Schedule 1—Firearms trafficking

Criminal Code Act 1995

1 Subsections 360.2(1) and (2) of the Criminal Code

Repeal the subsections, substitute:

Basic offence

(1) A person commits an offence if:

- (a) the person engages in conduct that constitutes an offence (the underlying offence) against a firearm law; and
- (b) the person does so in the course of trade or commerce:
 - (i) among the States; or
 - (ii) between a State and a Territory, or between 2 Territories; and
- (c) the primary element of the underlying offence involves:
 - (i) the disposal of a firearm or a firearm part by the person; or
 - (ii) the acquisition of a firearm or a firearm part by the person.

Penalty: Imprisonment for 20 years or a fine of 5,000 penalty units, or both.

Aggravated offence—disposing or acquiring 50 or more firearms or firearm parts in 6 month period

(2) A person commits an offence if:

- (a) the person engages in conduct on one or more occasions that constitutes an offence (the underlying offence) against a firearm law; and
- (b) the person does so in the course of trade or commerce:
 - (i) among the States; or
 - (ii) between a State and a Territory, or between 2 Territories; and
- (c) the primary element of the underlying offence involves:

- 1 (i) the disposal of a firearm or a firearm part by the person;
2 or
3 (ii) the acquisition of a firearm or a firearm part by the 4 person; and
5 (d) the conduct on any occasion, or on 2 or more occasions taken
6 together, results in the disposal, or acquisition, by the person
7 of:
8 (i) 50 or more firearms; or
9 (ii) 50 or more firearm parts; or
10 (iii) a combination of firearms and firearm parts such that
11 the sum of the firearms and the firearm parts is 50 or 12 more; and
13 (e) if the disposal or acquisition of the firearms or parts
14 mentioned in paragraph (d) resulted from conduct on 2 or 15 more occasions taken together—the occasions of conduct
16 occurred during a 6 month period.

17 Penalty: Imprisonment for life or a fine of 7,500 penalty units, or 18 both.

19 Provisions relating to basic offence and aggravated offence

- 20 (2A) There is no fault element for any of the physical elements
21 described in paragraphs (1)(a) and (2)(a), other than the fault
22 elements (however described), if any, for the underlying offence.
- 23 (2B) To avoid doubt:
- 24 (a) in determining whether the conduct referred to in 25 paragraph (1)(a) or (2)(a) constitutes the underlying offence,
26 any defences or special liability provisions (however 27 described) that apply in relation to the underlying offence 28 have effect; and
- 29 (b) a person may be convicted of an offence against 30 subsection (1) or (2) even if the person has not been 31 convicted of the underlying offence; and
- 32 (c) for the purposes of subsection (2)—it is immaterial whether:
33 (i) the underlying offence is the same on each occasion; or 34 (ii) the conduct constituting the underlying offence is the 35 same on each occasion; or

(iii) the firearms or firearm parts to which the conduct relates are of the same kind.

(2C) Absolute liability applies to paragraphs (1)(b) and (c) and (2)(b), (c) and (e).

Note: For absolute liability, see section 6.2.

(2D) Strict liability applies to paragraph (2)(d).

Note: For strict liability, see section 6.1.

Definitions

2 Before subsection 360.3(1) of the Criminal Code

Insert:

Basic offence

3 Paragraph 360.3(1)(a) of the Criminal Code

Repeal the paragraph, substitute:

- (a) the person takes or sends a thing from one State or Territory to another State or Territory; and
- (aa) the thing is a firearm or firearm part; and
- (ab) the person does so in the course of trade or commerce:
 - (i) among the States; or
 - (ii) between a State and a Territory, or between 2 Territories; and

4 Subsection 360.3(1) of the Criminal Code (penalty)

Repeal the penalty, substitute:

Penalty: Imprisonment for 20 years or a fine of 5,000 penalty units, or both.

