8AA Telephone betting service
(1) For the purposes of this Act, a telephone betting service is a gambling service, where:
(a) the service is provided on the basis that dealings with customers are wholly by way of voice calls made using a carriage service; and
(b) the conditions (if any) determined under subsection (2) have been satisfied.

(2) The Minister may, by legislative instrument, determine one or more conditions for the purposes of paragraph (1)(b).

(3) For the purposes of this section, voice call means:
(a) a voice call (within the ordinary meaning of that expression) the content of which consists wholly of a spoken conversation between individuals; or
(b) if a call covered by paragraph (a) is not practical for a particular customer with a disability (for example, because the customer has a hearing impairment)—a call that is equivalent to a call covered by that paragraph.

(4) The following are examples of calls that are not covered by paragraph (3)(a):

   (a) a call the content of which includes a recorded or synthetic voice;

   (b) a call the content of which includes one or more tone signals.

(5) Paragraph (3)(a) and subsection (4) have effect subject to subsections (6) and (7).

(6) For the purposes of this section, in determining whether a call is covered by paragraph (3)(a), disregard any recorded or synthetic voice used for either or both of the following purposes:

   (a) call waiting;

   (b) a menu system for transferring callers to an extension.

(7) For the purposes of this section, in determining whether a call is covered by paragraph (3)(a), disregard any tone signal used for the sole purpose of a menu system for transferring callers to an extension.

(8) Despite subsection (1), if a gambling service is provided on the basis that any or all of the following information can be provided by a customer otherwise than by way of a voice call:

   (a) a selection of a bet;

   (b) a selection of a bet type;

   (c) a nomination of a bet amount;

   (d) a confirmation of a bet;

   (e) information of a kind determined under subsection (9); the service is not a telephone betting service for the purposes of this Act.

(9) The Minister may, by legislative instrument, determine one or more kinds of information for the purposes of paragraph (8)(e).

26 Section 8A

Repeal the section, substitute:
8A Excluded wagering service

Racing

(1) For the purposes of this Act, a service is an excluded wagering service to the extent to which the service relates to betting on, or on a series of, any or all of the following:
   (a) a horse race;
   (b) a harness race;
   (c) a greyhound race;
   so long as the other conditions (if any) determined under subsection (2) have been satisfied.

(2) The Minister may, by legislative instrument, determine one or more conditions for the purposes of subsection (1).

Sporting events

(3) For the purposes of this Act, a service is an excluded wagering service:
   (a) to the extent to which the service relates to betting on, or on a series of, sporting events; and
   (b) to the extent to which the service is not an in-play betting service;
   so long as the other conditions (if any) determined under subsection (4) have been satisfied.

(4) The Minister may, by legislative instrument, determine one or more conditions for the purposes of subsection (3).

Other events or contingencies

(5) For the purposes of this Act, a service is an excluded wagering service:
   (a) to the extent to which the service relates to betting on:
      (i) an event; or
      (ii) a series of events; or
      (iii) a contingency;
      that is not covered by subsection (1) or (3); and
   (b) to the extent to which the service is not an in-play betting service; and
(c) to the extent to which the service is not covered by any of the following subparagraphs:
   (i) a service for the conduct of a scratch lottery or other instant lottery;
   (ii) a service for the supply of tickets in a scratch lottery or other instant lottery;
   (iii) a service relating to betting on the outcome of a scratch lottery or other instant lottery;
   (iv) a service for the conduct of a game covered by paragraph (e) of the definition of gambling service in section 4;
   (v) a service relating to betting on the outcome of a game of chance or of mixed chance and skill;

so long as the other conditions (if any) determined under subsection (6) have been satisfied.

(6) The Minister may, by legislative instrument, determine one or more conditions for the purposes of subsection (5).

(7) For the purposes of paragraph (5)(a):
   (a) assume that no conditions have been determined under subsection (2) or (4); and
   (b) disregard paragraph (3)(b).

27 Section 8B

Repeal the section, substitute:

8B Excluded gaming service

(1) For the purposes of this Act, an excluded gaming service is a service for the conduct of a game covered by paragraph (e) of the definition of gambling service in section 4:
   (a) to the extent to which the service is provided to customers who are at a particular place; and
   (b) to the extent to which the service is provided on the basis that:
      (i) dealings with customers involve the use of electronic equipment made available to customers at that place; and
(ii) the electronic equipment is available for use by any customer who is at that place;

so long as:

(c) the provider of the service holds a licence (however described) under a law of a State or Territory that authorises the provision of the service at that place; and

(d) the other conditions (if any) determined under subsection (2) have been satisfied.

