The only persons who can make a claim in accordance with this Subdivision are individuals or approved care organisations.

(i) whether the person has a tax file number; and
(ii) if the person has a tax file number—that number.

Statement that an application for a tax file number is pending

(5) The third kind of statement that can be made is a statement by the TFN claim person that the person:
Part 3  Payment of family assistance
Division 1  Family tax benefit

Section 9

(a) has an application for a tax file number pending; and
(b) authorises the Commissioner of Taxation to tell the Secretary:
   (i) if a tax file number is issued to the person—that number; or
   (ii) if the application is refused—that the application has been refused; or
   (iii) if the application is withdrawn—that the application has been withdrawn.

How statement to be given

(6) A statement made by the claimant must be in the claim. A statement made by any other TFN claim person must be in a document, in a form approved by the Secretary, that the claimant gives the Secretary together with the claim.

Exemption from tax file number requirement

(7) The Secretary may determine that the requirement in subsection (2)
    does not apply to a TFN claim person if:
    (a) the person is the claimant’s partner; and
    (b) the claimant cannot obtain from the person:
       (i) the person’s tax file number; or
       (ii) a statement by the person under subsection (4) or (5).

9  Restrictions on claims for payment of family tax benefit by instalment

A claim for payment of family tax benefit by instalment is not effective if, at the time (the determination time) when the claim would be determined:
(a) the claimant has previously made a claim for payment of family tax benefit by instalment and that claim has not yet been determined; or
(b) the claimant is already entitled to be paid family tax benefit by instalment; or
(c) the following apply:
Section 10

(i) a determination under section 16 is in force under which the claimant is not, because of a variation of the determination under subsection 27(5), 29(2) or 30(2), entitled to be paid family tax benefit at the determination time or at any later time;
(ii) the determination time is before the end of the income
year following the one in which the variation mentioned in that subsection took effect.

10 Restrictions on claims for payment of family tax benefit for a past period

Restriction where previous claim or instalment determination

(1) A claim for payment of family tax benefit for a past period is not effective if:
(a) the claimant has previously made a claim for payment of family tax benefit for any of the past period (whether or not the claim has yet been determined); or
(b) the claimant was entitled to be paid family tax benefit by instalment at any time in the past period; or
(c) the following apply:
(i) a determination under section 16 was in force at any time in the past period under which the claimant was not, because of a variation of the determination under subsection 27(5), 29(2) or 30(2), entitled to be paid family tax benefit;
(ii) the claim is made before the end of the income year following the one in which the variation mentioned in that subsection took effect.

Claim must relate to one income year and not be made after the end of the next income year

(2) A claim for payment of family tax benefit for a past period is not effective if:
(a) the period does not fall wholly within one income year; or
Part 3 Payment of family assistance
Division 1 Family tax benefit

Section 10

(b) the period does fall wholly within one income year but the claim is made after the end of the next income year.

Claim must be accompanied by instalment claim in some circumstances

(3) A claim for payment of family tax benefit for a past period is not
effective if:
(a) the period occurs in the income year in which the claim is made; and
(b) at the time the claim is made, the claimant is eligible for family tax benefit; and
(c) at the time the claim is made, the claimant is not prevented by section 9 from making an effective claim for payment of family tax benefit by instalment; and
(d) the claim is not accompanied by a claim for payment of family tax benefit by instalment.

(4) A claim for payment of family tax benefit for a past period is not
effective if:
(a) the period occurs in the income year before the one in which the claim is made; and
(b) if the claimant is an individual—at any time during the past period, the claimant, or the claimant’s partner, received a social security benefit, social security pension or service
pension; and
(c) at the time the claim is made, the claimant is eligible for family tax benefit; and
(d) if the claimant is an individual—at the time the claim is made, the claimant, or the claimant’s partner, is receiving a social security benefit, social security pension or service
pension; and
(e) at the time the claim is made, the claimant is not prevented by section 9 from making an effective claim for payment of family tax benefit by instalment; and
(f) the claim is not accompanied by a claim for payment of family tax benefit by instalment.
Claim cannot be made in same income year as tax instalment deduction reduced on account of family tax benefit

(5) A claim for payment of family tax benefit for a past period is not effective if:
(a) at any time before a determination is made on the claim, the Secretary becomes aware that, during some or all of the past period, an employment declaration:
(i) was in force under the Income Tax Regulations; and
(ii) stated that the claimant, or the claimant’s partner, was eligible for family tax benefit and intended to make a claim, after the end of each income year in which the declaration is in force, for payment of family tax benefit for the period during which the declaration was in force;
and
(b) the claim is made in the income year in which the past period occurs.

11 Restrictions on bereavement claims

Entitlement must not already have been determined, or be awaiting determination, on a previous claim

(1) A claim for payment of family tax benefit by single payment/in substitution because of the death of another individual is not effective if the claimant has previously made a claim for payment of family tax benefit because of the death of that individual (whether or not the claim has yet been determined).

Single payment/substitution claims must relate to current or previous income year

(2) If a claim for payment of family tax benefit by single payment/in substitution because of the death of another individual is based on eligibility for an amount of family tax benefit under subsection 32(2) or section 33 of the Family Assistance Act, the claim is not effective if it is made after the end of the income year following the one in which the death mentioned in that provision occurred.
Section 12

12 Claim may be withdrawn or varied

(1) A claimant may withdraw or vary a claim before the claim is determined.

(2) The claimant may only do so in a manner determined by the Secretary.

(3) If a claim is withdrawn, it is taken never to have been made.

Subdivision B—Determination of claims etc.

13 Secretary must determine claim

(1) If an effective claim is made, the Secretary must determine the claim in accordance with this section and sections 16 to 19. If a claim is not effective, it is taken not to have been made.

Information to be taken into account

(2) The Secretary is to make the determination:

(a) having regard only to the information in the claim (and any accompanying documents or information required by the Secretary); or

(b) having regard to the things in paragraph (a) and also to any other information or documents (whether or not provided by the claimant).

14 Restriction on determining claim where income tax assessment not made

If:

(a) the claim is one for payment of family tax benefit for a past period; and

(b) the past period falls in the income year (the past period income year) before the one in which the claim is made; and

(c) the claimant is required to lodge an income tax return for the past period income year; and
(d) at the time the claim is made, an assessment has not been made under the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 of the tax payable on the claimant’s taxable income for the past period income year;

the Secretary can only determine the claim if the assessment has been made.

15 Restriction on determining claim where tax file number not provided etc.

Statement that TFN claim person does not know what his or her tax file number is etc.