5 After subsection 360.3(1) of the Criminal Code

Insert:

Aggravated offence—taking or sending 50 or more firearms or firearm parts in 6 month period

(1A) A person commits an offence if:

- 1 (a) the person takes or sends (on one or more occasions) one or 2 more things from one State or Territory to another State or
3 Territory; and
4 (b) the thing is, or the things include, a firearm or firearm part;
5 and
6 (c) the person does so in the course of trade or commerce:
7 (i) among the States; or
8 (ii) between a State and a Territory, or between 2
9 Territories; and
10 (d) the person does so intending that any of the firearms or parts
11 will be disposed of in the other State or Territory (whether by 12 the person or another); and 13 (e) the person knows that, or is reckless as to whether:
14 (i) the disposal of any of the firearms or parts; or 15 (ii) any acquisition of any of the firearms or parts that 16 results from the disposal;
17 would happen in circumstances that would constitute an 18 offence against the firearm law of that other State or
19 Territory; and
20 (f) the conduct on any occasion, or on 2 or more occasions taken 21 together, results in the taking, or sending, by the person of:
22 (i) 50 or more firearms; or
23 (ii) 50 or more firearm parts; or
24 (iii) a combination of firearms and firearm parts such that
25 the sum of the firearms and the firearm parts is 50 or
26 more; and
27 (g) if the taking or sending of the firearms or parts mentioned in 28 paragraph (f) resulted from conduct on 2 or more occasions
29 taken together—the occasions of conduct occurred during a 6
30 month period.

31 Penalty: Imprisonment for life or a fine of 7,500 penalty units, or 32 both.

33 Provisions relating to basic offence and aggravated offence

34 (1B) Absolute liability applies to paragraphs (1)(ab) and (1A)(c) and (g).

35 Note: For absolute liability, see section 6.2.

(1C) Strict liability applies to paragraph (1A)(f).

Note: For strict liability, see section 6.1.

(1D) To avoid doubt, it is immaterial for the purposes of paragraphs (1A)(b) and (f) whether the firearms or firearm parts are of the same kind.

Definitions

6 Subsection 360.3(2) of the Criminal Code (at the end of the definition of firearm)

Add “or (1A)(e) (as the case requires)”.

7 Subsection 360.3(2) of the Criminal Code (definition of firearm part)

Omit “(1)(c)”, substitute “(1)(c) or (1A)(e) (as the case requires)”.

8 After section 360.3 of the Criminal Code

Insert:

360.3A Minimum penalties

(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), the court must impose a sentence of imprisonment of at least 5 years for a person convicted of an offence against this Division.

People aged under 18

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a person who was aged under 18 years when the offence was committed.

Reduction of minimum penalty

(3) A court may impose a sentence of imprisonment of less than the period specified in subsection (1) only if the court considers it appropriate to reduce the sentence because of either or both of the following:

(a) the court is taking into account, under paragraph 16A(2)(g) of the Crimes Act 1914, the person pleading guilty;

- 1 (b) the court is taking into account, under paragraph 16A(2)(h)
2 of that Act, the person having cooperated with law
3 enforcement agencies in the investigation of the offence.
- 4 (4) If a court may reduce a sentence, the court may reduce the sentence
5 as follows:
- 6 (a) if the court is taking into account, under paragraph 16A(2)(g)
7 of the Crimes Act 1914, the person pleading guilty—by an 8 amount that is up to 25% of the period specified in 9 subsection (1);
- 10 (b) if the court is taking into account, under paragraph 16A(2)(h)
11 of that Act, the person having cooperated with law
12 enforcement agencies in the investigation of the offence—by 13 an amount that is up to 25% of the period specified in
14 subsection (1);
- 15 (c) if the court is taking into account both of the matters in 16 paragraphs (a) and (b)—by an amount that is up to 50% of 17 the period specified in subsection (1).

18 360.3B Double jeopardy and alternative verdicts

19 Double jeopardy

- 20 (1) A person who has been convicted or acquitted of an aggravated
21 offence may not be convicted of a basic offence relating to the
22 aggravated offence that is alleged to have been committed in the 23 period during which the person was alleged to have committed the 24 aggravated offence.
- 25 (2) However, subsection (1) does not prevent an alternative verdict
26 under subsection (4).
- 27 (3) A person who has been convicted or acquitted of a basic offence
28 relating to an aggravated offence may not be convicted of the 29 aggravated offence if any of the occasions relied on as evidence of 30 the commission of the aggravated offence includes the conduct that
31 constituted the basic offence.

32 Alternative verdict—aggravated offence not proven

- 33 (4) If, on a trial for an aggravated offence, the trier of fact:

(a) is not satisfied that the defendant is guilty of the aggravated offence; but

(b) is satisfied beyond reasonable doubt that he or she is guilty of the basic offence relating to the aggravated offence;

it may find the defendant not guilty of the aggravated offence but guilty of the basic offence, so long as the defendant has been accorded procedural fairness in relation to that finding of guilt.

