286A Simplified outline of this Part

This Part deals with the funding of registered political parties, candidates and groups. It also deals with gifts and other financial matters relating to parties, candidates, groups, political campaigners, third party campaigners and associated entities.

Registered political parties, candidates and groups must have agents. Political campaigners, third party campaigners and associated entities must have financial controllers. Many of the obligations in this Part are imposed on those agents and financial controllers.

Registered political parties, candidates and groups may be entitled to election funding. The election funding is payable in relation to any candidate who received more than 4% of the total first preference votes cast in the election.

Generally, gifts of over $250 to political entities (who are registered political parties, candidates and Senate groups), and most political campaigners, must be made by allowable donors (who, broadly, have a connection to Australia). Similarly, only allowable donors may make gifts of more than $250 in a financial year to a single political entity or political campaigner.
Gifts to third party campaigners, and to political campaigners that are registered charities or registered organisations, from non-allowable donors must not be made or used for political purposes. Gifts to such charities and organisations from non-allowable donors must be kept in a separate account.

Generally, gifts must also be paid from bank accounts in Australia. Specified particulars must be provided for gifts over $250.

There are obligations to disclose certain gifts made to:

(a) candidates and members of groups during an election period; and
(b) registered political parties, State branches and political campaigners.

Certain expenditure incurred by or with the authority of candidates and groups during an election period must also be disclosed.

Each financial year, registered political parties, political campaigners, third party campaigners and associated entities are required to disclose details relating to amounts received or paid or incurred by the parties, campaigners or entities during the year.

298C Determination of claim

(1) The Electoral Commission must, within 20 days of the Electoral Commission receiving a claim:

(a) decide whether to accept or refuse the claim, in whole or in part; and

(b) to the extent that the Electoral Commission accepts the claim—pay the amount required by section 298D or 298E.

(2) In deciding whether to accept or refuse a claim, in whole or in part, the Electoral Commission must only consider:

(4) If:

(a) an interim claim is refused; and

(b) a final claim is not lodged;

the interim claim is taken to be a final claim refused by the Electoral Commission for the purposes of sections 298F, 298G and 298H.

(5) To avoid doubt, subsection (3) does not require the Electoral Commission to determine the amount of election funding that is payable based on formal first preference votes and formal first preference group votes counted as at the day the interim claim is taken to be a final claim.

298D Payment to be made following acceptance of an interim claim

(1) This section applies if the Electoral Commission accepts, in whole or in part, an interim claim made by the agent of a registered political party, candidate or group in relation to an election or elections.

Note 2: See also section 299A if the amount is payable to the agent of a registered political party.

298F Refusing a final claim

If a final claim is refused, in whole or in part, the Electoral Commission must cause to be given to the agent of the registered political party, candidate or group to which the claim relates, a notice that states that the claim has been refused, in whole or in part, and sets out the reasons for the refusal.

Note: A notice may be required under this section if an interim claim that is refused, in whole or in part, is taken to be a final claim under paragraph 298C(3)(c) or subsection 298C(4).

298G Application for reconsideration of decision to refuse a final claim

(1) If a final claim is refused, in whole or in part, the agent of the registered political party, candidate or group to which the claim relates may apply to the Electoral Commission for the Electoral Commission to reconsider the decision.

(2) The application must:

(a) be in writing; and

(b) set out the reasons for the application.
(3) The application must be made within:
   (a) 28 days after the day on which the agent is notified of the refusal; or

       (iii) set aside the decision and make another decision.

(2) The Electoral Commission must give to the relevant agent a notice stating the decision on the reconsideration together with a statement of the reasons for the decision.

(3) If the Electoral Commission’s decision on the reconsideration would require an amount, or an additional amount, of election funding to be paid, the Electoral Commission must pay the amount within 20 days of the day of its decision.

(4) The Electoral Commission may not delegate its power under subsection (1).

(5) Subsections 141(5) to (6A) apply in relation to a decision under this section in the same way as those subsections apply to a reviewable decision made by the Electoral Commission under subsection 141(2) or (4).

(2) If the candidate was neither:

(a) endorsed by a registered political party; nor

(b) the Electoral Commission becomes satisfied that:

(i) the amount of electoral expenditure should not have been accepted; or the Electoral Commission may vary the claim decision accordingly.

(2) If the Electoral Commission makes a decision (the variation decision) to vary the claim decision, sections 298F, 298G and 298H apply in relation to the variation decision as if it were, to the extent of the variation, a decision of the Commission to refuse the claim.

(3) If:

(a) the Electoral Commission varies the claim decision; and

(b) the total amount of election funding that has been paid to a person in respect of the final claim, and any interim claim, exceeds the amount that, under the claim decision as varied, should have been paid to the person in respect of the final claim;

the amount of the excess is an overpayment, and may be recovered by the Commonwealth as a debt due to the Commonwealth by action against the person.

Division 3A—Requirements relating to donations

Subdivision A—Interpretation

302A Simplified outline of this Division

This Division regulates gifts that are made to registered political parties, candidates, groups, political campaigners and third party campaigners.

Gifts of over $250 to political entities (broadly, registered political parties, candidates and Senate groups), and most political campaigners, must be made by allowable donors. Similarly, only allowable donors may make gifts of more than $250 in a financial year to a single political entity or political campaigner. An allowable donor is a person who has a connection to Australia, such as an Australian citizen or an entity that is incorporated in Australia.

Gifts to third party campaigners, and to political campaigners that are registered charities or registered organisations, from non-allowable donors must not be made or used for political purposes. Gifts to such charities and organisations from non-allowable donors must be kept in a separate account.

Anti-avoidance provisions apply to strengthen these requirements.

Generally, gifts must also be paid from bank accounts in Australia. Specified particulars must be provided for gifts over $250.

A person may be liable for a civil penalty for contravening the requirements. There are some exceptions such as when a gift is made in a personal capacity.
302B Interpretation

(1) In this Division:

acceptable action is taken in relation to a gift if any of the following action is taken:

(a) an amount equal to the amount or value of the gift is transferred to the Commonwealth for the purposes of this Division;
(b) the gift is returned to the donor or the person who made the gift;
(c) an amount equal to the amount or value of the gift is transferred to the donor or the person who made the gift.

appropriate donor information has the meaning given by section 302P.

Persons to remain candidates and groups for 30 days after an election

(2) For the purpose of this Division:

(a) a person who is a candidate in an election is taken to remain a candidate; and
(b) persons who constituted a group in an election are taken to continue to constitute the same group;

for 30 days after the polling day in the election.

302C Object of this Division

(1) The object of the Division is to secure and promote the actual and perceived integrity of the Australian electoral process by reducing the risk of foreign persons and entities exerting (or being perceived to exert) undue or improper influence in the outcomes of elections.

(2) This Division aims to achieve this object by restricting the receipt and use of political donations made by foreign persons or entities that do not have a legitimate connection to Australia.