(1) If a TFN claim person makes a statement of the kind set out in subsection 8(4), the Secretary can only determine the claim concerned if:

(a) within 28 days after the claim is made, the Commissioner of Taxation tells the Secretary the person’s tax file number; or

(b) 28 days pass after the claim is made without the Commissioner of Taxation telling the Secretary that the person has no tax file number.

Statement that an application for a tax file number is pending

(2) If a TFN claim person makes a statement of the kind set out in subsection 8(5), the Secretary can only determine the claim concerned if:

(a) within 28 days after the claim is made, the Commissioner of Taxation tells the Secretary the person’s tax file number; or

(b) 28 days pass after the claim is made without the Commissioner of Taxation telling the Secretary that:

(i) the person has not applied for a tax file number; or

(ii) an application by the person for a tax file number has been refused; or

(iii) the person has withdrawn an application for a tax file number.
Part 3 Payment of family assistance
Division 1 Family tax benefit

Section 16

(3) If, after the 28 days mentioned in subsection (1) or (2) have passed, the Secretary cannot, because of that subsection, determine the claim, the claim is taken never to have been made.

16 Determination of instalment entitlement claim

(1) This section applies if the claim is one for payment of family tax benefit by instalment.

Instalments where normal eligibility

(2) If:

(a) the Secretary is satisfied that the claimant is, at the time the Secretary makes the determination on the claim, eligible for family tax benefit in accordance with Subdivision A or C of Division 1 of Part 3 of the Family Assistance Act; and the Secretary must determine that the claimant is entitled to be paid family tax benefit for each day on which the determination is in force, at the daily rate at which the Secretary considers the claimant to be eligible.

(b) subsection (3) does not apply;

Instalments where pattern of care eligibility

(3) If the Secretary is satisfied that, at the time of making the determination on the claim, a pattern of days on which an FTB child of the claimant is in the claimant’s care exists and is likely to continue to exist in the future, such that the claimant will be eligible for family tax benefit in respect of the child in accordance with Subdivision A of Division 1 of Part 3 of the Family Assistance Act only on particular days, the Secretary must determine that the claimant is entitled to be paid family tax benefit for those particular days while the determination is in force, at the daily rate at which the Secretary considers the claimant will be eligible.

Additional entitlement in subsection (2) and (3) cases

(4) If:
(a) the Secretary is satisfied as mentioned in subsection (2) or
(b) the Secretary is also satisfied that the claimant was eligible for family tax benefit in accordance with Subdivision A or C of Division 1 of Part 3 of the Family Assistance Act during the whole or part of the period since the claim was made;
the Secretary must determine that the claimant is entitled to be paid that amount of family tax benefit.

Instalments where bereavement eligibility—remaining FTB children

(5) If the Secretary is satisfied that, at the time of making the determination on the claim:
(a) the claimant is eligible for family tax benefit in accordance with section 31 of the Family Assistance Act; and
(b) assuming subsection (4) of that section were disregarded, the claimant would be eligible for family tax benefit under Subdivision A of Division 1 of Part 3 of that Act;
the Secretary must determine that:
(c) the claimant is entitled to be paid family tax benefit, at the rate at which the Secretary considers the claimant to be eligible:
   (i) for each day on which the determination is in force that occurs during the period to which subsection 31(2) of that Act applies; and
   (ii) for each day, before the determination came into force, that occurred during that period; and
(d) the claimant is entitled to be paid family tax benefit, at the rate at which the Secretary considers the claimant would be eligible, on the assumption in paragraph (b) of this subsection, for each day while the determination is in force that occurs after the last day on which the claimant is entitled to be paid family tax benefit in accordance with paragraph (c)
of this subsection.
Part 3 Payment of family assistance
Division 1 Family tax benefit

Section 17

Instalments where bereavement eligibility—no remaining FTB children

(6) If the Secretary is satisfied that, at the time of making the determination on the claim:

(a) the claimant is eligible for family tax benefit in accordance with section 31 of the Family Assistance Act; and

(b) assuming subsection (4) of that section were disregarded, the claimant would not be eligible for family tax benefit under Subdivision A of Division 1 of Part 3 of that Act;

the Secretary must determine that the claimant is entitled to be paid family tax benefit, at the rate at which the Secretary considers the claimant to be eligible:

(c) for each day on which the determination is in force that occurs during the period to which subsection 31(2) of that Act applies; and

(d) for each day, before the determination came into force, that occurred during that period.

17 Determination of past period entitlement claim

If:

(a) the claim is one for payment of family tax benefit for a past period; and

(b) the Secretary is satisfied that the claimant was eligible for family tax benefit:

(i) for the whole of the period in accordance with Subdivision A or C of Division 1 of Part 3 of the Family Assistance Act; or

(ii) for part of the period in accordance with Subdivision A of that Division and for the remainder of the period in accordance with section 31 of that Act;

the Secretary must determine that the claimant is entitled to be paid family tax benefit for the past period.

18 Determination of bereavement entitlement claim

If:
A New Tax System (Family Assistance) (Administration) Bill 1999 No.  , 1999  19

Section 19

(a) the claim is one for payment of family tax benefit by single payment/in substitution because of the death of another individual; and
(b) the Secretary is satisfied that the claimant is eligible for family tax benefit under section 32 or 33 of the Family Assistance Act;
the Secretary must determine that the claimant is entitled to be paid the family tax benefit.

19 Determination that no entitlement

If the Secretary is not satisfied as mentioned in section 16, 17 or 18, the Secretary must determine:
(a) if the determination is on a claim for payment of family tax benefit by instalment—that the claimant is not entitled to be paid family tax benefit for each day on which the determination is in force; or
(b) in any other case—that the claimant is not entitled to be paid family tax benefit for the past period or because of the death of the other individual, as the case requires.

20 Determination of rate may be based on estimate

(1) If:
(a) an individual’s rate of family tax benefit is required to be calculated for the purpose of making a determination under this Division; and
(b) information about an amount needed for the calculation of the rate is not available (for example, because the taxable income of the individual or another individual cannot be known until after the end of the relevant income year); and
(c) the individual gives the Secretary an estimate of the amount needed; and
(d) the Secretary considers the estimate to be reasonable;
the Secretary may determine the individual’s rate of family tax benefit on the basis of the estimate.
Part 3  Payment of family assistance
Division 1  Family tax benefit

Section 21

(2) If the individual does not give the Secretary an estimate of the amount needed that the Secretary considers reasonable, the rate cannot be calculated and section 19 applies.