Definitions

(5) In this section:

aggravated offence means an offence against subsection 360.2(2) or 360.3(1A).

basic offence relating to an aggravated offence means:

(a) if the aggravated offence is an offence against subsection 360.2(2)—an offence against subsection 360.2(1); or

(b) if the aggravated offence is an offence against subsection 360.3(1A)—an offence against subsection 360.3(1).

9 Sections 361.2 and 361.3 of the Criminal Code

Repeal the sections, substitute:

361.2 Trafficking prohibited firearms or firearm parts into Australia

Basic offence

(1) A person commits an offence if:

(a) the person imports a thing; and

(b) the thing is a firearm or firearm part; and

(c) the person imports the firearm or part with the intention of trafficking in the firearm or part; and

(d) importing the firearm or part was prohibited under the Customs Act 1901:

(i) absolutely; or

(ii) unless certain requirements were met; and

1 (e) if subparagraph (d)(ii) applies—the person fails to meet any
2 of those requirements.

3 Penalty: Imprisonment for 20 years or a fine of 5,000 penalty
4 units, or both.

5 Aggravated offence—importing 50 or more prohibited firearms or 6 firearm parts in 6 month period

7 (2) A person commits an offence if:

8 (a) the person imports (on one or more occasions) one or more
9 things; and

10 (b) the thing is, or the things include, a firearm or firearm part;
11 and

12 (c) the person imports each firearm or part with the intention of 13 trafficking in the firearm or part; and

14 (d) importing each firearm or part was prohibited under the 15 Customs Act 1901:

16 (i) absolutely; or

17 (ii) unless certain requirements were met; and

18 (e) if subparagraph (d)(ii) applies in relation to an occasion of 19 importation—the person fails to meet any of those 20 requirements; and

21 (f) any occasion of importation, or 2 or more occasions taken 22 together, results in the importation by the person of:

23 (i) 50 or more firearms; or

24 (ii) 50 or more firearm parts; or

25 (iii) a combination of firearms and firearm parts such that
26 the sum of the firearms and the firearm parts is 50 or
27 more; and

28 (g) if the importation of the firearms or parts mentioned in 29 paragraph (f) resulted from 2 or more occasions of 30 importation taken together—the occasions of importation
31 occurred during a 6 month period.

32 Penalty: Imprisonment for life or a fine of 7,500 penalty units, or 33 both.

Provisions relating to basic offence and aggravated offence

- (3) Absolute liability applies to paragraphs (1)(d) and (2)(d) and (g).

Note: For absolute liability, see section 6.2.

- (4) Strict liability applies to paragraphs (1)(e) and (2)(e) and (f).

Note: For strict liability, see section 6.1.

- (5) To avoid doubt, it is immaterial for the purposes of paragraphs (2)(b) and (f) whether the firearms or firearm parts are of the same kind.

361.3 Trafficking prohibited firearms or firearm parts out of Australia

Basic offence

- (1) A person commits an offence if:
- (a) the person exports a thing, or enters a thing for export from Australia; and
 - (b) the thing is a firearm or firearm part; and
 - (c) the person exports, or enters for export, the firearm or part with the intention of trafficking in the firearm or part; and
 - (d) exporting, or entering for export, the firearm or part was prohibited under the Customs Act 1901:
 - (i) absolutely; or
 - (ii) unless certain requirements were met; and
 - (e) if subparagraph (d)(ii) applies—the person fails to meet any of those requirements.

Penalty: Imprisonment for 20 years or a fine of 5,000 penalty units, or both.

Aggravated offence—exporting or entering for export 50 or more prohibited firearms or firearm parts in 6 month period

- (2) A person commits an offence if:
- (a) the person (on one or more occasions) exports, or enters for export from Australia, one or more things; and

- 1 (b) the thing is, or the things include, a firearm or firearm part;
2 and
3 (c) the person exports, or enters for export, each firearm or part 4 with the intention of trafficking in the firearm or part; and 5 (d) exporting, or entering for export, each firearm or part was 6 prohibited under the Customs Act 1901:
7 (i) absolutely; or
8 (ii) unless certain requirements were met; and
9 (e) if subparagraph (d)(ii) applies in relation to an occasion of 10 exportation or entry for export—the person fails to meet any 11 of those requirements; and
12 (f) any occasion of exportation or entry for export, or 2 or more
13 occasions taken together, results in the exportation or entry
14 for export by the person of:
15 (i) 50 or more firearms; or
16 (ii) 50 or more firearm parts; or
17 (iii) a combination of firearms and firearm parts such that
18 the sum of the firearms and the firearm parts is 50 or
19 more; and
20 (g) if the exportation or entry for export of the firearms or parts
21 mentioned in paragraph (f) resulted from 2 or more occasions
22 of exportation or entry for export taken together—the 23 occasions of exportation or entry occurred during a 6 month
24 period.