(2) The Minister may, by legislative instrument, determine one or more conditions for the purposes of paragraph (1)(d).

8BA Place-based betting service

(1) For the purposes of this Act, a place-based betting service is a service covered by paragraph (a) or (b) of the definition of gambling service in section 4:

(a) to the extent to which the service is provided to customers who are at a particular place; and

(b) to the extent to which the service is provided on the basis that:

(i) dealings with customers involve the use of electronic equipment made available to customers at that place; and

(ii) the electronic equipment is available for use by any customer who is at that place; and

(iii) the electronic equipment is not available for use by customers in connection with another gambling service unless the other gambling service is provided by the provider of the first-mentioned service;

so long as:

(c) the provider of the service holds a licence (however described) under a law of a State or Territory that authorises the provision of the service at that place; and

(d) the other conditions (if any) determined under subsection (2) have been satisfied.

(2) The Minister may, by legislative instrument, determine one or more conditions for the purposes of paragraph (1)(d).
8BB Trade promotion gambling service

(1) For the purposes of this Act, a trade promotion gambling service is:
   (a) a service for the conduct of a lottery, where the lottery is conducted in connection with a competition for the promotion of trade; or
   (b) a service for the conduct of a game of chance or of mixed chance and skill, where the game is conducted in connection with a competition for the promotion of trade; so long as the other conditions (if any) determined under subsection (2) have been satisfied.

(2) The Minister may, by legislative instrument, determine one or more conditions for the purposes of subsection (1).

(3) For the purposes of this section, trade does not include the provision of a gambling service.

28 After section 8D

Insert:

8E Regulated interactive gambling service

(1) For the purposes of this Act, a regulated interactive gambling service is:
   (a) a telephone betting service (see section 8AA); or
   (b) an excluded wagering service (see section 8A); or
   (c) an excluded gaming service (see section 8B); or
   (d) a place-based betting service (see section 8BA); or
   (e) a service that has a designated broadcasting link (see section 8C); or
   (f) a service that has a designated datacasting link (see section 8C); or
   (g) an excluded lottery service (see section 8D); or
   (h) an exempt service (see section 10);

where:
   (i) the service is provided in the course of carrying on a business; and
Schedule 1 Amendments

Part 1 Amendments

(j) the service is provided to customers using any of the

   (i) an internet carriage service;
   (ii) any other listed carriage service;
   (iii) a broadcasting service;
   (iv) any other content service;
   (v) a datacasting service; and
(k) in the case of an exempt service—a determination under subsection (2) is in force in relation to the service.

(2) The Minister may, by legislative instrument, determine that each exempt service included in a specified class of exempt services is covered by paragraph (1)(k).

(3) Subsection (1) has effect subject to subsection (4).

(4) For the purposes of this Act, neither of the following services is a regulated interactive gambling service:
   (a) a wholesale gambling service;
   (b) a trade promotion gambling service (see section 8BB).

8F Prohibited internet gambling content

For the purposes of this Act, if:
   (a) an ordinary reasonable person would conclude that the sole or primary purpose of particular internet content is to enable a person to enter into dealings in the capacity of customer of either or both of the following:
      (i) one or more illegal interactive gambling services;
      (ii) one or more unlicensed regulated interactive gambling services; and
   (b) end-users in Australia can access the internet content;
the internet content is prohibited internet gambling content.

29 Paragraph 9A(3)(b)

Repeal the paragraph, substitute:
   (b) there is in force in that country legislation that corresponds to:
      (i) section 15; or
Amendments Schedule 1
Amendments Part 1

(ii) section 15 (other than the offence provision in that section); or
(iii) section 15 (other than the civil penalty provision in that section).

15AA Unlicensed regulated interactive gambling services not to be provided to customers in Australia

(1) A person commits an offence if:

   (a) the person intentionally provides a particular kind of regulated interactive gambling service; and
   (b) the service has an Australian-customer link (see section 8); and
   (c) the person does not hold a licence (however described) under a law of a State or Territory that authorises the provision of that kind of service in the State or Territory.

Penalty: 5,000 penalty units.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits a separate offence in respect of each day (including a day of conviction for the offence or any later day) during which the contravention continues.

(3) A person must not provide a particular kind of regulated interactive gambling service if:
(a) the service has an Australian-customer link (see section 8); and
(b) the person does not hold a licence (however described) under a law of a State or Territory that authorises the provision of that kind of service in the State or Territory.

Civil penalty: 7,500 penalty units.