21  When determination is in force

(1) Subject to this section, a determination under this Division comes into force when it is made and remains in force at all times afterwards.

Effect of later determination on certain instalment determinations

(2) If, on a particular day, a determination is in force:

(a) under section 16, where under the determination the claimant is not entitled to be paid family tax benefit on the particular day or any later day; or

(b) under paragraph 19(a);

the determination ceases to be in force on the particular day if either:

(c) another determination is made on the particular day on a claim by the claimant for payment of family tax benefit by instalment; or

(d) another determination is made after the particular day on a claim by the claimant for payment of family tax benefit for a past period, where the particular day occurs within the past period.

Request for cessation of instalment determination

(3) A determination in force under section 16 on a particular day ceases to be in force if:

(a) under the determination, the claimant is entitled to be paid family tax benefit on the particular day or any later day; and

(b) on the particular day, the claimant is not receiving a social security pension, social security benefit or service pension; and
Section 22

(c) on the particular day, the claimant advises the Secretary, in the form and manner required by the Secretary, that the claimant wishes the determination:

(i) to cease to be in force from the particular day or from a specified later day; or

(ii) to have ceased to be in force at the end of the most recent instalment period before the particular day.

The determination ceases to be in force in accordance with the advice.

22 Notice of determination

(1) The Secretary must give notice of a determination under this Subdivision to the claimant, stating:

(a) whether the claimant is entitled to be paid family tax benefit under the determination; and

(b) if the claimant is so entitled:

(i) if the claimant is entitled to be paid family tax benefit by instalment—the daily rate of the benefit, the days on which the entitlement arises and how it is to be paid; or

(ii) in any other case—the amount of the benefit and how it is to be paid; and

(c) that the claimant may apply for review of the determination in the manner set out in Part 5.

(2) The determination is not ineffective to any extent if the requirements of subsection (1) are not complied with.

23 Payment of family tax benefit by instalment

(1) Subject to this section, if the claimant is entitled to be paid family tax benefit by instalment, the Secretary must, after each instalment period ending after the determination is made, pay the instalment amount to the claimant, at such time and in such manner as the Secretary considers appropriate.

Instalment amount and instalment period

(2) In subsection (1):
Part 3 Payment of family assistance
Division 1 Family tax benefit

Section 23

instalment amount means the amount accruing for the days in the instalment period for which an entitlement to be paid family tax benefit arose under the determination.

instalment period means, subject to subsection (3):
(a) the period of 14 days beginning on such day as the Secretary considers appropriate in relation to the claimant, or class of claimants in which the claimant is included; and
(b) each successive period of 14 days.

Changing the day on which later instalment periods begin

(3) The Secretary may change the day on which successive instalment periods are to begin in relation to a claimant or class of claimants. If the Secretary does so, the last instalment period before the first day on which the new instalment periods are to begin is shortened so that it ends immediately before that day.

Making of payments to third parties

(4) The Secretary may pay the whole or a part of an amount, that would otherwise be required by subsection (1) to be paid to the claimant, to someone other than the claimant, on behalf of the claimant.

Regulations may provide for timing and manner of making payments

(5) The regulations may make provision for the time at which, and the manner in which, an amount is to be paid for the purposes of this section. If such regulations are made, the Secretary must pay the amount in accordance with the regulations.

Section subject to other provisions

(6) This section is subject to Part 4 (Overpayments and debt recovery) and sections 226 to 229 (which deal with other debts etc.).
24 Other payments of family tax benefit

(1) If the claimant is entitled to be paid family tax benefit under a determination on a claim for payment of family tax benefit:
   (a) for a past period; or
   (b) by single payment/in substitution because of the death of another individual;

the Secretary must pay the amount to the claimant, at such time and in such manner as the Secretary considers appropriate.

Making of payments to third parties

(2) The Secretary may instead pay the whole or a part of the amount to someone other than the claimant, on behalf of the claimant.

Regulations may provide for timing and manner of making payments

(3) The regulations may make provision for the time at which, and the manner in which, an amount is to be paid for the purposes of this section. If such regulations are made, the Secretary must pay the amount in accordance with the regulations.

Section subject to other provisions

(4) This section is subject to Part 4 (Overpayments and debt recovery) and sections 226 to 229 (which deal with other debts etc.).

25 Obligation to notify change of circumstances

If, after a claimant becomes entitled to be paid family tax benefit by instalment:
   (a) anything happens that causes the claimant to cease to be eligible for family tax benefit on the days for which the claimant will become entitled to be paid the benefit under the determination concerned, or to become eligible for a daily rate of family tax benefit that is less than that specified in the determination; or
   (b) the claimant becomes aware that anything is likely to happen that will have that effect;
the claimant must, in the manner set out in the regulations, as soon as practicable after the claimant becomes aware that the thing has happened or is likely to happen, notify the Secretary that it has happened or is likely to happen.

Penalty: Imprisonment for 6 months.

26 Secretary’s power to request tax file numbers

(1) If:
   (a) a determination is in force under which the claimant is entitled to be paid family tax benefit by instalment; or
   (b) a determination is in force under which the claimant is entitled to be paid family tax benefit for a past period;
the Secretary may request the claimant to give the Secretary, within 28 days of the request being made, a statement, in relation to a specified TFN determination person, of whichever of the kinds set out in subsection (2), (3) or (4) the claimant chooses.

Statement of tax file number

(2) The first kind of statement that can be made is a statement of the TFN determination person’s tax file number. Regardless of who the TFN determination person is, this kind of statement can be made by the claimant only.

Statement that TFN person does not know what his or her tax file number is etc.

(3) The second kind of statement that can be made is a statement by the TFN determination person that the person:
   (a) has a tax file number but does not know what it is; and
   (b) has asked the Commissioner of Taxation to inform the person of his or her tax file number; and
   (c) authorises the Commissioner of Taxation to tell the Secretary:
           (i) whether the person has a tax file number; and
           (ii) if the person has a tax file number—that number.
Section 27

Statement that an application for a tax file number is pending

(4) The third kind of statement that can be made is a statement by the TFN determination person that the person:
(a) has an application for a tax file number pending; and
(b) authorises the Commissioner of Taxation to tell the Secretary:
   (i) if a tax file number is issued to the person—that number; or
   (ii) if the application is refused—that the application has been refused; or
   (iii) if the application is withdrawn—that the application has been withdrawn.

Subdivision C—Variation of determinations

27 Variation of instalment and past period determinations where failure to provide tax file number

Non-compliance with request

(1) If:
   (a) the Secretary makes a request under subsection 26(1); and
   (b) the claimant does not comply with the request within 28 days of the request being made;
then, subject to subsection (2), the consequence in subsection (5) applies.

