Mr TRUSS (Wide Bay—Agriculture, Fisheries and Forestry) (9.45 am)—I move:

That the bill be now read a second time.

This bill accompanies the Social Security (Administration) Bill 1999 and the Social Security (Administration and International Agreements) (Consequential Amendments) Bill 1999 .

The bill:

- . provides for the consolidation of existing social security international agreements into a separate act;
- . provides for new social security international agreements to be added to the Social Security (International Agreements) Act (once enacted) by way of regulation; and
- . provides for existing social security international agreements to be varied by way of regulation.

Mr Speaker, I commend the bill to the House.

Debate (on motion by Mr Melham) adjourned.