(4) A person who contravenes subsection (3) commits a separate contravention of that provision in respect of each day during which the contravention occurs (including the day the relevant civil penalty order is made or any later day).

(5) Subsections (1) and (3) do not apply if the person:
(a) did not know; and
(b) could not, with reasonable diligence, have ascertained;
that the service had an Australian-customer link.

Note: In the case of proceedings for an offence against subsection (1), the defendant bears an evidential burden in relation to the matters in subsection (5) (see subsection 13.3(3) of the Criminal Code).

(6) For the purposes of subsection (5), in determining whether the person could, with reasonable diligence, have ascertained that the service had an Australian-customer link, the following matters are to be taken into account:
(a) whether prospective customers were informed that Australian law prohibits the provision of the service to customers who are physically present in Australia;
(b) whether customers were required to enter into contracts that were subject to an express condition that the customer was not to use the service if the customer was physically present in Australia;
(c) whether the person required customers to provide personal details and, if so, whether those details suggested that the customer was not physically present in Australia;
(d) whether the person has network data that indicates that customers were physically present outside Australia:
   (i) when the relevant customer account was opened; and
   (ii) throughout the period when the service was provided to the customer;
(e) any other relevant matters.
(7) If a person holds a licence (however described) under a law of a State or Territory that authorises the provision of a particular kind of regulated interactive gambling service in the State or Territory, the person does not contravene subsection (1) or (3) by providing that kind of service:
   (a) in the State or Territory; or
   (b) outside the State or Territory.

(8) Subsection (7) is enacted for the avoidance of doubt.

(9) Section 15.4 of the Criminal Code (extended geographical jurisdiction—category D) applies to an offence against subsection (1).

40 Part 2A (heading)
Repeal the heading, substitute:

Part 2A—Australian-based prohibited interactive gambling services not to be provided to customers in designated countries

41 Section 15A (heading)

(a) the names of eligible regulated interactive gambling services; and

(b) if the name of an eligible regulated interactive gambling service is included in the register:

(i) the name of the provider of the service; and

(ii) such other information relating to the service as the ACMA considers should be included in the register.

(2) Subparagraph (1)(b)(ii) does not authorise the inclusion of personal information in the register.

(3) The register is to be maintained by electronic means.

(4) The register is to be made available for inspection on the ACMA’s website.

(5) The register is not a legislative instrument.

Liability for damages

(6) The Commonwealth, the ACMA, or an ACMA official, is not liable to an action or other proceeding for damages for, or in relation to, an act or matter in good faith done or omitted to be done:
(a) in the performance or purported performance of any function;
or
(b) in the exercise or purported exercise of any power;
conferred on the ACMA by this section.

Review of decisions

(7) Applications may be made to the Administrative Appeals Tribunal for review of a decision of the ACMA not to include the name of an eligible regulated interactive gambling service in the register.

Eligible regulated interactive gambling service

(8) For the purposes of this section, an eligible regulated interactive gambling service is a regulated interactive gambling service that is:
(a) covered by paragraph (a) or (b) of the definition of gambling service in section 4; and
(b) not provided in contravention of subsection 15AA(3).

Despite the amendments of the following provisions of the Interactive Gambling Act 2001 made by this Schedule:

(a) Part 1;
(b) Division 1 of Part 3;
(c) Division 2 of Part 3;

that Act continues to apply, in relation to an investigation under Division 2 of Part 3 of that Act that began before the commencement of this item, as if those amendments had not been made.

148 Transitional—industry code

Scope

(1) This item applies to an industry code if:

(a) the code is registered under Part 4 of the Interactive Gambling Act 2001; and
(b) the registration was in force immediately before the commencement of this item.

Interpretation of code

(2) Section 10 of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901 applies to the code as if it were an Act.

Note 1: Section 10 of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901 deals with references to Acts.

Note 2: See also item 8 of Schedule 4 to the Australian Communications and Media Authority (Consequential and Transitional Provisions) Act 2005, which deals with references to the ABA.

Effect of code

(3) The code has effect as if the words “hosted outside Australia” were omitted from the headings to Part 5 and clause 5.1 of the code.
Schedule 1 Amendments

Part 2 Application and transitional provisions

Replacement of code

(4) This item does not, by implication, prevent the code from being replaced in accordance with section 41 of the Interactive Gambling Act 2001.

Application of amendment—reports to Parliament

Despite the repeal of section 61FE of the Interactive Gambling Act 2001 by this Schedule, that section continues to apply, in relation to any contraventions of Part 7A of that Act that occurred during the 12-month period ending at the end of 31 December 2015, as if that repeal had not happened.