Exemption from request under subsection 26(1)

(2) The Secretary may determine that the consequence in subsection (5) does not apply if:
   (a) the TFN determination person concerned is or was the claimant’s partner; and
   (b) the claimant cannot obtain from the person:
      (i) the person’s tax file number; or
      (ii) a statement by the person under subsection 26(3) or (4).
Part 3 Payment of family assistance
Division 1 Family tax benefit

Section 27

Statement that TFN claim person does not know what his or her tax file number is etc.

(3) If:
   (a) the Secretary makes a request under subsection 26(1); and
   (b) by the end of 28 days after the request is made:
      (i) the claimant gives the Secretary a statement by the TFN determination person of the kind set out in subsection 26(3); and
      (ii) the Commissioner of Taxation tells the Secretary that the person has no tax file number;
   the consequence in subsection (5) applies.

Statement that an application for a tax file number is pending

(4) If:
   (a) the Secretary makes a request under subsection 26(1); and
   (b) by the end of 28 days after the request is made:
      (i) the claimant gives the Secretary a statement by the TFN determination person of the kind set out in subsection 26(4); and
      (ii) the Commissioner of Taxation tells the Secretary that the person has not applied for a tax file number, that an application by the person for a tax file number has been refused or that the person has withdrawn an application for a tax file number;
   the consequence in subsection (5) applies.

Variation of determination

(5) For the purposes of subsection (1), (3) or (4), the consequence is that the Secretary may:
   (a) if the determination is one under which the claimant is entitled to be paid family tax benefit by instalment—vary the determination so that it has the effect that the claimant is not entitled to be paid family tax benefit for any day, on which the determination was or will be in force, after the end of the last instalment period before the variation takes place; or
(b) if the determination is one under which the claimant is entitled to be paid family tax benefit for a past period—vary the determination so that it has the effect that the claimant is not entitled to be paid family tax benefit for any day in the past period.

Consequence of Secretary later becoming aware of tax file number

(6) If:

(a) under subsection (5), the Secretary varies the determination;

and

(b) the Secretary finds out the tax file number of the TFN determination person concerned:

(i) if paragraph (5)(a) applies—before the end of the income year following the one in which the variation took effect; or

(ii) if paragraph (5)(b) applies—at any time after the variation took place;

the Secretary must vary the determination to undo the effect
mentioned in subsection (5).

28 Variation of instalment and past period entitlement determinations where income tax return not lodged

(1) This section applies if:

(a) a determination under section 16 or 17 is in force at, or was in force before, a particular time; and

(b) there are one or more days (the cancellation days) before the particular time in respect of which the following conditions are satisfied:

(i) the cancellation days occur in the income year (the cancellation income year) that began 2 years before the beginning of the income year in which the particular time occurs;

(ii) the claimant is entitled to be paid family tax benefit under the determination for the cancellation days;

(iii) the claimant, or the claimant’s partner at the particular time (if he or she was also the claimant’s partner at
Part 3  Payment of family assistance
Division 1  Family tax benefit

Section 29

some time in the cancellation income year), or both, are required to lodge an income tax return for the cancellation income year but have not done so by the particular time;
(iv) by the particular time, an assessment has not been made under the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 of the taxable income for the cancellation income year of everyone to whom subparagraph (iii) applies.

Consequence of section applying

(2) If this section applies, the Secretary must vary the determination so that it has the effect that the claimant is not, and never was, entitled to family tax benefit for the cancellation days.

Consequence where income tax returns are later lodged

(3) If:
(a) after the Secretary varies the determination under subsection
(2), an assessment is made under the Income Tax Assessment
Act 1936 for the cancellation income year for everyone:
(i) who was required to lodge an income tax return as mentioned in subparagraph (1)(b)(iii); and
(ii) in respect of whom an assessment had not been made before the determination was varied; and
(b) the Secretary is satisfied that the claimant was eligible for an amount of family tax benefit for the cancellation days;
the Secretary must again vary the determination so that it has the effect that, for the cancellation days, the claimant is entitled to be paid the lesser of:
(c) that amount of family tax benefit; and
(d) the amount that the claimant was entitled to be paid before the variation under subsection (2) was made.

29 Variation of instalment entitlement determination where failure to provide information

(1) This section applies if:
Section 30

(a) a determination is in force on a particular day under which the claimant is entitled to be paid family tax benefit by instalment; and

(b) the Secretary, in order to make a decision about the eligibility, or daily rate of eligibility, of the claimant for family tax benefit on either or both of the following:

(i) the particular day or any later day;

(ii) any day or days in the past when the determination was in force;

 requires the claimant or the claimant’s partner under Division I of Part 6 to give information or produce documents; and

(c) the claimant or the claimant’s partner refuses or fails to comply with the requirements.

Consequence of section applying

(2) If this section applies, the Secretary may vary the determination so that it has the effect that the claimant is not entitled to be paid family tax benefit for any day, on which the determination was or will be in force, after the end of the last instalment period before the variation takes place.

Consequence of later provision of information or documents

(3) If:

(a) under subsection (2), the Secretary varies the determination; and

(b) the claimant gives the information or produces the documents mentioned in paragraph (1)(b) by the end of the income year following the one in which the variation took effect;

the Secretary must vary the determination to undo the effect mentioned in subsection (2).

30 Variation of instalment entitlement determination where failure to notify change of address

(1) This section applies if:
Part 3 Payment of family assistance
Division 1 Family tax benefit

Section 31

(a) a determination is in force on a particular day under which the claimant is entitled to be paid family tax benefit by instalment; and
(b) the Secretary has reason to believe that the claimant’s address has changed since it was last known to the Secretary but the Secretary does not know the claimant’s new address; and
(c) the Secretary, after taking reasonable steps, is not able to find out whether the claimant’s address has changed or, if it has, what the claimant’s new address is.

Consequence of section applying

(2) If this section applies, the Secretary may vary the determination so that it has the effect that the claimant is not entitled to be paid family tax benefit for any day, on which the determination was or will be in force, after the end of the last instalment period before the variation takes place.

Consequence of Secretary later becoming aware of address etc.

(3) If:
(a) under subsection (2), the Secretary varies the determination; and
(b) before the end of the income year following the one in which the variation took effect, the Secretary finds out:
   (i) that the claimant’s address has not changed; or
   (ii) what the claimant’s new address is;
the Secretary must vary the determination to undo the effect mentioned in subsection (2).