25 Penalty: Imprisonment for life or a fine of 7,500 penalty units, or 26 both.

27 Provisions relating to basic offence and aggravated offence

28 (3) Absolute liability applies to paragraphs (1)(d) and (2)(d) and (g).

29 Note: For absolute liability, see section 6.2.

30 (4) Strict liability applies to paragraphs (1)(e) and (2)(e) and (f).

31 Note: For strict liability, see section 6.1.

32 (5) To avoid doubt, it is immaterial for the purposes of 33 paragraphs (2)(b) and (f) whether the firearms or firearm parts are 34 of the same kind.

10 After section 361.4 of the Criminal Code

Insert:

361.5 Minimum penalties

- (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), the court must impose a sentence of imprisonment of at least 5 years for a person convicted of an offence against this Division.

People aged under 18

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a person who was aged under 18 years when the offence was committed.

Reduction of minimum penalty

- (3) A court may impose a sentence of imprisonment of less than the period specified in subsection (1) only if the court considers it appropriate to reduce the sentence because of either or both of the following:
- (a) the court is taking into account, under paragraph 16A(2)(g) of the Crimes Act 1914, the person pleading guilty;
 - (b) the court is taking into account, under paragraph 16A(2)(h) of that Act, the person having cooperated with law enforcement agencies in the investigation of the offence.
- (4) If a court may reduce a sentence, the court may reduce the sentence as follows:
- (a) if the court is taking into account, under paragraph 16A(2)(g) of the Crimes Act 1914, the person pleading guilty—by an amount that is up to 25% of the period specified in subsection (1);
 - (b) if the court is taking into account, under paragraph 16A(2)(h) of that Act, the person having cooperated with law enforcement agencies in the investigation of the offence—by an amount that is up to 25% of the period specified in subsection (1);
 - (c) if the court is taking into account both of the matters in paragraphs (a) and (b)—by an amount that is up to 50% of the period specified in subsection (1).

1 11 Section 361.6 of the Criminal Code (at the end of the 2 heading)

3 Add “and alternative verdicts”.

4 12 Section 361.6 of the Criminal Code (after the heading)

5 Insert:

6 Double jeopardy

7 13 Section 361.6 of the *Criminal Code

8 Before “A person”, insert “(1)”.

9 14 At the end of section 361.6 of the *Criminal Code

10 Add:

- 11 (2) A person who has been convicted or acquitted of an aggravated
12 offence may not be convicted of a basic offence relating to the 13 aggravated offence that is alleged to have been committed in the 14 period during which the person was alleged to have committed the 15 aggravated offence.
- 16 (3) However, subsection (2) does not prevent an alternative verdict
17 under subsection (5).
- 18 (4) A person who has been convicted or acquitted of a basic offence
19 relating to an aggravated offence may not be convicted of the 20 aggravated offence if any of the occasions relied on as evidence of
21 the commission of the aggravated offence includes the conduct that
22 constituted the basic offence.

23 Alternative verdict—aggravated offence not proven

- 24 (5) If, on a trial for an aggravated offence, the trier of fact:
25 (a) is not satisfied that the defendant is guilty of the aggravated 26 offence; but
27 (b) is satisfied beyond reasonable doubt that he or she is guilty of 28 the basic offence relating to the aggravated offence;
29 it may find the defendant not guilty of the aggravated offence but 30 guilty of the basic offence, so long as the defendant has been 31 accorded procedural fairness in relation to that finding of guilt.

Definitions

(6) In this section:

aggravated offence means an offence against subsection 361.2(2) or 361.3(2).

basic offence relating to an aggravated offence means:

(a) if the aggravated offence is an offence against subsection 361.2(2)—an offence against subsection 361.2(1); or

(b) if the aggravated offence is an offence against subsection 361.3(2)—an offence against subsection 361.3(1).

15 Application of amendments—minimum penalties

Sections 360.3A and 361.5 of the Criminal Code, as inserted by this Schedule, apply in relation to conduct engaged in at or after the commencement of this Schedule.
