ABORIGINAL LAND RIGHTS (NORTHERN TERRITORY) AMENDMENT BILL
(No. 1) 1998

OUTLINE

The Bill makes provision for the following amendments to the Aboriginal Land Rights (Northern Territory) Act 1976:

- the Bill would raise the retiring age for the occupant of the position of Aboriginal Land Commissioner from 65 years to 70 years. The occupant of this position is required to be a Judge of the Federal Court or the Supreme Court of the Northern Territory. The present retiring age for Judges of these courts is 70 years.

- the Bill would add 2 new parcels of land to Schedule 1 of the Aboriginal Land Rights (Northern Territory) Act 1976 as the result of an agreement reached between the Northern Territory Government, traditional owners and the Land Councils in settlement of prior land claims brought under the Act. This would bring the total number of parcels of land which have been scheduled under that Act since 1977 to 61.