31 Variation of instalment entitlement determination to reflect changes in eligibility

(1) If:
(a) a determination is made under section 16; and
(b) after the determination is made, a change in the claimant’s circumstances occurs; and
(c) the claimant is entitled to be paid family tax benefit under the determination at some time after the change; and

(d) when the Secretary becomes aware of the change, the Secretary considers that, if he or she were making the determination immediately after the change, he or she would make it with different effect than the actual determination would have from that time;

the Secretary must, subject to subsection (2), vary the determination so that it had, and will have, that different effect at all times after the change.

Beneficial variations only to have limited effect

(2) If:

(a) the Secretary does not become aware of the change in the claimant’s circumstances until after the end of the income year (the second income year) following the one in which the change occurred; and

(b) the claimant did not notify the Secretary of the change before the end of the second income year; and

(c) apart from this subsection, the Secretary would be required by subsection (1) to vary the determination so as to increase the claimant’s entitlement to family tax benefit under the determination;

the Secretary must vary the determination so that it has that effect only from the beginning of the income year that precedes the one in which the Secretary becomes aware of the change.

Section 27, 28, 29 and 30 variations prevail

(3) If:

(a) when the variation under this section takes place, a variation of the determination is in force under section 27, 28, 29 or 30; and

(b) the variation under that section has effect for any period when the variation under this section would have the effect that the claimant is entitled to be paid family tax benefit;
Part 3  Payment of family assistance
Division 1  Family tax benefit

Section 32

the variation under that section prevails over the variation under this section.

32  Notice of variation of determination

(1) The Secretary must give notice of any variation of a determination under this Subdivision to the claimant, stating the effect of the variation and that the claimant may apply for review of the decision involved in the manner set out in Part 5.

(2) The variation is not ineffective to any extent if the requirements of subsection (1) are not complied with.
Division 2—Payment of family tax benefit advances

33 Determination of entitlement to family tax benefit advance

(1) The Secretary must determine that an individual is entitled to be paid a family tax benefit advance for a standard advance period if:

(a) on the advance assessment day (see subsection (2)):

   (i) the individual is entitled to be paid family tax benefit by instalment; and

   (ii) the individual’s Part A rate is worked out using Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Family Assistance Act; and

   (iii) the individual’s Part A rate is equal to or exceeds twice the individual’s FTB advance rate; and

(b) the individual has made a request to the Secretary for the payment of a family tax benefit advance for that period; and

(c) the request is made before the end of that period.

(2) An individual’s advance assessment day for a standard advance period is:

(a) if paragraph (b) does not apply—the first day in the standard advance period; or

   (i) the individual is not entitled to be paid family tax benefit by instalment on the first day in the standard advance period; and

   (ii) the individual becomes entitled to be paid family tax benefit by instalment during the standard advance period; and

(5) An individual cannot become entitled to be paid more than one family tax benefit advance for a standard advance period.

34 Amount of family tax benefit advance

(1) The amount of the family tax benefit advance is worked out using the formula:

\[ \text{Number of days} \times \frac{\text{FTB advance rate}}{365} \]

where:

number of days means the number of days in the individual’s family tax benefit advance period.

(2) Subject to subsections (3), (4) and (5), an individual’s family tax benefit advance period is the standard advance period.

(3) If:

(a) an individual makes a request under section 33; and

(b) it is not practicable on the first day in the standard advance period to adjust the individual’s payments of family tax benefit to take account of the family tax benefit advance that will result from the request;

the individual’s family tax benefit advance period starts at the beginning of the first instalment period for which it is practicable to adjust the individual’s payment of family tax benefit to take account of the family tax benefit advance.

(4) The Secretary may determine that an individual’s family tax benefit advance period is to end on a particular day that is earlier than the end of the standard advance period if the Secretary is satisfied that it is appropriate for the period to end on that day having regard to:
(a) circumstances affecting the individual’s eligibility for family tax benefit; and
(b) circumstances affecting the rate of the family tax benefit that the individual is entitled to be paid.

(5) If a determination is made under subsection (4), the individual’s family tax benefit advance period ends on the day determined by the Secretary.

35 Payment of family tax benefit advance

Subject to Part 4 (Overpayments and debt recovery) and sections 226 to 229 (which deal with other debts etc.), if an individual is

(2) If the debt arose because the person owing the debt:
   (a) made a false statement or false representation; or
   (b) contravened a provision of the family assistance law;
action under section 89 for the recovery of the debt may be commenced at any time within the period of 6 years starting on the first day on which an officer becomes aware, or could reasonably be expected to have become aware, of the circumstances that gave rise to the debt.

(3) If:

   (b) within that period part of the amount owing is paid;
action under that section for the recovery of the balance of the debt may be commenced within the period of 6 years starting on the day of payment.

(4) If:
Section 91

(b) within that period:
   (i) action is taken under this section, or section 84, 85 or 88, for the recovery of the debt; or

(1) The Secretary may, on behalf of the Commonwealth, decide to allow a person to pay a debt in one or more instalments.

(2) A decision made under subsection (1) takes effect:
   (a) if no day is specified in the decision—on the day on which the decision is made; or
   (b) if a day is specified in the decision—on the day so specified (whether that day is before, after or on the day on which the decision is made).

(3) In subsection (1):
Section 92

   (c) for the purpose of the recovery of the debt, the consenting person consents to the deduction of an amount from the consenting person’s family assistance;

   the Secretary may deduct the amount from the consenting person’s family assistance.

(2) A person may not consent under subsection (1) to deductions being made from the person’s child care benefit.

   (c) for the purpose of the recovery of the debt, the consenting person consents to the application of an amount from the consenting person’s refund to the debt;

   the Commissioner of Taxation may apply the whole or a part of the refund to the debt.

(2) The amount of the refund and the amount of the debt are reduced accordingly.
(3) The consenting person may revoke the consent at any time.
Part 4  Overpayments and debt recovery
Division 4  Non-recovery of debts

Section 94

Division 4—Non-recovery of debts

94  Meaning of debt

In this Division:

debt means a debt recoverable by the Commonwealth under Division 2.

95  Secretary may write off debt

(1) Subject to subsection (2), the Secretary may, on behalf of the Commonwealth, decide to write off a debt, for a stated period or otherwise.

(2) The Secretary may decide to write off a debt under subsection (1) if, and only if:

(a) the debt is irrecoverable at law; or
(b) the debtor has no capacity to repay the debt; or
(c) the debtor’s whereabouts are unknown after all reasonable efforts have been made to locate the debtor; or
(d) the debt cannot be recovered by deductions under this Act or the Social Security Act 1991 and it is not cost effective for the Commonwealth to take action to recover the debt.

