the use is made by:
      (i) a person with a disability that causes difficulty in reading, viewing or hearing the work or other subject-matter in a particular form; or
      (ii) someone else;
   (b) the use is made for the purpose of the person obtaining a reproduction or copy of the work or other subject-matter in another form, or with a feature, that reduces the difficulty;
   (c) the use is not made partly for the purpose of obtaining a commercial advantage.

Use for parody or satire

(5) This subsection covers a use for the purpose of parody or satire.

This section does not apply if under another provision the use does not, or might not, infringe copyright

(6) Subsection (1) does not apply if, because of another provision of this Act:
   (a) the use is not an infringement of copyright; or
   (b) the use would not be an infringement of copyright assuming the conditions or requirements of that other provision were met.

Example 1: Paragraph (a)—Without using an appliance adapted for producing multiple copies or an appliance that can produce copies by reprographic reproduction, a school teacher reproduces a literary work in the course of educational instruction. Under subsection 200(1), the reproduction is not an infringement of copyright in the work, so this section does not apply.

Example 2: Paragraph (b)—A body administering an institution assisting persons with a print disability makes a Braille version of a published literary work. Under subsection 135ZP(2), making such a version does not infringe copyright in the work if certain conditions (relating to remuneration etc.) are met, so this section does not apply.

Part 1 Main amendments

202A Groundless threats of legal proceedings in relation to technological protection measures

(1) If a person (the first person) threatens another person with an action under Subdivision A of Division 2A of Part V, a person aggrieved may bring an action against the first person.

Note: Subdivision A of Division 2A of Part V establishes causes of action that relate to circumventing an access control technological protection measure (section 116AN), manufacturing etc. a circumvention device for a technological protection measure (section 116AO) and providing etc. a circumvention service for a technological protection measure (section 116AP).

(2) An action may be brought under this section whether or not the first person is the owner or exclusive licensee of the copyright in the work or other subject-matter to which the threatened action relates.

(3) The mere notification that a work or other subject-matter is protected by a technological protection measure does not constitute a threat of an action within the meaning of this section.

(4) In an action under this section, the orders a court may make include the following:

(a) an order declaring that the threat is unjustifiable;

(b) an order granting an injunction restraining the first person from continuing to make the threat;

(c) an order awarding such damages (if any) for loss that the person aggrieved has suffered as a result of the making of the threat.

(5) The court must not make an order under subsection (4) if the first person satisfies the court that an action under Subdivision A of Division 2A of Part V has reasonable prospects of success.

(6) Nothing in this section renders a barrister or solicitor of the High Court, or of the Supreme Court of a State or Territory, liable to an action under this section in respect of an act done in his or her professional capacity on behalf of a client.

(7) If an action under this section is brought:

(a) the first person may apply, by way of counterclaim, for relief to which he or she would be entitled in an action under Subdivision A of Division 2A of Part V; and
(b) the provisions of Part V apply as if the counterclaim were an action brought by the first person under that Subdivision.

Note: The heading to section 202 is altered by adding at the end “in relation to copyright infringement”.

14 Section 249

Before “The Governor-General”, insert “(1)”.

Note: The following heading to subsection 249(1) is inserted “General regulation-making power”.

15 At the end of section 249

Add:

Regulations in relation to technological protection measures

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the Governor-General may make regulations prescribing the doing of an act by a person for the purposes of subsections 116AN(9) and 132APC(9).

Note: For prescription of acts and persons by class, see subsection 13(3) of the Legislative Instruments Act 2003.

(3) However, the Governor-General must not make a regulation prescribing the doing of an act by a person unless the Minister makes a recommendation to prescribe the doing of the act by the person.

(4) The Minister may only make a recommendation to prescribe the doing of an act by a person if:

(a) a submission has been made (whether before or after the commencement of this section) to prescribe the doing of the act by the person; and

(b) the doing of the act by the person will not infringe the copyright in a work or other subject-matter; and

(c) the doing of the act by the person is in relation to a particular class of works or other subject-matter; and

(d) an actual or likely adverse impact on the doing of the act by the person has been credibly demonstrated; and

(e) the adequacy of the protection and the effectiveness of the remedies provided by Subdivision A of Division 2A of Part V and Subdivision E of Division 5 of Part V would not be impaired if the doing of the act by the person were prescribed.

Note: For the purposes of paragraph (a), it is not necessary for the person who made the submission to be the person in relation to whom the act is prescribed.

(5) If a submission has been made to prescribe the doing of an act by a person, the Minister must make a decision whether to recommend the prescription of the doing of the act by the person as soon as practicable after receiving the submission, but in any case, within 4 years of receiving it.

(6) The Governor-General may make regulations varying or revoking regulations made under subsection (2).

(7) However, the Governor-General must not make a regulation varying or revoking a regulation made under subsection (2) unless the Minister makes a recommendation to vary or revoke the regulation.

(8) The Minister may make a recommendation to vary or revoke a regulation made under subsection (2) only if:
   (a) a submission has been made to vary or revoke the regulation; and
   (b) an actual or likely adverse impact on the doing of the act by the person that is the subject of the regulation can no longer be credibly demonstrated; and
   (c) the adequacy of the protection and the effectiveness of the remedies provided by Subdivision A of Division 2A of Part V and Subdivision E of Division 5 of Part V would be impaired if the regulation were not varied or revoked.

(9) If a submission has been made to vary or revoke a regulation made under subsection (2), the Minister must make a decision whether to recommend the variation or revocation of the regulation as soon as practicable after receiving the submission, but in any case, within 4 years of receiving it.