(3) For the purposes of paragraph (2)(a), a debt is taken to be irrecoverable at law if, and only if:

(a) the debt cannot be recovered by means of:

(i) deductions under section 84 or 85; or
(ii) application of an income tax refund under section 87; or
(iii) legal proceedings under section 88; or
(iv) garnishee notice under section 89; because the relevant time limit for recovery action under that section has elapsed; or
(b) there is no proof of the debt capable of sustaining legal proceedings for its recovery; or Overpayments and debt recovery  Part 4
Non-recovery of debts  Division 4

Section 96

(c) the debtor is discharged from bankruptcy and the debt was incurred before the discharge and was not incurred by fraud;
or
(d) the debtor has died leaving no estate or insufficient funds in the debtor’s estate to repay the debt.

(4) For the purposes of paragraph (2)(b):
(a) if a debt is recoverable by means of:
(i) deductions under section 84; or
(ii) application of an income tax refund under section 87;
the person is taken to have a capacity to repay the debt unless recovery by those means would cause the person severe financial hardship; and
(b) if a debt is recoverable by means of deductions under section
85, the person is taken to have the capacity to repay the debt.

(5) A decision made under subsection (1) takes effect:
(a) if no day is specified in the decision—on the day on which the decision is made; or
(b) if a day is specified in the decision—on the day so specified (whether that day is before, after or on the day on which the decision is made).

(6) Nothing in this section prevents anything being done at any time to recover a debt that has been written off under this section.

96  Power to waive Commonwealth’s right to recover debt

(1) On behalf of the Commonwealth, the Secretary may waive the Commonwealth’s right to recover the whole or a part of a debt from a debtor only in the circumstances described in section 97, 98, 99, 100, 101 or 102.

(2) A waiver takes effect:
(a) on the day specified in the waiver (whether that day is before, after or on the day on which the decision to waive is made); or
(b) if the waiver does not specify when it takes effect—on the day on which the decision to waive is made.
97 Waiver of debt arising from error

(1) The Secretary must waive the right to recover the proportion (the administrative error proportion) of a debt that is attributable solely to an administrative error made by the Commonwealth if subsection (2) or (3) applies to that proportion of the debt.

(2) The Secretary must waive the administrative error proportion of a debt if:
   (a) the debtor received in good faith the payment or payments that gave rise to the administrative error proportion of the debt; and
   (b) the person would suffer severe financial hardship if it were not waived.

(3) The Secretary must waive the administrative error proportion of a debt if:
   (a) the payment or payments were made in respect of the debtor’s eligibility for family assistance for a period or event (the eligibility period or event) that occurs in an income year; and
   (b) the debt is raised after the end of:
      (i) the debtor’s next income year after the one in which the eligibility period or event occurs; or
      (ii) the period of 13 weeks starting on the day on which the payment that gave rise to the debt was made; whichever ends last; and
   (c) the debtor received in good faith the payment or payments that gave rise to the administrative error proportion of the debt.

(4) For the purposes of this section, the administrative error proportion of the debt may be 100% of the debt.

98 Waiver of debt relating to an offence

(1) If:
   (a) a debtor has been convicted of an offence that gave rise to a proportion of a debt; and
(b) the court indicated in sentencing the debtor that it imposed a longer custodial sentence on the debtor because he or she was unable or unwilling to pay the debt;
the Secretary must waive the right to recover the proportion of the debt that arose in connection with the offence.

(2) For the purposes of this section, a proportion of a debt may be 100% of the debt.

99 Waiver of small debt

(1) The Secretary must waive the right to recover a debt if:
   (a) the debt is, or is likely to be, less than $200; and
   (b) it is not cost effective for the Commonwealth to take action to recover the debt.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the debt is at least $50 and could be recovered by deductions under:
   (a) section 84 or 85 of this Act; or
   (b) section 1231 of the Social Security Act 1991.

100 Waiver in relation to settlements

Settlement of civil action

(1) If the Commonwealth has agreed to settle a civil action against a debtor for recovery of a debt for less than the full amount of the debt, the Secretary must waive the right to recover the difference between the debt and the amount that is the subject of the settlement.

Settlement of proceedings before the AAT

(2) If the Secretary has agreed to settle proceedings before the AAT relating to recovery of a debt on the basis that the debtor will pay less than the full amount of the debt, the Secretary must waive the right to recover the difference between the debt and the amount that is the subject of the settlement.
Waiver where at least 80% of debt recovered and debtor cannot pay more

(3) If:
   (a) the Commonwealth has recovered at least 80% of the original value of a debt from a debtor; and
   (b) the Commonwealth and the debtor agree that the recovery is in full satisfaction for the whole of the debt; and
   (c) the debtor cannot repay a greater proportion of the debt;
   the Secretary must waive the remaining 20% or less of the value of the original debt.

Agreement for part-payment in satisfaction of outstanding debt

(4) If the Secretary and a debtor agree that the debtor’s debt will be fully satisfied if the debtor pays the Commonwealth an agreed amount less than the amount of the debt outstanding at the time of the agreement (the unpaid amount), the Secretary must waive the right to recover the difference between the unpaid amount and the agreed amount.

Limits on agreement to accept part-payment in satisfaction of outstanding debt

(5) The Secretary must not make an agreement described in subsection (4) unless the Secretary is satisfied that:
   (a) the debtor cannot repay more of the debt than the agreed amount; and
   (b) the agreed amount is at least the present value of the unpaid amount repaid in instalments whose amount and timing is determined by the Secretary; and
   (c) it would take at least a year to recover the unpaid amount under Division 2 if subsection (4) did not apply.

Formula for working out present value of unpaid amount

(6) For the purposes of subsection (5), the present value of the unpaid amount is the amount worked out in accordance with the following formula:
Overpayments and debt recovery  Part 4
Non-recovery of debts Division 4

Section 101

Annual repayment \[ \frac{\text{Interest}}{\text{Interest} \times \left( \frac{1}{\text{Interest}} \right)} \]

where:

\textit{annual repayment} is the amount of the debt that the Secretary believes would be recovered under Division 2 in a year if subsection (4) did not apply in relation to the debt.

\textit{interest} is the annual rate of interest specified by the Minister by determination in writing.

\( rp \) (repayment period) is the number of years needed to repay the unpaid amount if repayments equal to the annual repayment were made each year.

\textit{Determination is a disallowable instrument}

(7) A determination for the purposes of the definition of \textit{interest} in subsection (6) is a disallowable instrument for the purposes of section 46A of the \textit{Acts Interpretation Act 1901}.

101 Waiver in special circumstances

The Secretary may waive the right to recover all or part of a debt if the Secretary is satisfied that:

(a) the debt did not result wholly or partly from the debtor or another person knowingly:
   (i) making a false statement or a false representation; or
   (ii) failing or omitting to comply with a provision of the family assistance law; and

(b) there are special circumstances (other than financial hardship alone) that make it desirable to waive; and

(c) it is more appropriate to waive than to write off the debt or part of the debt.
Secretary may waive debts of a particular class

(1) The Secretary may, on behalf of the Commonwealth, decide to waive the Commonwealth’s right to recover debts arising under or as a result of this Act that are included in a class of debts specified by the Minister by determination in writing.

(2) A decision under subsection (1) takes effect:
   (a) if no day is specified in the decision—on the day on which the decision is made; or
   (b) if a day is specified in the decision—on the day so specified (whether that day is before, after or on the day on which the decision is made).

(3) A determination under subsection (1) is a disallowable instrument for the purposes of section 46A of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901.

Determination that penalty interest not payable in relation to particular periods

(1) This section deals with the making of determinations under subsections 77(3) and 78(3) (determinations that interest is not payable in certain circumstances).

(2) The determination may relate to a period before the making of the determination.

(3) The determination may be expressed to be subject to the person complying with specified conditions.

(4) The Secretary must give a copy of the determination to the person as soon as practicable after making the determination.

(5) A failure to comply with subsection (4) does not invalidate the determination.

(6) If:
   (a) the determination is expressed to be subject to the person complying with specified conditions; and
   (b) the person contravenes a condition;
the determination ceases to have effect.

(7) The Secretary may cancel or vary the determination by written notice to the person.
Part 5—Review of decisions

Division 1—Internal review

104 Review initiated by Secretary

(1) The Secretary may, if satisfied that there is sufficient reason to do so, review a decision of any officer under the family assistance law.

(2) The Secretary may review the decision even if an application has been made to the Social Security Appeals Tribunal or the Administrative Appeals Tribunal for review of the decision.

(3) The Secretary must not review the decision under this section while any review of the decision is taking place under section 105.

(4) The Secretary may:
   (a) affirm the decision; or
   (b) vary the decision; or
   (c) set the decision aside and substitute a new decision.

(5) If the Secretary makes a decision to do one of the things in paragraph (4)(b) or (c), the Secretary must give notice of the decision to the person whose entitlement, or possible entitlement, to family assistance is affected by the decision. The notice must state the effect of the decision and that the person may apply for review of the decision involved in the manner set out in this Part.

(6) A contravention of subsection (5) in relation to a decision does not affect the validity of the decision.

(7) If:
   (a) the Secretary makes a decision to do one of the things in paragraph (4)(b) or (c); and
   (b) by the time the Secretary makes that decision, a person has applied to the Social Security Appeals Tribunal or the Administrative Appeals Tribunal for review of the decision that was reviewed by the Secretary;
the Secretary must give written notice of the Secretary’s decision under that paragraph to the Executive Director or the Registrar of the Administrative Appeals Tribunal, as the case requires.

(8) If:
(a) the Secretary sets a decision aside under subsection (4); and
(b) the Secretary is satisfied that an event that did not occur would have occurred if the decision had not been made;
the Secretary may, if satisfied that it is reasonable to do so, deem the event to have occurred for the purposes of the family assistance law.

105 Review initiated by applicant
(1) A person affected by a decision of an officer under the family assistance law (other than a decision made by the Secretary personally) may apply to the Secretary for review of the decision.
(2) If the person does so, the Secretary must either:
(a) review the decision and:
(i) affirm the decision; or
(ii) vary the decision; or
(iii) set the decision aside and substitute a new decision; or
(b) arrange for an authorised review officer (see section 106) to do so.
(3) Whoever reviews the decision in accordance with subsection (2) (the decision reviewer) must, after conducting the review, give the applicant written notice of his or her decision to affirm or vary the decision reviewed, or to set it aside and substitute a new decision.
(4) If:
(a) the decision reviewer sets the decision aside after reviewing the decision under subsection (2); and
Part 5  Review of decisions
Division 1  Internal review

Section 106

(b) the decision reviewer is satisfied that an event that did not occur would have occurred if the decision had not been made;
the decision reviewer may, if satisfied that it is reasonable to do so,
deem the event to have occurred for the purposes of the family assistance law.

(5) If:
(a) a person who may apply to the Secretary for a review of a decision under subsection (1) has not done so; and
(b) the person applies to the Social Security Appeals Tribunal for review of the decision (despite not being entitled to do so);
the person is taken to have applied to the Secretary for review of the decision under subsection (1) on the day on which the person applied to the Social Security Appeals Tribunal.

106  Authorised review officers

(1) The Secretary must authorise officers to be authorised review officers for the purposes of this Division.

(2) The Secretary must not authorise an officer of an agency other than the Department unless the head of the agency has agreed to the authorisation.

107  Review applications—time limits and withdrawal

Application to be made within 52 weeks of notification of decision

(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), an application for review under section 105 must be made no later than 52 weeks after the applicant is notified of the decision concerned.

Exception—Secretary determines special circumstances exist

(2) The Secretary may determine special circumstances in which an application may be made after the 52 weeks mentioned in subsection (1). The determination is a disallowable instrument for the purposes of section 46A of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901.
Exception—making of regulations

(3) The regulations may prescribe circumstances in which an application may be made after the 52 weeks mentioned in subsection (1).

Withdrawal of application

(4) An applicant for review under section 105 may, in writing or in any other manner approved by the Secretary, withdraw the application at any time before the decision reviewer does any of the things in subsection 105(2).

(5) If an application is so withdrawn, it is taken never to have been made.

108 Secretary may continue payment pending outcome of application for review

(1) If:
   (a) an adverse family assistance decision (see subsection (4)) is made; and
   (b) the adverse decision depends on the exercise of a discretion, or the holding of an opinion, by a person; and
   (c) a person applies to the Secretary under section 105 for review of the adverse decision;

   the Secretary may declare that entitlement to the family assistance is to continue, pending the determination of the review, as if the adverse decision had not been made.

(2) While the declaration is in force in relation to the adverse decision, this Act (other than this Part) applies as if the adverse decision had not been made.

(3) The declaration:
   (a) starts to have effect on the day on which it is made or on the earlier day (if any) specified in the declaration; and
   (b) stops having effect if:
Part 5  Review of decisions

(ii) the review of the adverse decision is determined by the Secretary or an authorised review officer; or
(iii) the declaration is revoked by the Secretary.

(4) In this section:

adverse family assistance decision means any decision having the effect that an entitlement to family assistance under a determination is reduced or ceases.

109 Notification of further rights of review

(1) If the decision reviewer gives an applicant a notice under subsection 105(3), the notice must include:
   (a) a statement to the effect that the applicant may, subject to this Part, apply to the Social Security Appeals Tribunal for review of the decision reviewer’s decision mentioned in the notice; and
   (b) a statement about the decision reviewer’s decision that:
      (i) sets out the reasons for the decision; and
      (ii) sets out the findings by the decision reviewer on material questions of fact; and
      (iii) refers to the evidence or other material on which those findings were based; and
   (c) a statement to the effect that, if the applicant is dissatisfied with the Social Security Appeals Tribunal’s decision on any application for review as mentioned in paragraph (a), the applicant may, subject to the Administrative Appeals Tribunal Act 1975, apply to the Administrative Appeals Tribunal for review of the Social Security Appeals Tribunal’s decision.

(2) A contravention of subsection (1) in relation to a decision does not affect the validity of the decision.
Division 2—Review by the Social Security Appeals Tribunal

110 SSAT objective

In carrying out its functions under this Act, the SSAT must pursue the objective of providing a mechanism of review that is fair, just, economical, informal and quick.

111 Application for review by SSAT

(1) If the decision reviewer has affirmed, varied or set aside a decision under Division 1, a person affected by the decision may apply to the Social Security Appeals Tribunal for review of the decision as affirmed or varied or, if it has been set aside and another decision substituted, the decision so substituted.

(2) However, a person cannot apply for review under subsection (1) in respect of any of the following decisions:

(a) a decision under subsection 7(2) or 38(2) (form and manner of claim);

(b) if regulations under Division 4 of Part 3 (Child care benefit) allow the Secretary to determine the form and manner of a claim of any kind for child care benefit—a decision of the Secretary to determine that form and manner;

(c) a decision under section 108 or 113 (continuation of payment pending review of adverse decision);

(d) a decision under section 155, 156, 157 or 158 (Secretary requiring information from person);

Part 5 Review of decisions
Division 2 Review by the Social Security Appeals Tribunal

Section 112

112 Time limit for applying for review by the SSAT

(1) An application to the SSAT under section 111 for review of a decision must be made within 28 days after the applicant is notified of the decision.

(2) However, the SSAT may extend the period of 28 days in a particular case if it is satisfied that special circumstances exist for doing so.

113 Secretary may continue payment pending outcome of application for review

(1) If:

   (a) an adverse family assistance decision (see subsection (4)) is made; and

   (b) the adverse decision depends on the exercise of a discretion, or the holding of an opinion, by a person; and

   (c) a person applies to the SSAT under section 111 for review of the adverse decision;

   the Secretary may declare that entitlement to the family assistance is to continue, pending the determination of the review, as if the adverse decision had not been made.

(2) While the declaration is in force in relation to the adverse decision, this Act (other than this Part) applies as if the adverse decision had not been made.

(3) The declaration:

   (a) starts to have effect on the day on which it is made or on the earlier day (if any) specified in the declaration; and

   (b) stops having effect if:

   (i) the application to the SSAT for review of the adverse decision is withdrawn; or

   (ii) the review of the adverse decision is determined by the SSAT; or

   (iii) the declaration is revoked by the Secretary.
(4) In this section:

adverse family assistance decision means any decision having the effect that an entitlement to family assistance under a determination is reduced or ceases.

114 SSAT review powers

(1) If a person applies to the SSAT for review of a decision, the SSAT must:

(a) affirm the decision; or
(b) vary the decision; or
(c) set the decision aside and:
   (i) substitute a new decision; or
   (ii) send the matter back to the Secretary, for reconsideration in accordance with any directions or recommendations of the SSAT.

(2) If the SSAT sets a decision aside and substitutes for it a decision that a person is entitled to have a payment made under this Act, the SSAT must:

(a) assess the amount of the payment; or
(b) ask the Secretary to assess the amount.

(3) If:

(a) the SSAT sets a decision aside under subsection (1); and
(b) the Secretary or the SSAT, as the case may be, is satisfied that an event that did not occur would have occurred if the decision had not been made;

the Secretary or the SSAT, as the case requires, may, if satisfied that it is reasonable to do so, deem the event to have occurred for the purposes of the family assistance law.

115 Powers of the SSAT

The SSAT may, for the purpose of reviewing a decision under the family assistance law, exercise all the powers and discretions that are conferred by the family assistance law on the Secretary.
116 Date of effect of SSAT decisions

(1) Subject to this section, a decision of the SSAT comes into operation immediately on the giving of the decision.

(2) The SSAT may specify in a decision that the decision is not to come into operation until a later day specified in the decision and, if it does so, the decision comes into operation on that later day.

(3) Subject to subsection (4) of this section and any regulations under subsection 236(4), if the SSAT:
   (a) varies a decision (the original decision) under review; or
   (b) sets aside a decision (also the original decision) under review and substitutes a new decision;
   the decision as varied or the new decision, as the case may be, has effect, or is taken to have had effect, on and from the day on which the original decision has effect, or would have had effect, if the person who made the original decision had made the decision as varied or the new decision.

(4) The SSAT may declare:
   (a) that subsection (3) does not apply to a decision by the SSAT on a review; and
   (b) that subsections (1) and (2) apply instead.

(2) If a person makes an oral application in accordance with paragraph (1)(b) or (c), the person receiving the oral application must make a written record of the details of the oral application and note on the record the day on which the application is made.

(3) An application may include a statement of the reasons for seeking a review of the decision.

118 Variation of decision before review completed

(1) If an officer varies a decision after an application has been made to the SSAT for review of the decision but before determination of the review, the application for review is to be treated as if it were an application for review of the decision as varied.

(2) If an officer sets a decision aside and substitutes a new decision after an application has been made to the SSAT for review of the original decision but before the determination of the review, the application for review is to be treated as if it were an application for review of the new decision.

(3) If:
   (a) a person applies to the SSAT for review of a decision; and
   (b) before determination of the review, an officer varies the decision or sets it aside and substitutes a new decision;

(1) If an application under section 111 is sent or delivered to an office of the Department or another agency, the Secretary must send the application to the Executive Director as soon as practicable and, in any case, not later than 7 days after the application is received at the office of the Department or other agency.
